

FALL FROM CAR FATAL TODAY TO
KENNETH E. FRY

Kenneth Eugene Fry, 2 1/2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Fry, Hampton, died at the Warner hospital this morning at 2:15 o'clock from injuries received in a fall from an automobile one-fourth mile south of here on the Emmitsburg road on Sunday afternoon.

State police who investigated said that the child was seated in the rear seat of a car driven by his mother, Mrs. Helen Fry, along with a brother, Lester Fry, 4. In the front seat of the car were his mother, another adult and a 10-month-old child.

Kenneth, according to police, was attempting to wind down the window in order to throw out a dixie cup when his hand slipped against the door handle and the door opened. The child, unbalanced, fell to the road. He was admitted to the hospital Sunday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock, 15 minutes after the accident occurred.

No Inquest

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, investigated and said death was due to a fractured skull, bruises of the body and a severe laceration of the scalp. No inquest will be held.

The youngster was born at Quent, Pa.

In addition to his parents he is survived by two brothers, Lester Charles, aged 4, and James Arthur, 11 months, at home; paternal grandfather and step-grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Fry, Montoursville, Pa., and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lydia Fansler, Calamath Falls, Oregon.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender funeral home conducted by the Rev. Alvin J. Forry, East Berlin. Interment in New Chester cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening after 7 o'clock.

UNESCO AIMS
ARE OUTLINED

The way in which the United Nations Educational Science and Cultural Organization was formed and the work it hopes to accomplish were outlined to the International Club of Gettysburg college Monday evening by Dr. Esther Brunauer, of the U. S. State department. She was a technical advisor to the U. S. delegation at the first UNESCO conference and now is a member of the executive committee of the international organization.

Giving details of how the plans for the UNESCO and other agencies were developed along with the plan for the United Nations when delegates from the various nations met at San Francisco and previously, Dr. Brunauer then went on to tell of the difficulties the UNESCO.

Phi Gamma Delta
Honors Dr. Cline

Dr. Thomas L. Cline, whose resignation as head of the English department of Gettysburg college becomes effective at the close of the present semester, was honored at a dinner at the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity Monday evening.

Doctor Cline, who has been a trustee and chapter adviser, was presented with a leather brief case in recognition of his 24 years of service with the fraternity.

Mrs. Cline and the board of trustees of the fraternity were additional guests.

ROTARY HEARS
IN PALESTINE

"If at the end of the First World War Jewish leaders had sought a friendly understanding with the Arabs and had offered to cooperate with them in rebuilding Palestine and other Arab countries, the Arabs would have welcomed as friends and fellow citizens all Jews who wished to come. There would have been no Palestine problem."

Yusuf Ghannam, an Arab and a native of Jerusalem, made that statement Monday evening during the course of a talk on "Palestine from the Arab Viewpoint," given at the regular meeting of the local Rotary club at the YWCA. Ghannam, a student at Gettysburg college, was the second speaker on the Palestine problem to appear before the local club. Previously a Jewish rabbi talked on the Jewish point of view.

"Political Bargain"

"Instead of extending to the Arabs the hand of fellowship, Zionist leaders took it upon themselves to commit their movement to the conquest of Palestine by aid of the sword. They made a political bargain with the British according to which Palestine was to become a Jewish state under the mask of a national home and at the same time a military base to defend the British empire.

"This is the cause of what is known today as the Palestine question. The British want a base to defend the British empire. The Jews want to establish a Jewish commonwealth and the Arabs intend to see that Palestine remains an Arab country," Ghannam said.

DATE ADVANCED ON SUGAR STAMP

Washington, May 13 (AP)—The Agricultural department announced today that sugar ration stamp No. 12 for individual consumers will become valid June 1 instead of July 1 as originally planned. It will allow purchase of 10 pounds.

The department said that supplies from this stamp must last until October 31, when price and rationing controls will expire unless extended by Congress.

Consumers ration stamp No. 12 is the second to be designated as a 10-pound sugar stamp. The first was No. 11 which became valid April 1. The June 1 date was set for No. 12 in order to expedite movement of sugar into home pantries while railway transportation is available.

Officials say they expect a shortage of freight cars for sugar after the bumper winter wheat crop starts moving to market late next month.

Sugar Piling Up

Sugar now is piling up in eastern refinery centers.

Other actions the government has taken to speed up sugar movement include: Industrial users may apply for third quarter allotments June 1 instead of June 10, the date set earlier.

A regulation limiting inventories of industrial users to 30 days supply is suspended. Thus, such users may obtain a full quarter's supply after their new allocation is determined.

Photographers To Meet On Thursday

The Gettysburg Photographic society will entertain members of the Chambersburg Camera club Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the science hall at the college. More than 20 members of the Chambersburg club are expected to be present.

There will be a "gadget" exhibit by the local club members and a display of 30 prints from the Syracuse Camera club.

GETS SIX MONTHS

Lawrence Duncan, Gettysburg, was sentenced to six months in the county jail this morning by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore on a charge of drunkenness brought by borough police, according to borough police. Police said the large sentence was imposed because of previous convictions against the defendant on the same charge.

HOLD FUNERAL
THURSDAY FOR SCHOOLBOY, 7

Funeral services for Glenn Bolden Hoffheins, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer P. Hoffheins, New Oxford R. 1, fatally injured at 12:15 Monday afternoon when he was struck by a small truck operated by Frank Flesman, New Oxford R. 1, in front of the Clear View school, Carlisle road, just inside the New Oxford borough limits, will be held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at the Lutheran church, Abbotstown.

The boy was struck by Flesman's truck as the latter was driving south toward New Oxford, when he ran into the highway after a baseball, Dr. C. G. Crist, coroner, said. He and others had been playing in a small field adjoining the school. An automobile owned by Mary Jane Geiman, York, music teacher, was parked near the school, the coroner said, and Flesman told authorities that another automobile was approaching from the opposite direction.

Skull Is Fractured

The boy's skull was fractured and his neck and chest injured, according to Dr. Samuel Kirkpatrick, who was first called. He died before the arrival of the Hanover ambulance.

Besides his parents, three sisters, Mrs. Robert Rabenstein, Hanover R. 1, Nadine and Janet Marie Hoffheins, at home, a brother, Elmer P. Hoffheins, Jr., and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. William Bolden, Hanover, also survive.

The body will be taken to the Abbotstown church at 9 o'clock Thursday morning and will lie in state for an hour prior to the funeral service. The Rev. Snyder Allenman, pastor of the church, will officiate, and burial will be in the Lutheran cemetery, Abbotstown. Friends may call at the Feiser funeral home, Hanover, Wednesday evening.

BENDERSVILLE
ADDS 37 ACRES

With filing in Adams county court on Saturday of a certified copy of a Bendersville borough ordinance together with a description and plot of new boundary lines, Bendersville borough annexed a 37-acre section lying along both sides of the road leading from the town south toward Tyson's corner.

The newly-annexed section of the town extends to a depth of about 600 feet along both sides of the highway from the southern edge of the town's former boundary line for a distance of approximately 2,500 feet.

The property owners involved, including M. E. Knouse, the Keystone Ceramic company, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ditzler, Mrs. Edyth Knouse and Emerson L. Orner, originally petitioned the borough council for the annexation.

On the same day that the court papers were filed by Keith, Bigham and Markley, as Bendersville borough solicitors, a notice of the filing was given to the county commissioners.

BROWNIES HOLD
'INVESTITURE'

An investiture service and party for mothers of the newly-organized Brownie Girl Scout troop, sponsored by the Woman's club, was held Monday afternoon at the Methodist church.

The program included a welcome to mothers by Mary Runkel; playlet, "The Brownie Story," with the following cast which was presented by Winifred Hinkle: Taylor, Ann Baker; Grannny, Sally Smith; Mary Carolyn Putnam; Tommy, Dorothy Lawver; and owl, Glenda Miller; piano solos, Joyce Vanderwall and Bonnie Jean Scott.

The investiture service was conducted by Mrs. D. L. Norman, leader, assisted by Mrs. Fred Pfeiffer, Miss Ruth Kitzmiller and Mrs. George Forney, who pinned Girl Scout Brownie emblems on the girls.

Refreshments were served by the members which had been prepared by the following troop committee: Mrs. Dwight Putnam, chairman, Mrs. Bruce Wolff, Mrs. Theodore Hay, Mrs. Milton Plank and Mrs. Paul Pensinger.

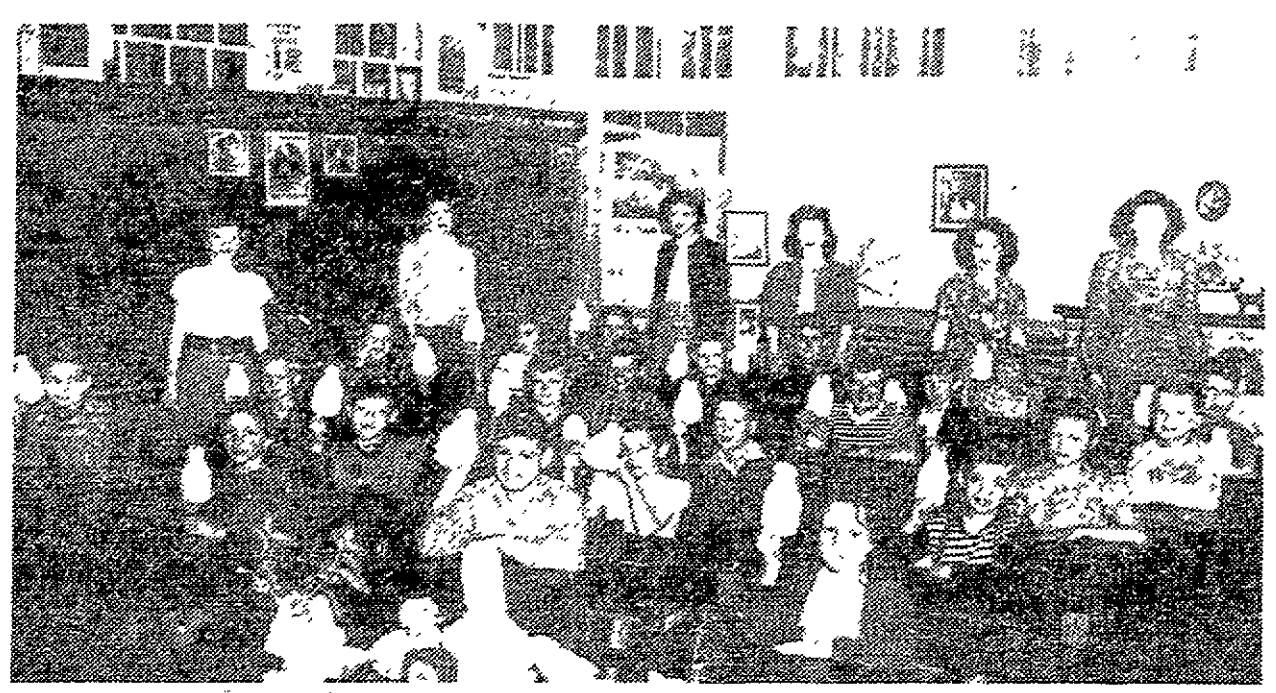

The rooms and tables were decorated with spring flowers and candles.

Third Grade Pupils Studying Nutrition

Third grade students in the High Street school here are completing work in a special nutrition course sponsored by the Adams County Red Cross and taught jointly by Gettysburg high school home economics teacher, Miss Helen Keefe, and the third grade teachers. Last week the students visited Hennig's bakery as part of their studies of what one should eat to be healthy.

The course marks the first time such instruction has been given at the High Street school here.

INSURANCE ON LOCAL SCHOOLS
UPPED $248,000

The Gettysburg school board meeting at the high school Monday evening, voted to increase the insurance on its four schools by $248,000, following the study of a report and appraisal submitted by Philip R. Bikle, local insurance broker.

The added insurance will be carried on a one-year basis, for the present, at least, and may be reduced from year to year if building costs decrease.

The appraisal pointed out that under present replacement values, all of the four schools are "underinsured." The new schedule will increase the coverage on the high school $143,000, High street school $17,000; Meade school, $48,000 and Lincoln school $40,000.

The increases will be divided among several local insurance agents.

Accept Two Resignations

Final action on adoption of the school budget was postponed by the board because of pending state legislation and at the suggestion of the state department of education.

The board accepted the resignations of Mrs. Louise H. Trovelli, school librarian, and Robert E. Stinson, supervisor of art. Both are effective at the end of the school year. Mr. Stinson will continue his work for a degree, his resignation said.

The board elected the Gettysburg National bank as treasurer, and German Court Sentences

Schacht To Eight Years

By THOMAS A. REEDY
Stuttgart, May 13 (AP)—Hjalmar Schacht, German financial wizard who was cleared of war crimes charges by the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg seven months ago, was convicted as a major Nazi offender by a German de-Nazification court today and sentenced to eight years imprisonment.

The verdict was announced by Court President Fritz Lenz in a packed courtroom in the community singing hall where the former Nazi finance minister and Reichsbank president has been on trial for six weeks. The 70-year-old Schacht heard the verdict in stunned silence, his face drawn and white.

The court ordered the confiscation of all of Schacht's remaining fortune—officially estimated at 1,190,000 marks ($119,000)—except for $10,000 Reichsmarks.

It also forbade him to hold any public office during the remainder of his life and deprived him of most of his civil rights, banning him from voting in any election, practicing as an attorney, participating in any political activities, joining any professional or economic organization.

The verdict, practically the maximum that could be imposed, means in effect that until Schacht is 80 years old he will be unable to hold any position socially or economically aside from the role of common laborer.

In imposing the prison sentence, the court decided to take into account the two years that Schacht already has been in custody, thereby reducing his actual term to six years.

If Schacht's health permits he will be compelled to perform some sort of labor during his prison term.

Schacht's attorney, Dr. Wolfgang Schwamberger, said he would appeal the sentence to the highest German court.

Here And There
News Collected At Random

The following lead editorial which is self explanatory, was published in Monday's edition of The Harrisburg Telegraph:

"The Harrisburg Telegraph extends its most sincere congratulations to Judge W. C. Sheely, of the Adams county court, for the celerity with which he has conducted the trial of the two youths accused of murdering an old farmer, both of whom were convicted in possibly one of the shortest murder trials in county history.

"Too often, it seems, such trials drag on and on and on, with continuance after continuance, while the case grows cold, witnesses die or disappear and in the end justice is not accorded.

"Not true in the case of Judge Sheely's court. In shortly more than a month after the brutal murder was discovered and the two accused apprehended, the case is completed less any appeals for retrials which may be approved.

"And this in the face of extreme difficulty in filing the jury box, since it became necessary to go out time after time to round up sufficient men and women to complete the juries.

"So we say to Judge Sheely that we are proud of the way he and others of the court have carried this case to its conclusion. Would that such speed

Meeting Tonight On Recreation Plans

All persons in the community interested in the development of an all-ages, all-year-round program of recreation for the town were urged today to attend a meeting this evening at the Methodist Sunday school at 8 o'clock.

The session has been called by a joint committee of the borough council, school board and youth center committee to outline proposed plans for establishing a community recreation project.

Stolen Auto Hits
Square In Hampton

State police today were looking for the driver of a car which smashed into the square at Hampton Monday morning at 12:10 o'clock.

The car, a 1947 model with less than 800 miles registered on its speedometer, was stolen, police say, from William Fennessy, Carlisle, on Sunday evening. Damage to the car was estimated at $800. Police believe the driver was slightly injured in the crash.

SUPERVISOR HERE THURSDAY

Clarence A. Myers, supervisor for the Farmers Home administration announced today that he will be at the post office, second floor, between 10 a. m. and 12 noon on May 15 to receive applications from Adams county farmers who are unable to finance their spring credit needs through local cooperative or private credit sources.

STRABAN WILL SEND STUDENTS TO NEW OXFORD

The Straban township school board today announced that it has decided, by unanimous vote, to close two of its one-room schools, grade the remaining five schools and transport the seventh and eighth grade students to the New Oxford Junior high school starting in September.

The decision was reached after several months of study of what to do under the provision of Act 403, the new state school law which changes the state reimbursement base for school districts.

Previously the state paid over 86 per cent of the salaries of all teachers in Straban township, the board pointed out. Now it will pay a similar figure based on units of 30 students in elementary schools and units of 22 students in junior and senior high schools.

Retain State Aid

By making the changes, and closing two schools, the township will be able to "provide better education" for its youngsters and still continue to operate at a net additional cost of no more than between $800 and $700 per year after the 1947-48 school year, the board said. With only five elementary schools open it will have sufficient students in each school to obtain the maximum state reimbursement on those students, and by sending the seventh and eighth grade students to a junior high school it will obtain the maximum state reimbursement on those students, it was announced.

The New Oxford school authorities have assured the Straban board that their students can be accommodated. New Oxford extended its program to include a junior high school last year and the program has been operating satisfactorily since, the Straban officials said.

Students from Abbotstown, Berwick, Hamilton, Oxford, Mt. Pleasant, Straban and Tyrone townships have been attending New Oxford high school this year and all of the groups except Mt. Pleasant and Abbotstown are now formally sending all of their seventh and eighth grade students there.

Littlestown
HELD BY WOMEN

The Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity will hold a Mother and Daughter Luncheon on Wednesday evening, May 21. The program committee will consist of Mrs. Melvin Wehler, Mrs. Harry W. Badders, Miss Rose Barker, Mrs. John Brumback, Mrs. John Fleming, Mrs. Donald Lemmon, Mrs. Samuel Renner, and Mrs. Luther Ritter. The hostess committee will comprise Mrs. William Dixon, Mrs. Cloy Crouse, Mrs. Irvin Kindig, Mrs. John LeGore, Mrs. George Mayers, Mrs. George Patterson, and Mrs. Ralph Staley.

The Littlestown Fish and Game association will hold its annual carnival on June 19, 20, and 21.

The Girl Scouts will sell F W W buddy poppies on May 29, 30, and 31.

At Music Recital

Miss Peggy Spalding, Philadelphia, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Spalding.

A number of local residents attended the music recital Friday evening at Western Maryland college, when Robert Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Snyder, Littlestown, was the violin soloist.

About 400 members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles were served a fried chicken supper Monday evening in the home on West King street. This dinner is an annual affair.

The American Legion band is holding weekly rehearsal Monday evening in the fire engine house. The group is progressing nicely, and expects to fill a number of engagements this summer.

LEFEVER CASE
GIRL MISSING

The trial of Dr. Robert S. Lefever, York street physician, on a morals count and a charge of illegally administering a drug with intent to commit a felony, was continued to the August term of court by Judge W. C. Sheely at the resumption of the April term here this morning, when Rita Dryer, who made the charges against Dr. Lefever, did not answer when her name was called in court.

Judge Sheely directed District Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., to take the necessary steps to have Mrs. Dryer in court here for the August term, which opens August 25.

The district attorney moved the two Lefever cases for trial when court opened at 9:30 a.m. this morning, and Dr. Lefever's name was called.

Orders Trial In August

"The defense is ready," Attorney Richard A. Brown, who represents the physician, answered.

The prosecutor then called Mrs. Dryer's name twice. There was no answer. Deputy Sheriff B. E. Buxler was called, with the attorneys, to the side bar, and informed them and the court that a subpoena for Mrs. Dryer's appearance had been served on her on January 28, 1947, when a perjury charge against her by Dr. Lefever was nolle prossed.

"Since at the January term we asked for a continuance, due to the absence of a material witness, we will not oppose trial now," Attorney Brown told the court. "The defendant is very anxious to try the case and dispose of it."

"This case should be disposed of by trial," Judge Sheely replied. He then announced the continuance and directed the district attorney to take steps to have the prosecutrix in court in August.

BACK CAMPAIGN
SCHOOL BOARD

The board of directors of the Gettysburg YWCA went on record at the May meeting Monday afternoon as being in favor of the campaign launched several weeks ago by the local branch of the American Association of University Women to elect a local mother to the Gettysburg school board.

At the same session, Mrs. Richard A. Brown, president of the "Y" board, was designated as the board's representative at the meeting May 28 of women's organizations when the women's candidate is to be chosen.

Completing the annual election of officers begun last month, the "Y" directors named Mrs. Floyd A. Carroll as vice president and Mrs. C. O. Schweizer as board secretary. The installation of new officers was conducted by Mrs. Brown.

Increase Insurance

The board announced that a part time director of girls' work at the YWCA is being sought. Persons interested should get in touch with Mrs. Brown.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Sheldon Ackley Mrs. Floyd King presented a report on activities of the Business and Professional Women's club, stating that nine members were added at the last meeting and telling of plans for representation at a B and P Women's conference June 14 to 21.

After a re-appraisal of the building and furnishings of the YWCA, the board voted an increase of $10,000 insurance on the building and $1,000 on its furnishings.

REDISCOVERY OF CHRISTIANITY IS WORLD'S NEED

The only solution for the western world's youth problem is "to discover Christianity once again," Dr. Bertha Paulsen, professor at Gettysburg Lutheran theological seminary and at Gettysburg college, told the members of the Adams County Welfare council at their annual meeting Monday evening at the Reformed church.

Speaking on "Youth in No Man's Land," the educator who was a social worker in European countries before coming here, pointed out that "youth really wants something more spiritual than we are prepared to admit. Youth must have principles for which to stand. In America there is too much stress on economic success and youth sees through that."

HOLD FUNERAL THURSDAY FOR SCHOOLBOY, 7

Funeral services for Glenn Bolden Hoffheins, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer P. Hoffheins, New Oxford R. 1, fatally injured at 12:15 Monday afternoon when he was struck by a small truck operated by Frank Flesman, New Oxford R. 1, in front of the Clear View school, Carlisle road, just inside the New Oxford borough limits, will be held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at the Lutheran church, Abbottstown.

The boy was struck by Flesman's truck, as the latter was driving south toward New Oxford, when he ran into the highway after a baseball, Dr. C. G. Crist, coroner, said. He and others had been playing in a small field adjoining the school. An automobile owned by Mary Jane Geiman, York, music teacher, was parked near the school, the coroner said, and Flesman told authorities that another automobile was approaching from the opposite direction.

Skull Is Fractured

The boy's skull was fractured and his neck and chest injured, according to Dr. Samuel Kirkpatrick, who was first called. He died before the arrival of the Hanover ambulance.

Besides his parents, three sisters, Mrs. Robert Rabenstein, Hanover R. 1, Nadine and Janet Marie Hoffheins, at home, a brother, Elmer P. Hoffheins, Jr., and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. William Bolden, Hanover, also survive.

The body will be taken to the Abbottstown church at 9 o'clock Thursday morning and will lie in state for an hour prior to the funeral service. The Rev. Snyder Allen, pastor of the church, will officiate, and burial will be in the Lutheran cemetery, Abbottstown. Friends may call at the Feiser funeral home, Hanover, Wednesday evening.

BENDERSVILLE ADDS 37 ACRES

With filing in Adams county court on Saturday of a certified copy of a Bendersville borough ordinance together with a description and plot of new boundary lines, Bendersville borough annexed a 37-acre section lying along both sides of the road leading from the town south toward Tyson's corner.

The newly-annexed section of the town extends to a depth of about 600 feet along both sides of the highway from the southern edge of the town's former boundary line for a distance of approximately 2,500 feet.

The property owners involved, including M. E. Knouse, the Keystone Ceramic company, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ditzler, Mrs. Edyth Knouse and Emerson L. Orner, originally petitioned the borough council for the annexation.

On the same day that the court papers were filed by Keith, Bigham and Markley, as Bendersville borough solicitors, a notice of the filing was given to the county commissioners.

BROWNIES HOLD 'INVESTITURE'

An investiture service and party for mothers of the newly-organized Brownie Girl Scout troop, sponsored by the Woman's club, was held Monday afternoon at the Methodist church.

The program included a welcome to mothers by Mary Runkel; playlet, "The Brownie Story," with the following cast which was presented by Winifred Hinkle: Taylor, Ann Baker; Grunmy, Sally Smith; Mary, Carolyn Putnam; Tommy, Dorothy Lawver, and owl, Glenda Miller; piano solos, Joyce Vanderwall and Bonnie Jean Scott.

The investiture service was conducted by Mrs. D. L. Norman, leader, assisted by Mrs. Fred Pfeffer, Miss Ruth Kitzmiller and Mrs. George Forney, who pinned Girl Scout Brownie emblems on the girls.

Refreshments were served by the members which had been prepared by the following troop committee: Mrs. Dwight Putman, chairman, Mrs. Bruce Wolff, Mrs. Theodore Hay, Mrs. Milton Plank and Mrs. Paul Pensinger.

The rooms and tables were decorated with spring flowers and candles.

GETS 18-INCH TROUT

Jack Berger, Carlisle street, recently caught an 18-inch brown trout in Conewago creek at the Narrows. The fish is the largest one reported caught so far this season in Adams county streams.

Third Grade Pupils Studying Nutrition

Third grade students in the High Street school here are completing work in a special nutrition course sponsored by the Adams County Red Cross and taught jointly by Gettysburg high school home economics students, the local home economics teacher, Miss Helen Keefe, and the third grade teachers. Last week the students visited Hennig's bakery as part of their studies of what one should eat to be healthy.

The course marks the first time such instruction has been given at the High Street school here.

INSURANCE ON LOCAL SCHOOLS UPPED $248,000

The Gettysburg school board, meeting at the high school Monday evening, voted to increase the insurance on its four schools by $248,000, following the study of a report and appraisal submitted by Philip R. Bickle, local insurance broker.

The added insurance will be carried on a one-year basis, for the present, at least, and may be reduced from year to year if building costs decrease.

The appraisal pointed out that under present replacement values, all of the four schools are "under-insured." The new schedule will increase the coverage on the high school $143,000; High street school $17,000; Meade school, $48,000 and Lincoln school $40,000.

The increases will be divided among several local insurance agents.

Accept Two Resignations

Final action on adoption of the school budget was postponed by the board because of pending state legislation and at the suggestion of the state department of education.

The board accepted the resignations of Mrs. Louise H. Troxell, school librarian, and Robert E. Stinson, supervisor of art. Both are effective at the end of the school year. Mr. Stinson will continue his work for a degree, his resignation said.

The board elected the Gettysburg National bank as treasurer, and (Please Turn to Page 7)

Legion Auxiliary Hears Miss Wagaman

The six phases of the school health program in Gettysburg were described by Miss Catherine Wagaman, school nurse, to the members of the American Legion auxiliary at their regular meeting Monday evening at the engine house. Mrs. Joseph Codori presided.

There were gifts for the oldest mother present, Mrs. John E. McDonnell; the youngest, Mrs. Billie Shealer, and those with the most children, Mrs. Henry Dickert and Mrs. Erle Deardorff with four each.

German Court Sentences Schacht To Eight Years

By THOMAS A. REEDY
Stuttgart, May 13 (AP)—Hjalmar Schacht, German financial wizard who was cleared of war crimes charges by the International Military Tribunal at Nuernberg seven months ago, was convicted as a major Nazi offender by a German de-Nazification court today and sentenced to eight years imprisonment.

The verdict was announced by Court President Fritz Lenz in a packed courtroom in the community singing hall where the former Nazi finance minister and Reichsbank president has been on trial for six weeks. The 70-year-old Schacht heard the verdict in stunned silence, his face drawn and white.

The court ordered the confiscation of all of Schacht's remaining fortune—officially estimated at 1,190,000 marks ($119,000)—except for $10,000 Reichsmarks.

It also forbid him to hold any public office during the remainder

Meeting Tonight On Recreation Plans

All persons in the community interested in the development of an all-ages, all-year-round program of recreation for the town were urged today to attend a meeting this evening at the Methodist Sunday school at 8 o'clock.

The session has been called by a joint committee of the borough council, school board and youth center committee to outline proposed plans for establishing a community recreation project.

Stolen Auto Hits Square In Hampton

State police today were looking for the driver of a car which smashed into the square at Hampton Monday morning at 12:10 o'clock.

The car, a 1947 model with less than 800 miles registered on its speedometer, was stolen, police say, from William Fennessy, Carlisle, on Sunday evening. Damage to the car was estimated at $800. Police believe the driver was slightly injured in the crash.

SUPERVISOR HERE THURSDAY

Clarence A. Myers, supervisor for the Farmers Home administration announced today that he will be at the post office, second floor, between 10 a. m. and 12 noon on May 15 to receive applications from Adams county farmers who are unable to finance their spring credit needs through local cooperative or private credit sources.

Three Couples Are Licensed To Marry

Marriage licenses have been issued at the court house to the following couples:

Charles Edward Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Woodward, 119 West Middle street, and Geraldine Elizabeth Geiman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore U. Geiman, 155 South Washington street.

Raymond Wilson Luckenbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Luckenbaugh, Hanover, and Mildred Elizabeth Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Linn, 631 South Washington street.

Chester Kenneth Crowl, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crowl, of Westminster, and Eva Mae Rothhaupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Rothhaupt, Gettysburg.

STRABAN WILL SEND STUDENTS TO NEW OXFORD

The Straban township school board today announced that it has decided, by unanimous vote, to close two of its one-room schools, grade the remaining five schools and transport the seventh and eighth grade students to the New Oxford Junior high school starting in September.

The decision was reached after several months of study of what to do under the provision of Act 403, the new state school law which changes the state reimbursement base for school districts.

Previously the state paid over 86 per cent of the salaries of all teachers in Straban township, the board pointed out. Now it will pay a similar figure based on units of 30 students in elementary schools and units of 22 students in junior and senior high schools.

Retain State Aid

By making the changes, and closing two schools, the township will be able to "provide better education" for its youngsters and still continue to operate at a net additional cost of no more than between $600 and $700 per year after the 1947-48 school year, the board said. With only five elementary schools open it will have sufficient students in each school to obtain the maximum state reimbursement on those students, and by sending the seventh and eighth grade students to a junior high school it will obtain the maximum state reimbursement on those students, it was announced.

The New Oxford school authorities have assured the Straban board that their students can be accommodated. New Oxford extended its program to include a junior high school last year and the program has been operating satisfactorily since, the Straban officials said.

Students from Abbottstown, Berwick, Hamilton, Oxford, Mt. Pleasant, Straban and Tyrone townships have been attending New Oxford high school this year and all of the groups except Mt. Pleasant and Abbottstown are now formally sending all of their seventh and eighth grade students there.

Littlestown LUNCHEON TO BE HELD BY WOMEN

The Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity will hold a Mother and Daughter luncheon on Wednesday evening, May 21. The program committee will consist of Mrs. Melvin Wehler, Mrs. Harry W. Badders, Miss Rose Barker, Mrs. John Brumbach, Mrs. John Fleming, Mrs. Donald Lemmon, Mrs. Samuel Renner, and Mrs. Luther Ritter. The hostess committee will comprise Mrs. William Dixon, Mrs. Cloy Crouse, Mrs. Irvin Kindig, Mrs. John Le-gore, Mrs. George Mayers, Mrs. George Patterson, and Mrs. Ralph Staley.

The Littlestown Fish and Game association will hold its annual carnival on June 19, 20, and 21.

The Girl Scouts will sell V.F.W. buddy poppies on May 29, 30, and 31.

At Music Recital

Miss Peggy Spalding, Philadelphia, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Spalding.

A number of local residents attended the music recital Friday evening at Western Maryland college, when Robert Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Snyder, Littlestown, was the violin soloist.

About 400 members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles were served a fried chicken supper Monday evening in the home on West King street. This dinner is an annual affair.

The American Legion band is holding weekly rehearsal Monday evening in the fire engine house. The group is progressing nicely, and expects to fill a number of engagements this summer.

LEFEVER CASE IS CONTINUED; GIRL MISSING

The trial of Dr. Robert S. Lefever, York street physician, on a morals count and a charge of illegally administering a drug with intent to commit a felony, was continued to the August term of court by Judge W. C. Sheely at the resumption of the April term here this morning, when Rita Dryer, who made the charges against Dr. Lefever, did not answer when her name was called in court.

Judge Sheely directed District Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., to take the necessary steps to have Mrs. Dryer in court here for the August term, which opens August 25.

The district attorney moved the two Lefever cases for trial when court opened at 9:30 a.m. this morning, and Dr. Lefever's name was called.

Orders Trial In August

"The defense is ready," Attorney Richard A. Brown, who represents the physician, answered.

The prosecutor then called Mrs. Dryer's name twice. There was no answer. Deputy Sheriff B. E. Bixler was called, with the attorneys, to the side bar, and informed them and the court that a subpoena for Mrs. Dryer's appearance had been served on her on January 28, 1947, when a perjury charge against her by Dr. Lefever was nolle prosequere.

"Since at the January term we asked for a continuance, due to the absence of a material witness, we will not oppose trial now," Attorney Brown told the court. "The defendant is very anxious to try the case and dispose of it."

"This case should be disposed of by trial," Judge Sheely replied. He then announced the continuance and directed the district attorney to take steps to have the prosecutrix in court in August.

BACK CAMPAIGN FOR WOMAN ON SCHOOL BOARD

The board of directors of the Gettysburg YWCA went on record at the May meeting Monday afternoon as being in favor of the campaign launched several weeks ago by the local branch of the American Association of University Women to elect a local mother to the Gettysburg school board.

At the same session, Mrs. Richard A. Brown, president of the "Y" board, was designated as the board's representative at the meeting May 28 of women's organizations when the women's candidate is to be chosen.

Completing the annual election of officers begun last month, the "Y" directors named Mrs. Floyd A. Carroll as vice president and Mrs. C. O. Schweizer as board secretary. The installation of new officers was conducted by Mrs. Brown.

Increase Insurance

The board announced that a part time director of girls' work at the YWCA is being sought. Persons interested should get in touch with Mrs. Brown.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Sheldor Ackley. Mrs. Floyd King presented a report on activities of the Business and Professional Women's club, stating that nine members were added at the last meeting and telling of plans for representation at a B and P Women's conference June 14 to 21.

After a re-appraisal of the building and furnishings of the YWCA, the board voted an increase of $10,000 insurance on the building and $1,000 on its furnishings.

REDISCOVERY OF CHRISTIANITY IS WORLD'S NEED

The only solution for the western world's youth problem is "to discover Christianity once again," Dr. Bertha Paulsen, professor at Gettysburg Lutheran theological seminary and at Gettysburg college, told the members of the Adams County Welfare council at their annual meeting Monday evening at the Reformed church.

Speaking on "Youth in No Man's Land," the educator who was a social worker in European countries before coming here, pointed out that "youth really wants something more spiritual than we are prepared to admit. Youth must have principles for which to stand. In America there is too much stress on economic success and youth sees through that."

RATE VICTORY NOT TO BRING FACTORY BOOM

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Don't exaggerate the importance of the Supreme Court decision on freight rates, at least in the near future.

It's a victory all right for the south and west over the north but here's the story, starting from scratch.

Since thousands upon thousands of items are shipped by rail, the cost, or freight-rate, set-up is vastly complex.

In fact, it's a hodge-podge, with the rates varying by the size, weight, and destination of an item, and so on.

Regulating freight-rates is one of the jobs of the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC). It steps in to regulate, or is called in.

The ICC, created in 1887 by Congress, has been trying for years to put some uniformity into freight rates.

But for years the north, through lower rates on certain kinds of goods, has had an advantage over the south and west.

Two Rate Classes

That's the heart of this story and of the Supreme Court decision. Generally, there are two kinds of freight rates: commodity and class rates.

Goods shipped under commodity rates mostly are raw materials, like coal, iron, lumber, cotton and so on.

Goods shipped under class rates mostly are finished, manufactured items, like clothing or shoes.

Commodity rate goods make up the great part of all goods shipped by rail. Railroads get most of their freight income from them.

Class rate goods are only a small part—four per cent—of all goods shipped by rail. Railroads get only six per cent of their income from them.

Do northern shippers have an advantage, through lower rates, on commodity and class rate shipments?

Not on commodity rates, according to ICC officials. They say:

Generally, there's no "substantial difference" in commodity rates on goods shipped between north, south and west.

Lower in North

But the northerners—dees—have an advantage over southern and western competitors on goods shipped under class rates. They're lower for him.

Example:

It's cheaper for a northern manufacturer to ship, say, a case of shoes from one northern point to another northern point or from a northern point to a southern than—

For a southern manufacturer to ship his shoes from one southern point to another southern point or from a southern point to a northern point. (The western shipper is under the same disadvantage.)

This discrimination in freight rates, on class rate goods, has made southerners sore for a long time.

They argue that this, among other things, has kept new manufacturers and industries from opening in the south since they get better rates by staying in the north.

The ICC began an investigation of this class rate discrimination in 1939. In 1945, after many hearings, it issued a ruling.

This ruling, to wipe out the class rate differences between the sections, said class rates should be cut 10 per cent in the south and west and boosted 10 per cent in the north.

Red Cross Demonstration Class

and nutrition heads throughout the eastern United States the way in which Adams county has developed a nutrition course for the youngsters in elementary classes with high school home economics students participating as teachers.

The picture shows the youngsters at "the perfect breakfast," speaking from a nutrition standpoint. After studying the foods needed for proper nutritional balance for breakfasts, the first and second graders brought foods to school and actually put into practice their training.

Among the students are the following: Loreen Albright, Joyce Bales, Jannie Chronister, Joanne Chronister, Shirley Haar, Cynthia Miller, Shirley Myers, Doris Nicholson, Jean Tanner, Kathleen Thumma, Frederick Innerst, John Jacobs, Donald Kroft, Clair Laughman, Larry Laughman, Charles Lentz, Arthur Loper, Charles Mundorf, Denton Schwartz, Eugene Sterner, Ernest Loper, Dale Thumma and Larry Wrights, all of the first grade, and Shirley Grace, Brenda Miller, Floetta Groupé, Barbara Spahr, Shirley Smith, Ronald Hankey, Jack

Holzinger, Jimmy Ranker, Ronald Reynolds, Donald Rosenszweig, Nelson Thoman, Robert Topper, all of the second grade, Miss Buelah Wentz, the teacher and Mrs. Bernice Staley, the home economics instructor, are among those shown standing in the rear of the room. The home economics students who took part in the course are Lois Snyder, Charlotte Glatfelter, Elaine Hoover, Dorothy Bentzel, Ruth Wagner, Treva Myers, Nancy Morris, all seniors, and Janet Altland, Ethel Crook, Martha Eisenhart, Norma Kauffman, Betty Jane Markle, Louise Spahr, Louise Heiner, Harriet Stumer, Estella Hoff, Dorothy Hoff, Ethel Myers and Mary Forry, all juniors.

"This is as it should be. If our organization suspected that any of its members were affiliated with any subversive groups it would take the same steps. Nor do we resent exclusion of members of the chamber of commerce from UE membership, although the company is not to our liking."

For the union, President Thomas Nolan of Local 328 explained his group decided "to be impartial and not shoot exclusively at the Red leadership it resents" but to include "all interests detrimental to the pool of labor."

Mississippi is the second largest cotton producing state in the nation.

Commenting on action taken by Locals 638 and 328 which also banned this ruling up to the Supreme Court. Yesterday the court upheld the ICC. So—

The ICC ruling will help southern and western shippers of "class rate" goods, but only that kind of goods. The ICC didn't touch the commodity rates under which most goods move.

Because only four per cent of the nation's freight is affected—the class rate stuff—one ICC official said the importance of the ruling should not be over-emphasized.

He doesn't expect to see any sudden flood of new industry into the south as a result of the decision.

SAYS VETS NEED LARGER GRANTS FOR EDUCATION

(Charlie Sample is one out of a million—a million ex-servicemen completing their college education with the help of Uncle Sam. A veteran who spent 33 months with the navy in the Pacific, Sample is a 22-year-old sophomore at the University of Missouri who wants to be a newspaperman. Today he writes for Hal Boyle his first national byline story.)

By CHARLES SAMPLE
Columbia, Mo. (AP)—I'm getting so used to being a civilian that when someone says "veteran" I look around to see who they're talking about.

I'm not for forgetting the war, mind you, but after all, that was yesterday. I'm working on tomorrow. Yet when some one walks up and asks me how things are under the GI Bill, I really get back into harness.

No one can say enough to thank the powers who worked out the Bill of Rights for veterans, for it was God-sent to a lot of us who would have been in a tough spot without it.

"I Blow My Top"

But things could be a little better. The housing problem, I admit, is tough all over, but you should see it here in Columbia, with an influx of 15,000 students into a town of eighteen thousand. But, we'll get along. Of course, they want real money for rent now. I'm paying more than my family ever did for a six-room house, but I'm not complaining. Some vets live six to eight in a room.

It's all right, too, that our food costs are too high.

But when you go to school four hours a day, study from six to ten more hours to keep up in class, and then pick up a paper and read about somebody or some group raving about the veterans going to college just because of the money—well then I really blow my top.

Don't let anyone fool you. School is tough. When you have to sit in a class of 50 to learn a language and only get about five minutes of classroom recitation a week, you're almost on your own, if you want to learn.

More Than Fair
The school is not to blame. There isn't enough money to staff sufficiently to handle the whole student body. That is something that state legislatures should start worrying about.

The University of Missouri and other schools throughout the country have been more than fair with us "G.I." students. They've given us credits for service work that were really appreciated. The counselor service here is courteous as a grocer during the depression.

We're willing to work with the VA too. We're trying to roll up a college record that will do credit to the education bill ideals.

And we're learning thrift too. Adding laundry and food and maintenance to a thirty-dollar rent bill

TAX CUT ACTION
UNTIL MID-JUNE

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Senate Democrats began lining up today behind a movement to delay action on the proposed $4,000,000,000 income tax cut until mid-June.

By that time, they contend, Congress should have a much better idea of what economies it can effect in President Truman's $37,500,000,000 budget for the fiscal year which starts July 1.

With most of the 44 Democratic Senators not sold on the idea of cutting taxes until the probable surplus can be computed, only a few Republican votes would have to be pulled over to achieve the postponement.

Senator George (D-Ga.) missed by a single tally in the finance committee last Friday when his motion to hold up action until June 15 lost by 7 to 6 straight party vote.

Can't Compromise

Senator Taft of Ohio, the Republican policy chief, said he anticipates another delaying action on the floor but has not checked GOP sentiment on the matter.

Meanwhile Taft and Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) of the Senate Finance committee prepared to meet informally with House leaders tomorrow on the long-overdue legislative budget resolution.

Under the Congressional reorganization law which went into effect this session, the Senate and House are supposed to agree by February 15 on the size of the next year's budget. The House voted to slice $6,000,000,000 off President Truman's $37,500,000,000 estimate, while the Senate went for a cut of only $4,500,000,000 with the proviso that at least $2,600,000,000 of any surplus must be paid on the public debt.

The two Houses so far have not been able to compromise their differences.

Issues Reminder On Gun Registrations

Deputy Treasurer Murray B. Frazee today reminded those who own pistols and similar firearms of foreign manufacture that they must be registered at the court house either Wednesday or Thursday in order to comply with the National Firearms act.

U. S. Treasury department officials will be present from 1 to 9 p. m. each day to register the pistols. Most of the firearms are expected to be those brought back to the country by members of the armed forces from overseas.

Those firearms that need to be registered include all fully automatic weapons, that is, all guns that fire more than one shot with each pull of the trigger, and all guns with a barrel less than 18 inches in length except .22s, in which case all with barrels of less than 16 inches must be registered.

14 Going From Here
To Harding Dinner

Fourteen members of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce had signed up today to attend a "National Affairs" dinner in York Wednesday evening, at which Harlow Harding, president of Harding and company, York manufacturers, and president of the York Manufacturers association, is to be the principal speaker.

The dinner will be held in the club room of the Yorktown hotel, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Other speakers will include Donald Marcellis, manager of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, northeastern division, and Truman D. Weller, national affairs advisor of the chamber's department on governmental affairs.

Lancaster, Pa., May 13 (AP)—A searching party today found the body of one of two Lebanon fishermen missing on a Susquehanna River outing. The dead man was identified as Robert Sorrentino, 35, who disappeared Sunday. There was no immediate trace of Dr. Adams M. Hauer, 35, or the motorboat in which the two had gone fishing.

State Police Say:

The careful and considerate driver will reduce his speed when children are observed walking or playing in the street or along the highway.

Wedding

Lawson—Rutters

A romance which began when the bride, who lost her first husband early in World War II and enlisted in the WACS, met her second husband while the latter was serving in the Navy, culminated here Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Anna Mae Rutters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gardner, York, and James Bruce Lawson, of Elk Mountain, Wyoming, were wed at 4:30 o'clock by the Rev. Eliza Myers, aunt of the bride, in the Four Square gospel church.

The best man was Kenneth Gardner, brother of the bride, and the maid of honor was Alice Swartzbaugh, also an aunt of the bride, both of York. The bride wore a black suit with white corsage, and the maid of honor a green suit with white accessories. The church was decorated with garden flowers, and the ceremony performed under an arch supporting a large, white bell.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for a honeymoon trip through the New England states, after which they will go to Wyoming to make their home.

WIDELY KNOWN BANKER IS SHOT

Radnor, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Thomas Newhall, 70-year-old former member of the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., and widely known Philadelphia financier, was found fatally shot last night in an old storage and record building he had converted into a recreation room for his sons.

His personal physician, Dr. Thomas Shallow, expressed belief Newhall had been dead since Sunday.

D. A. Newhall of Narberth, Pa., a brother, said Thomas apparently had been making his customary week-end inspection of his property at nearby Ithaca and had been cleaning and repairing his collection of firearms.

He added: "Cleaning materials were on the table near where his body was found and it is assumed by the family that a revolver which apparently he was in the act of cleaning went off accidentally. x x x"

Deputy Coroner John Stretch, Jr., said the shooting apparently was accidental. He and Lt. James Bones of the Radnor township police continued an investigation.

Thomas Newhall was a member of the Morgan firm and of Drexel and company, Philadelphia investment firm, from 1922 to 1937. He was a director of the Pennsylvania railroad and former vice president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company. He had served as director of numerous corporations including Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, Reading Coal and Iron Corp., and Sharpe & Dohme, Inc.

New Scarlet Fever
Case; Report Mumps

A new case of scarlet fever and several new cases of mumps have been reported to William I. Shields, state sanitarian of Adams county.

The scarlet fever case is in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Rafensperger, Orrtanna R. 2, Franklin township, where a daughter, Barbara, aged six years, is ill. The home was quarantined Saturday afternoon.

Three cases of mumps have been reported to Mr. Shields within the last few days and Borough Health Officer Erle R. Deardorff said one new case of mumps in Gettysburg was reported Monday. Although homes are not placed under quarantine for mumps, parents are required to report the disease to the borough or county health officers.

Selecting Jury In Murder-Arson Case

Carlisle, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Opposing counsel strove today to complete selection of the jury to try Sylvester B. Wilson, 26, charged with murder and arson in the death of his three small children.

Wilson pleaded innocent of three counts of murder and one of arson growing out of a fire on Christmas Day, 1945, which razed his log cabin home near here, burning to death the three children.

Cpl. Edwin Arms of the Pennsylvania State police fire marshal's office, brought the charges against Wilson, claiming that Wilson signed a statement in which he admitted pouring kerosene on the tots.

RECOMMENDS DIVORCE

GETS SUPPORT ORDER

Bruce R. Jacobs, Abbotstown R. 1, was ordered by the York court Monday to pay $7 a week for the support of a daughter.

Vandenberg Backs
Foreign Relief Fund

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) said today a proposed $350,000,000 foreign relief fund should be provided in full because "the Greek-Turkish aid program cannot succeed if we let the people of Europe go hungry."

Vandenberg, who is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, opens debate on the relief bill after the Senate votes early in the afternoon on the labor disputes legislation which is today's first order of business.

Declaring the Senate should restore $150,000,000 which the House voted to slash from the relief bill, Vandenberg told a reporter:

"It is a question of whether we are going to have hunger or statesmanship in dealing with Europe."

President Truman requested the money to furnish food, clothing, fuel, fertilizer and medical supplies to Austria, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Poland and China.

Lull Before Storm
In 'Battle Of Oleo'

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—It was the lull before the storm on the hot issue of oleomargarine today.

Five weeks of debate on the question ended yesterday with the return to the Senate agriculture committee of a bill to repeal state regulations on the sale of margarine and another measure to impose a flat $5 license fee on handlers of the butter substitute.

But the legislation is due for a public hearing tomorrow, a Republican leader declaring the airing is necessary "to clear up public misunderstanding" on the matter.

Recommitment of the repealer bill by a 33-14 vote in the Senate met with a declaration by the Democratic minority that it was a piece of "legislative strategy."

"Under the guise of sending the bill back to committee, we are voting either for or against the bill," said Sen. John H. Dent, (D-Westmoreland), Senate minority leader.

Time To Nationalize
Coal, Says Wallace

Minneapolis, May 13 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace says "the time has come to nationalize the coal industry under some type of coal authority," and added that "coal means so much to the life blood of the world that neither labor nor agriculture can tolerate the inconveniences which come so frequently in this key industry."

Speaking last night before a paid audience estimated at 5,600 Wallace said that "in the five countries I visited in Western Europe in April I found coal next after wheat to be the key problem."

The former vice president and cabinet member, now editor of the New Republic, said, in continuing his attack on President Truman's proposed $400,000,000 Greece-Turkey loan, "an extra 60,000,000 tons of coal produced in the United States during the next year would do more to solve the problems of Western Europe than ten Greek loans."

Steel Shortage Is Slowing Auto Plants

Detroit, May 13 (AP)—Production was halted or curtailed in at least a dozen of Michigan's big automotive plants today as a steel shortage cut off work for some 40,000 employees.

Seven Briggs Manufacturing company plants—six supplying Chrysler corporation divisions and one providing bodies for the Packard Motor Car company—were among the closed factories.

The Briggs shutdown halted final assembly lines of four Chrysler plants, Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto and Chrysler. In addition, final assembly operations had been suspended in General Motors corporation's Oldsmobile plant in Lansing.

Another GM plant, Buick at Flint, was closed yesterday but called employees back to work today.

German Farmers
Diverting Food

Berlin, May 13 (AP)—F. Taylor Ostrander, American military government price control chief, estimated today that German farmers were diverting a fifth of the nation's food production from controlled distribution to the black market and to livestock.

He said in a statement that Germany was passing through a state of "stagnant inflation."

Ostrander said 450,000 hogs disappeared from the U. S. zone in three months ending in early March, whereas 802,000 were slaughtered in regular channels.

"It is believed, however, that this proportion of illicit marketing of hogs to total marketing is much larger than is characteristic of other foods," he said. "Usually the farmers do not accept money but insist on barter in these transactions for farm equipment, supplies and services."

Lake Success, N. Y., May 13 (AP)—Despite a threatened Arab walkout, the Political committee of the United Nations Assembly today defeated a Soviet move to have a U. N. Palestine inquiry commission draft proposals for immediate independence of the Holy Land.

Detroit Gambler Shot In Street

Detroit, May 13 (AP)—Fred A. Baraky, 33-year-old minor police character and once-convicted gambler, was shot down in the street today in a slaying reminiscent of Detroit's roaring rum running era of the 1920s.

Police expressed fears that his murder may be linked to a week-end crackdown in which officers claimed to have smashed an $8,000,000 gambling syndicate with roots deep in the city's underworld.

Nine bullets were pumped into Baraky's body by a man who accosted him and an unidentified woman companion outside a bowling alley and bar. The slayer then entered what a witness described as "a big automobile" and sped away with two other men.

The woman, about 38, disappeared after sobbing out details of the slaying in the nearby bar.

PORTAL PAY MESSAGE

Washington, May 13 (AP)—President Truman will send a message to Congress tomorrow on the portal-to-portal pay bill. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross, telling reporters this today, declined to forecast whether Mr. Truman will veto or sign the measure. Ross told a news conference the President will accompany his action with an explanation.

Ball Stars Cheer
Legless Boy, 11

Malden, Mass., May 13 (AP)—Two big, tanned ball players—Ted Williams and Joe Dobson—walked through the quiet corridors of Malden hospital today and gave 11-year-old Glenn Brann an autographed baseball and a home run bat he probably will never use.

The Red Sox slugger and pitcher chatted briefly with the little lad who loves baseball but doesn't know his legs have been amputated as a result of burns suffered in a "stake-burning" game.

Glenn wasn't feeling very well, but his eyes gleamed as he saw all the names of the Red Sox regulars written on the brand new ball.

"ELMER" ON TRIAL

Yokohama, May 13 (AP)—Shohei Ikeda, a civilian guard called "Elmer" and "Silly Pace" by Allied war prisoners, pleaded innocent today to 17 counts charging he beat and mistreated prisoners. Ikeda, who served at Taogawa and Tsuruga prison camps in the Osaka area, is on trial before an Eighth Army commission.

Washington, May 13, (AP) — The Senate today killed a milder labor disputes bill offered by a group of Democrats as a substitute for the union-strike curbing legislation backed by Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

FARLEY SAYS HE SPLIT WITH FDR ABOUT 'PURGE'

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

Washington, June 13 (AP)—James A. Farley disclosed today that his split with the late Franklin D. Roosevelt stemmed from his refusal to go along with the ill-fated 1938 attempt to "purge" Congress members who opposed the supreme court reorganization plan.

The former postmaster general and Democratic national chairman said the four-time president "never forgave me for putting party welfare above the personal allegiance he considered his due."

In the first of a series of articles in Collier's on "Why I broke with Roosevelt," Farley said he supported the Court plan "to the hilt" but for the sake of the party declined to participate in attempts to defeat its opponents in the primaries a year later.

"Drifted Apart"

Among the intended targets of the "purge," attributed by many to the late Harry L. Hopkins, were Senators George of Georgia and Tydings of Maryland. Both were renominated and reelected.

Farley wrote that there was "no sharp, clean fracture of friendship," but rather a "slow, imperceptible drifting apart of political principles."

The climax came when Farley let his name go before the Democratic convention in 1940. Roosevelt was renominated for his third term with 946 votes to 72 for Farley, 61 for John Nance Garner, 9 for Segator Tydings and 5 for Cordell Hull.

Decline Comment

Friends of the late President declined comment by name. One said only Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt could answer Farley, who sparked the political organization behind Roosevelt's first two elections.

A Roosevelt associate still in public life said what many Democrats have stated for quotation in the past—that the abortive purge attempt was one of the "most ill-advised" moves Roosevelt ever made.

"This associate disagreed, however, with Farley's remark in the article that 'Mrs. Roosevelt once said, 'Franklin finds it hard to relax with people who aren't his social equals.' I took this remark to explain my being out of the infield.'"

"On the contrary," he declared, "Roosevelt could relax with a dock-walker, a bartender, or anyone else."

Pea Canning Begins Here On Thursday

The Burgoon and Yingling plant here began canning the current pea crop Thursday afternoon and expects to be in full swing by Monday.

At present about 30 employees are at work at the plant. Officials said the pea crop so far is "not too good." Early peas vined Thursday morning appeared not completely filled out and the amount of pods on vines seemed less than normal, a plant spokesman said.

Weddings

Spangler—Crook

Miss Kathleen Jane Crook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Crook, East Berlin R. 2, and Harvey Curtis Spangler, son of Harvey A., and the late Ruth Spangler, East Berlin, were married at 4 p. m. last Saturday by the Rev. Ralph Meckley, pastor of the Lower Meridian Lutheran church, who performed the double ring ceremony.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Ethel Crook, a sister of the bride. The best man was Paul Shaffer, York R. D.

The bride wore a street length white dress of waffle weave and lace, with sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. Her corsage was of red roses with an orchid. She also wore the string of pearls which was a gift of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was attired in a pink eyelet dress with square neckline and cap sleeves. Her corsage was of white roses.

The parents of the bride entertained immediate families at a reception at their home after the ceremony. The centerpiece of the table was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Spangler was graduated in 1944 from the East Berlin high school and has had a position in York. Her husband also attended the East Berlin high school and is a veteran of three and one-half years in military service, 20 months of which was spent in Europe. He is now employed with the Certain-Teed Roofing company, York.

The couple have been on their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, upon the conclusion of which they expect to spend some time with the bride's parents.

Volland—Stahura

Miss Margaret Theresa Stahura, daughter of Mrs. John J. Stahura, Whiting, Ind., became the bride of Robert Ernest Volland, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Carroll Volland, of East Berlin, at a ceremony performed at the rectory of Paradise Catholic church by the pastor, the Rev. Chester T. Loszewski, on Wednesday.

The bridegroom, a graduate of the East Berlin high school, is a veteran of considerable army service, part of which was overseas.

The couple have left on a two-week wedding trip, at the conclusion of which they plan to reside in the apartment at the Clifford M. Barnes home, East Berlin, which is being re-decorated for them.

Ennis—Fitz

Miss Katharine Virginia Fitz, Frederick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Fitz, Emmitsburg, and William Brice Ennis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ennis, Sr., Martin, Tenn., were married last Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in the ballroom of the Francis Scott Key hotel, Frederick. The Rev. Herbert R. Jordan performed the ceremony before an improvised altar in a setting of potted palms, baskets of white peonies, snapdragons and mock orange, lighted with candles.

Members of the bridal party were: Mrs. Murray E. Valentine, Rocky Ridge, Md., a sister of the bride, Lt. R. W. Swanson, Frederick, and Richard Graham, Frederick.

A reception followed the ceremony after which the couple left for a wedding trip to the New England states.

Breighner—Klunk

Miss Rosalie Elizabeth Klunk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Klunk, McSherrystown, and Felix E. Breighner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breighner, New Oxford, were married Thursday morning at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrystown. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Anthony J. McGinley in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Nancy Klunk, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, with Stella M. Klunk, sister of the bride, and Patricia Breighner, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids. William Breighner, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John W. Klunk, Jr., brother of the bride, and Harvey Smith, New Oxford. The Junior choir sang during the nuptial mass.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Pine Tree Inn, York, for the wedding party, families and friends. The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to the Pocono mountains. The couple will live in their newly-furnished apartment at 145 1/2 Linden avenue, Hanover, after June 23.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph's academy, McSherrystown, is employed in the office of the Jackson Shoe company, Hanover. The bridegroom, who attended Delone Catholic high school, is associated with the Miller and Breighner Lumber company, New Oxford.

Markley—Himler

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Doris Ida Himler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Paul Himler, Baltimore, to Dr. Raymond L. Markley, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond L. Markley, Greencastle.

The wedding will take place at 3 p. m., Saturday, in the Faith Lutheran church, of Baltimore. The ceremony will be performed by the father of the bridegroom, assisted by the bride's pastor, the Rev. George F. Hein, pastor of the Faith Lutheran church.

Dr. Markley is a graduate of Gettysburg college.

MACKMEN WHIP SENATORS 5-1 NEWSOM LOSER

By JOE REICHLER

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

At the rate boisterous Bob Newsom, Washington's self-styled 20-game winner is going along this season, he may be lucky to collect the necessary six triumphs he needs in order to join the select list of pitchers who have won 200 or more games in the major leagues.

The garrulous right-hander has yet to gain his first mound win this season.

Newsom was hardly at fault last night as he failed in his third attempt to register his initial win. He gave up only five hits and one run in eight innings. Philadelphia came up with four runs in the top half of the 11th to whip the Senators 5-1.

Bobo has had some tough luck this year. In his first start his mates were blanked by the Yankees 7-0 and in his second time out the Chicago White Sox beat him 5-2.

New Second Placers

Each league got a new runner-up tenant as Brooklyn moved into second spot in the National by defeating the Boston Braves 8-3 at Ebbets Field and the Boston Red Sox nipped the New York Yankees 4-3 at Fenway Park to move behind Detroit in the American.

The Dodgers made good use of 11 hits to clip the Braves, who dropped to third place by nine percentage points.

The game was highlighted by a Dodger run-in with plate umpire George Magerkurth in the second frame over his ball and strike decisions and resulted in the clearing of the Brooklyn bench of everyone except Manager Burt Shotton, Coach Jake Pitler, infielder Cookie Lavagetto and Pitcher Hugh Casey.

No other games were scheduled as most of the teams were preparing for their second inter-sectional series of the campaign. The eastern teams in the National league engage the western clubs on the latter's home grounds today while the western teams begin their invasion of the east in the American league.

Senators Continue To Lead Interstate

(By The Associated Press)

Harrisburg's Senators continue to set the pace in the interstate league but they had to come from behind in the ninth inning last night to eke out a 4 to 3 victory over the Wilmington Blue Rocks.

Sunbury broke a seven game losing streak with a 9 to 6 victory over the Trenton Giants, scoring five runs in the first inning.

Allentown made it three out of four over the Hagerstown Owls, taking a 19 to 16 slugfest after three hours of play.

Lancaster scored 12 runs on 12 hits to win over York, 12 to 7.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 13 (AP)— You can look for quite a tussle when the boys step out for the National Collegiate mile championship at Salt Lake City in June. . . . Penn State's Gerry Karver turned in a 4:11.6 mile last Saturday and just did beat Jack Dianetti of Michigan State. . . . That's the fastest college mile in years, but Nebraska's Bobby Ginn can come close to 4:11; Coach Clyde Littlefield of Texas figures little Jerry Thompson can hit that mark, and Bob Rehburg of Illinois isn't far behind. . . . Floyd (Red) Burdette, Alabama basketball coach, who is here on a visit, reports that Southeastern Conference basketball showed improvement last season; it will be still better next season, and year after next it really will hit the peak.

SUPPORT FOR THE SPORTS

The Shreveport sports of the Texas league made a neat profit on Pitcher Doyle Lade. . . . In 1942 the Chicago White Sox agreed to buy him for $15,000, paying $2,500 down and the rest if they wanted him when he returned from Army duty. . . . After Lade was discharged, the Sox decided against paying the balance, so the sports turned around and sold him to the Cubs for $25,000, to be paid if he remained with Chicago after April 1. . . . Lade stayed and the Cubs paid.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Don't be too surprised of Charlie Gabriel, Army's "sleeper" halfback from Catawba college, turns up as a "T" formation quarterback next fall. . . . Manager Chris Dundee insists that Georgie Abrams doesn't have any "sparring partners" in camp while he's training for Friday's tussle with Ray Robinson. Guys like Bee Bee Washington, Billy Walker and Randy Brown would be insulted if they were called anything less than assistants. . . . Young Fred Hunter, business manager of the Columbia, S. C., club in the Red Sox chain, is a son of Fred, Sr., who played and scouted for the Red Sox.

MULLIN HITS .441 TO LEAD MAJOR BATSMEN

New York, May 13 (AP)— Outfielders Pat Mullin of Detroit and Fred (Dixie) Walker of Brooklyn continued to pace the major league batsmen as the campaign reached the end of the first month of competition.

Walker, the 36-year-old veteran who seems to improve with age fell off a bit from his above .400 mark last week to .397, but Mullin, who is just returning to pre-war form following four years in the army, has boosted his altitudinous figure to a gaudy .441.

In 17 games of which he has hit safely in 16, Mullin has collected 26 hits out of 59 times at bat. The 29-year-old Irishman from Trotter, Pa., who has driven in 10 runs, has rapped out a majority of his hits for extra bases. Included in his total are 11 doubles and five home runs.

Has 59-Point Lead

Mullin enjoys a 59-point bulge in the American league over runner-up Buddy Lewis of Washington who is hitting .382, 26 points higher than the .356 mark owned by sophomore Bob Dillinger of the St. Louis Browns. The surprising George Binks of Philadelphia is fourth with .352 followed by Luke Appling of Chicago and Les Fleming of Cleveland. Each is hitting .347.

Close behind Walker in the National league batting race is Billy Rigney, the fine utility infielder of the New York Giants. The bespectacled graduate of the Pacific coast league is hitting .389, six points more than Bob Elliott of Boston with .383. The Braves' Tommy Holmes is fourth with .357 and Pittsburgh's Frank Gustine is fifth with .342.

Bob Montgomery Defeats La Rover

Philadelphia, May 13 (AP)— Bob Montgomery, the New York-Pennsylvania recognized lightweight champ, added the name of George La Rover to his list of victims for a second time but it took the Bobcat 10 rounds to do it.

Remembering the time La Rover, a Philadelphian, gave him last summer in New England, Montgomery spent most of his time sizing up his opponent in the opening stanza of the non-title fight at the arena last night.

The Bobcat stormed out in the second round and from then on Montgomery used a double barred fistic attack that left La Rover with little power in the final stanzas.

La Rover, a gallant and rugged youngster, won the opening round with a series of sharp rights but thereafter he was no match for the weaving, bobbing, hooking champion.

There were no knockdowns but Montgomery caught La Rover in the fourth and fifth rounds with blows under the heart that definitely hurt.

Hartford Close To Williamsport

(By The Associated Press)

The Hartford Chiefs set out today to wrest the Eastern league leadership from the Williamsport Tigers after edging within a half-game of the top.

The Chiefs downed Williamsport, 5-3, last night despite two home runs and a closing drive by the Tigers.

In other contests, Elmira took a 10-inning decision from Albany, 3-2; Wilkes-Barre defeated Binghamton, 13-7, in another extra inning game, and Scranton nipped Utica, 3-2.

Elmira, Scranton and Utica were tied for third place.

Walcott Accepts Sinatra's Offer

Camden, N. J., May 13 (AP)— Crooner Frank Sinatra's offer of $35,000 for a 10-round bout between Jersey Joe Walcott and Joey Maxim of Cleveland at Hollywood June 23 has been accepted by Joe Webster, Walcott's manager.

Maxim, managed by Jack Kearns, is to receive a $15,000 guarantee. Walcott and Maxim have fought twice. Walcott lost a close decision last summer in Camden and won in a rematch last winter at Philadelphia.

Somerset, Pa., May 13 (AP)— Eight-year-old George F. Swindell, of nearby Garrett, was killed near his home Saturday by the accidental discharge of a rifle in the hands of a 19-year-old neighborhood youth who had been shooting sparrows. Dr. A. M. Uphouse, Somerset county coroner, reported. Dr. Uphouse said the Swindell boy walked into the line of fire and that he had ruled the tragedy an accidental shooting.

LOUIS OBSERVES 33RD BIRTHDAY

Detroit, May 13 (AP)—Joe Louis sat back confidently and observed his 33rd birthday today while others combed the field for a 24th challenger for his heavyweight boxing crown.

Golfing and otherwise doing mighty like he pleases, Joe will be teased by home-town followers at a double-barreled blowout here tonight.

The first reason for the celebration is, of course, the birthday. Secondly, it is nearly 10 years since Joe acquired the sport's most coveted title.

An insurance company of which the brown bomber is an official is throwing the party, complete with cake, candies and all the trimmings. Louis is looking forward to his next championship fight with as much enthusiasm as he has ever shown.

May Fight Baksi

Informed that Joe Baksi, the Pennsylvania coal miner, was reconsidering a title bout next September, the champ said "that's okay with me."

"I don't pick my opponents," he added, "I never have and I am not going to start now. That's up to the promoters."

Baksi, still in London where he recently defeated British Champion Bruce Woodcock, reportedly has changed his mind about taking a shot at Louis.

Shortly after beating Woodcock, Baksi and his handlers decided he wasn't ready for the champ.

As for Louis' Manager, John Roxborough, any arrangements are all right "just so long as they get Joe a fight in September."

Many ring observers believe Baksi has little if any more to offer than 23 other contenders who have fallen by the wayside since Louis lifted the crown from Jimmy Braddock's head back in June, 1937.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Local Miscellany: H. A. Spalding, of Littlestown, sold a handsome pair of black horses to Capt. Calvin Gilbert.

The Gettysburg National bank has declared a dividend of 4 per cent, the First National bank 3 1/2 per cent, and the Gettysburg Water company, 55 cents on each share of stock, clear of all taxes.

George Stallsmith has put in a 35 horse power steam engine to run the machinery in his planing mill. The Daily Local News, West Chester, reports 801 pupils in attendance at the Normal school in that place. From Adams county we notice the names of Ambrose Brough, of Biglerville, Elmira S. Ruff and William Ruff Snyder, both of New Oxford.

Both banks in town will be closed on Saturday, May 15, in accordance with the Governor's request that the day be observed as a holiday in honor of the dedication of the Washington monument in Philadelphia.

A fine bay mare died Saturday night, from colic, for Holtzworth Bros.

W. Oyler & Bro., being the lowest bidders, have received the contract to furnish coal to the Alms House, 80 tons of egg and 60 tons of nut at $712.20.

We notice that some of the property holders on Steinwehr avenue have removed the fences in front of their houses, and soddied their yards. Quite an improvement.

Mr. J. A. Tawney has again exhibited his interest in the public schools by advancing money for the purchase of 400 chairs for use in the assembly room. It is expected that the amount will be made up by the several schools in a series of entertainments which they propose to give during the coming year.

The Adams County Christian Endeavor convention will convene in New Oxford on May 25-27.

Marriages: Starnier—Overholtzer, May 13, at the Mt. Joy parsonage, by Rev. W. G. Minnick, Jeremiah B. Starnier, of Freedom township, and Miss Flora Overholtzer, of near Emmitsburg, Md.

Wisler—Wolf, May 6, at Arendtsville, by Rev. M. M. Noacher, Samuel D. Wisler to Miss Sue Wolf, both of Butler township.

Wedding Bells: On Thursday evening, at the Globe Inn hotel, in this place, Harry B. Sefton was married to Miss Clara Eugene Fissel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Fissel, Rev. A. R. Steck officiated. To the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Rosa Fissel, the bride, attired in cream silk trimmed in Duchess point lace and lilies-of-the-valley and carrying a bouquet of Maréchal roses, entered upon the arm of her father and was met by the bridegroom and best man, Mr. Edward Sefton, of Thurmont. The bridesmaids were Miss Ty M. Sefton, who wore pink henrietta, and Miss Gertrude Stock, of New Oxford, in blue henrietta. The ushers were Mr. Harry C. Houser, William Gilbert, Daniel Wiess and Harry Pfeiffer. Misses Bessie and Anna Fissel were flower girls and carried smilax and carnations. After the ceremony a reception followed.

The GAR band tendered them a serenade. Mr. and Mrs. Sefton will reside on Steinwehr avenue.

Edward Maurice Bender, ex-clerk of the courts, and Miss Minnie Laura Zinn, daughter of Mr. John H. Zinn, were united in marriage in St. James Lutheran church, by Rev. A. R. Steck, Tuesday morning at a quarter past eight o'clock. The bride wore a steel gray camel's cloth dress with hat to match. The bridegroom wore the usual conventional dress. George W. Engler presided at the organ and rendered the Mendelssohn wedding march as the party entered the church. The bride and bridegroom left on the 8-43 train for Philadelphia and other points. The ushers were Guyon H. Buchler, Harry B. Bender, Charles E. Fleck and W. Blair Clancy.

BE A SEARCHER!

Things that just fall into our laps are rarely appreciated at their real worth—but those things for which we search, anxiously, and which entail struggle, or sacrifice, become a vital part of us when gained.

The joy of the rare book collector is in the search. That is why the collector with small means is so much happier in his hobby than the one who has the means to buy what comes to his notice, without search, or the thrill of discovery.

The naturalist who tramps the fields, swamps, and all outdoors to discover varieties of birds and flowers, gains from such a search far more than the mere reader who sits in a stodgey study and reads about such searchers. For hours the former may sit and study, with his field glasses, the movements and habits of a bird—almost conversing with it—as perhaps he does in his mind and heart.

Columbus searched for a new way to what he thought was to be India—and, behold, he discovered a pair of continents! There is always something very stirring to the soul in a search. The unexpected is always turning up. Surprises punctuate one's patience and constantly contribute rewards that delight and please.

Every lover of books is forever searching for something that will add to his love of fine writing. A friend calls and the talk is of books, and we jot down the names of writers and of books that we have never heard about—and the happy search begins.

Coming into a strange town, one often feels a touch of loneliness, but there are always many things about every town or city that are most interesting. To search them out is, in itself, an antidote for loneliness, and often an affection for that place is initiated by what the search produces.

If we search out the happy things of life, the unhappy things recede. And it pays in more ways than one to search for the good in people, and not the bad!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Educational Beginnings"

GARDEN MAKING
How are little gardens made? First, with trowel and spade; Then, on hands and knees to sow Seed and rootlet, row by row.

Later, when the work is done, Trust it to the rain and sun. Next, a watchful care it needs, Lest it fall a prey to weeds.

One who loves it oft must take Time to toil with hoe and rake. And in times of weather dry Food and water must supply.

Little gardens everywhere Need devotion's constant care. Only one who's brave of heart Should a little garden start.

URGE ACTION ON NEGLIGENCE IN EXETER BLAST

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—The State Mines Department today studied a recommendation of four of its inspectors that the Justice Department look into the possibility of negligence in the Exeter mine explosion which killed 10 hard coal miners April 10.

Mines Secretary Richard Maize said he will take no action on the recommendation until he has a chance to analyze the inspectors' report which found "inadequate ventilation" in the Schooley shaft of the Knox Coal company at Exeter.

The inspectors, named as commission to investigate the blast, recommended specifically that "a special deputy attorney general be appointed to study, with us, the facts in this case, with a view to prosecuting such persons as may be found negligent."

Foreman "Paid"

Ten men were killed and seven injured at 7 a. m. April 10 shortly after 17 men had entered the shaft to work for the day. The inspectors found methane gas had seeped through rock crevices below the Marcy seam in which the men were working and was ignited by "either an electric arc or smoking, most probably an electric arc."

They found in their report that the mine foreman, identified as John Castellani, "did not make an examination of the mine prior to the workmen entering on the day of the explosion."

Maize said the mine foreman was killed, adding he paid "the extreme penalty for his negligence" after pointing out the state mine safety laws require such inspection.

The four state mine inspectors, named as a commission by Maize to investigate the blast, reported "testimony of the mine officials was evasive and contradictory throughout the entire investigation."

Marshall Backing Unification Bill

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall, while asking to be relieved of further testimony because of his diplomatic status, nevertheless holds to his belief as a soldier that Army-Navy unification is "essential."

Chairman Gurney (R-S-D) released a letter containing Marshall's views Monday as the Senate armed services committee headed for a showdown on the hotly disputed merger issue.

Shying from any public forecast of committee sentiment, Gurney said only that he expects the pending bill to be cleared to the Senate floor by the end of the week.

One committee member, however, who asked not to be named, predicted that "not more than three" of the 13 Senators who have been listening to conflicting testimony for eight weeks would oppose the unification plan.

STATE WORKERS TO GET BOOSTS

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—Salary increases are contemplated for all state employees and most county officials, it was learned today.

The only holdup is the extent of the boost, a Republican source indicated.

Gov. James H. Duff's budget for the 1947-49 biennium already has provided for an average 10 per cent wage hike for the Commonwealth's 40,000 rank-and-file employees.

But the spokesman said top GOP legislators are working on the possibility of permitting salary increases for state and county judges, district attorneys, prothonotaries, county commissioners and other county row office heads.

County Wage Increases
The legislature fixes the salaries of county officials, including judges, but actual payment is made by the respective counties.

Chairman Ivan C. Watkins (R-Schuylkill) of the House state government committee said his unit is studying "dozens of bills" which would increase salaries of state and county officials.

The committee, however, is awaiting top level decision on the extent of the boost.

No legislation, however, has been introduced to hike the pay of the governor or members of his cabinet. The governor's annual salary is $18,000. Cabinet members average about $10,000 a year.

Sen. O. J. Tallman, GOP floor leader in the upper chamber, told a reporter, meanwhile, he doubted if there would be any boost in the present $3,000 biennial salary for members of the legislature.

SPEEDING WORK ON LABOR BILL

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—House Republican leaders Monday speeded up drafting of the administration labor program which would bar unemployment compensation to strikers and prohibits walkouts by public employees or utility workers.

Chairman Adam Bower (R-Northumberland) of the House Labor committee said bills carrying out the Republican labor program will be ready for initial action this week.

In addition to the ban on jobless benefits for strikers and strikes by firemen and policemen or employees of water, gas and electric companies, other measures agreed on at a conference of House leaders with Gov. James H. Duff would:

1. Make permanent Pennsylvania's experience rating system for determining contributions to the Unemployment Compensation fund.

2. Grant women workers equal pay for equal work as a companion measure to permit women 18 years of age and older to work as long as 48 hours a week and at any hour, provided the work is limited to 10 hours.

3. Prohibit picketing of establishments hit by strikes by persons who are not employees.

House action on labor problems was forecast as the controversial question of broadening the taxing powers of local communities to permit enactment of wage and sales levies headed toward a vote in the lower branch.

Allegheny D.A. Is Warring On Rackets

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—Officials of Allegheny county municipalities were confronted Monday with blunt orders to clean out rackets or face indictment for neglect of duty.

The directive came from an aroused district attorney, Artemas Leslie, who declared he would send his county detectives into racket-infested areas if local officials fail to eliminate organized vice.

Leslie said that if he found it necessary to step in, he would follow up with court action seeking indictment of responsible officials. He said such violations as gambling, prostitution and bootlegging cannot flourish openly "without knowledge of local police authorities."

The district attorney planned to notify police departments officially of last week's decision here which outlawed console type slot machines. He said he would give local officials just 72 hours to drive out such coin machines.

LOCAL OPTION PLAN ENLARGED

Uniontown, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Responding to appeals from temperance workers, the Rev. Dr. Carey W. Osborne, pastor of the Uniontown great Bethel Baptist church, planned today to extend his local option campaign from Uniontown to 11 other sections of Fayette county.

These sections, he said, are the boroughs of Brownsville, Fairchance, Pt. Marion and Smithfield, and the townships of Georges, Henry Clay, Menallen, North Union, Salt Lick, South Union and Wharton.

Purpose of the campaign, Dr. Osborne added, is to bar sale of liquor in bars and taverns and to permit its sale only through state liquor stores.

The reason for the drive, he said, is the abuse of privileges by holders of liquor licenses—he referred to some Uniontown taverns as "dens of vice and iniquity"—and the action of the Fayette county court in overruling Pennsylvania liquor control board license revocations.

Bail Bond Abuses Bring Jail Terms

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—Three Pittsburgh men received jail sentences in Allegheny county court yesterday in connection with bail-bond abuses.

Frank Haney, convicted of fraudulent conversion and conspiracy, received a two-year sentence; his cousin, Fred Haney, one of two years on a conspiracy charge; and Joseph Farrell, convicted of obstructing justice, was sent to jail for four months. The Haney's were accused of taking $450 to "fix" a case involving a motor law violation.

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT

And Stop Dosing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when the lower part gets blocked food may fail to digest properly.

What you want for real relief is something to "unblock" your lower intestinal tract. Something to clean it out effectively—help Nature get back on her feet.

Today's Talk

BE A SEARCHER!
Things that just fall into our laps are rarely appreciated at their real worth—but those things for which we search, anxiously, and which entail struggle, or sacrifice, become a vital part of us when gained.

The joy of the rare book collector is in the search. That is why the collector with small means is so much happier in his hobby than the one who has the means to buy what comes to his notice, without search, or the thrill of discovery.

The naturalist who tramps the fields, swamps, and all outdoors to discover varieties of birds and flowers, gains from such a search far more than the mere reader who sits in a stodgey study and reads about such searches. For hours the former may sit and study, with his field glasses, the movements and habits of a bird—almost conversing with it—as perhaps he does in his mind and heart.

Columbus searched for a new way to what he thought was to be India—and, behold, he discovered a pair of continents! There is always something very stirring to the soul in a search. The unexpected is always turning up. Surprises punctuate one's patience and constantly contribute rewards that delight and please.

Every lover of books is forever searching for something that will add to his love of fine writing. A friend calls and the talk is of books, and we jot down the names of writers and of books that we have never heard about—and the happy search begins.

Coming into a strange town, one often feels a touch of loneliness, but there are always many things about every town or city that are most interesting. To search them out is, in itself, an antidote for loneliness, and often an affection for that place is initiated by what the search produces.

If we search out the happy things of life, the unhappy things recede. And it pays in more ways than one to search for the good in people, and not the bad!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Educational Beginnings"

GARDEN MAKING
How are little gardens made?
First, with trowel and with spade;
Then, on hands and knees to sow
Seed and rootlet, row by row.

Later, when the work is done,
Trust it to the rain and sun.
Next, a watchful care it needs,
Lest it fall a prey to weeds.

One who loves it oft must take
Time to toil with hoe and rake,
And in times of weather dry
Food and water must supply.

Little gardens everywhere
Need devotion's constant care.
Only one who's brave of heart
Should a little garden start.

URGE ACTION ON NEGLIGENCE IN EXETER BLAST

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—The State Mines Department today studied a recommendation of four of its inspectors that the Justice Department look into the possibility of negligence in the Exeter mine explosion which killed 10 hard coal miners April 10.

Mines Secretary Richard Maize said he will take no action on the recommendation until he has a chance to analyze the inspectors' report which found "inadequate ventilation" in the Schooley shaft of the Knox Coal company at Exeter.

The inspectors, named as commission to investigate the blast, recommended specifically that "a special deputy attorney general be appointed to study, with us, the facts in this case, with a view to prosecuting such persons as may be found negligent."

Foreman "Paid"
Ten men were killed and seven injured at 7 a. m. April 10 shortly after 17 men had entered the shaft to work for the day. The inspectors found methane gas had seeped through rock crevices below the Marcy seam in which the men were working and was ignited by "either an electric arc or smoking, most probably an electric arc."

They found in their report that the mine foreman, identified as John Castellani, "did not make an examination of the mine prior to the workmen entering on the day of the explosion."

Maize said the mine foreman was killed, adding he paid "the extreme penalty for his negligence" after pointing out the state mine safety laws require such inspection.

The four state mine inspectors, named as a commission by Maize to investigate the blast, reported "testimony of the mine officials was evasive and contradictory throughout the entire investigation."

Marshall Backing Unification Bill

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall, while asking to be relieved of further testimony because of his diplomatic status, nevertheless holds to his belief as a soldier that Army-Navy unification is "essential."

Chairman Gurney (R-S.D.) released a letter containing Marshall's views Monday as the Senate armed services committee headed for a showdown on the hotly disputed merger issue.

Shying from any public forecast of committee sentiment, Gurney said only that he expects the pending bill to be cleared to the Senate floor by the end of the week.

One committee member, however, who asked not to be named, predicted that "not more than three" of the 13 Senators who have been listening to conflicting testimony for eight weeks would oppose the unification plan.

Slain Child

Carol Ann Thompson, 5, of Landale, Pa., was abducted and slain soon after she entered the automobile of an unidentified man, Croner J. W. Ruchong, of Norristown, Pa., reported. Her body was found in a well. (AP wirephoto.)

STATE WORKERS TO GET BOOSTS

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—Salary increases are contemplated for all state employees and most county officials, it was learned today.

The only holdup is the extent of the boost, a Republican source indicated.

Gov. James H. Duff's budget for the 1947-49 biennium already has provided for an average 10 per cent wage hike for the Commonwealth's 40,000 rank-and-file employees.

But the spokesman said top GOP legislators are working on the possibility of permitting salary increases for state and county judges, district attorneys, prothonotaries, county commissioners and other county law office heads.

County Wage Increases
The legislature fixes the salaries of county officials, including judges, but actual payment is made by the respective counties.

Chairman Ivan C. Watkins (R-Schuylkill) of the House state government committee said his unit is studying "dozens of bills" which would increase salaries of state and county officials.

The committee, however, is awaiting top level decision on the extent of the boost.

No legislation, however, has been introduced to hike the pay of the governor or members of his cabinet. The governor's annual salary is $18,000. Cabinet members average about $10,000 a year.

Sen. O. J. Tallman, GOP floor leader in the upper chamber, told a reporter, meanwhile, he doubted if there would be any boost in the present $3,000 biennial salary for members of the legislature.

SPEEDING WORK ON LABOR BILL

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—House Republican leaders Monday speeded up drafting of the administration labor program which would bar unemployment compensation to strikers and prohibits walkouts by public employees or utility workers.

Chairman Adam Bower (R-Northumberland) of the House Labor committee said bills carrying out the Republican Labor program will be ready for initial action this week.

In addition to the ban on jobless benefits for strikers and strikes by firemen and policemen or employees of water, gas and electric companies, other measures agreed on at a conference of House leaders with Gov. James H. Duff would:

1. Make permanent Pennsylvania's experience rating system for determining contributions to the Unemployment Compensation fund.

2. Grant women workers equal pay for equal work as a companion measure to permit women 18 years of age and older to work as long as 48 hours a week and at any hour, provided the work is limited to 10 hours.

3. Prohibit picketing of establishments hit by strikes by persons who are not employees.

House action on labor problems was forecast as the controversial question of broadening the taxing powers of local communities to permit enactment of wage and salary levies headed toward a vote in the lower branch.

Allegheny D.A. Is Warring On Rackets

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—Officials of Allegheny county municipalities were confronted Monday with blunt orders to clean out rackets or face indictment for neglect of duty.

The directive came from an aroused district attorney, Artemas Leslie, who declared he would send his county detectives into racket-infested areas if local officials fail to eliminate organized vice.

Leslie said that if he found it necessary to step in, he would follow up with court action seeking indictment of responsible officials. He said such violations as gambling, prostitution and bootlegging cannot flourish openly "without knowledge of local police authorities."

The district attorney planned to notify police departments officially of last week's decision here which outlawed console type slot machines. He said he would give local officials just 72 hours to drive out such coin machines.

LOCAL OPTION PLAN ENLARGED

Uniontown, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Responding to appeals from temperance workers, the Rev. Dr. Carey W. Osborne, pastor of the Uniontown great Bethel Baptist church, planned today to extend his local option campaign from Uniontown to 11 other sections of Fayette county.

These sections, he said, are the boroughs of Brownsville, Fairchance, Pt. Marion and Smithfield, and the townships of Georges, Henry Clay, Menallen, North Union, Salt Lick, South Union and Wharton.

Purpose of the campaign, Dr. Osborne added, is to bar sale of liquor in bars and taverns and to permit its sale only through state liquor stores.

The reason for the drive, he said, is the abuse of privileges by holders of liquor license—he referred to some Uniontown taverns as "dens of vice and iniquity"—and the action of the Fayette county court in overruling Pennsylvania liquor control board license revocations.

Bail Bond Abuses Bring Jail Terms

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—Three Pittsburgh men received jail sentences in Allegheny county court yesterday in connection with bail-bond abuses.

Frank Haney, convicted of fraudulent conversion and conspiracy, received a two-year sentence; his cousin, Fred Haney, one of two years on a conspiracy charge; and Joseph Farrell, convicted of obstructing justice, was sent to jail for four months. The Haneyes were accused of taking $450 to "fix" a case involving a motor law violation.

CHINESE RAIL LINE BLASTED

Peiping, May 13 (AP)—Several sections of the Peiping-Linyu (Shanghai) rail line were blasted and uprooted today a few hours after two trains carrying 500 American Marines and their commander passed safely through Communist-held territory.

Col. Julian N. Frisbie, commander of the Fifth Regiment of the First Division, travelling in a de luxe coach, and 500 marines in a special train reached the port of Chinwangtao without incident. They began boarding two transports for Guam and the United States in the withdrawal of leathernecks from China.

About 350 marines of the Fifth who drove a 75-vehicle convoy from Peiping to Tientsin yesterday were left waiting at the station by the rail explosion. They had been scheduled to board trains from Tientsin today to join the remainder of the Fifth at Chinwangtao.

The vehicles, which made the highway run without difficulty, were being shipped by water to Chinwangtao.

The railroad was cut during the night in two separate places between Tangku and Tangshan, tearing up a mile-long section in one instance.

The rail line goes southeast from Peiping to Tientsin and Taku and then northeast to Chinwangtao and Linyu.

To Seek More Oil From Older Fields

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—The possibility of producing more oil from partially depleted fields highlighted sessions today at the Gulf Oil corporation's week-long production conference at nearby Harmarville.

Gulf executives said since a large part of the 30 billion barrels of oil produced in America to date was obtained without modern engineering practices, "a considerable percentage of oil remains in these older fields."

Substantially increased production from fields previously considered nearly exhausted was predicted by a conference spokesman.

HOMES VS. CARS

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—The housing shortage would never have developed, a Catholic priest told his parish Sunday. If families had saved their money to buy homes instead of automobiles in past years.

The Rev. Thomas P. Coakley of Sacred Heart church said that if mothers had insisted on husbands buying homes before acquiring cars "the country today would be dotted with lovely small homes instead of the characteristically unsightly American landscape of worn out, used cars."

Scranton Service Will Not Be Cut

Scranton, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Mail service in Scranton will not be curtailed as originally planned. Postmaster Joseph F. Conrad reports.

Conrad said Sunday night that he would comply with the wish of Jesse M. Donaldson, first assistant postmaster general in Washington, to maintain normal service at the Scranton post office and its branches.

Conrad previously had announced that deliveries on Wednesdays during May and June and stoppage of window service in post offices on Wednesdays at 1 p. m., would be put into effect. The order was to have been effective Wednesday.

Donaldson notified Conrad of his desire for continuation of normal mail service in Scranton after a complaint was relayed to his office through the House Post Office committee.

The protest, from Representative Seedick (R-Pa.) of the Scranton district, came through Chairman Rees (R-Kan.) of the House committee. It mentioned a reported plan by the Scranton postmaster to give only window delivery of mail on Wednesdays and cut Saturday service.

FILE GAS LEASES

Somerset, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Gas leases for 58 properties totaling 3,602 acres in Somerset county have been filed with the county recorder by the People's Natural Gas company, of Pittsburgh. The utility already has 119 properties under lease.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, overweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance.

This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped.

Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Births Last Month

Double 1946 Rate

Births in Gettysburg and four surrounding townships last month more than doubled the total for April of 1946, records of Ralph Gelselmen, register of vital statistics, have disclosed. There were 71 births last month and 35 in April of last year.

There was an increase also in the number of deaths which jumped from 10 to 19 in the same month.

For the first four months of this year births total 245 as compared with 156 in the corresponding period last year.

The detailed report for last month shows 37 male and 32 female births in Gettysburg borough while the 16 deaths were equally divided between the sexes. Cumberland township had two male deaths; Strasburg township, two male births; Freedom township, one female death while Highland township reported neither births nor deaths.

One of the first difficulties, she said, was the establishment of a staff and overcoming the fear of many countries that UNESCO hopes to establish a world culture and impose it upon all peoples.

"It takes time to teach habits of cooperation—both to ourselves as Americans and to the rest of the people of the world. Those habits must be developed over a long period of years. But America is sure it does not seek to impose any culture on any other peoples. We would not like to have a 'foreign' culture imposed upon us any more than any other nation would."

Two projects of the UNESCO now underway promise much, she added. One is a seminar to be held by selected teachers from throughout the world this summer. Another is an international study of the Amazon basin to correlate work in scientific research there, principally in health.

The study is being made at the request of a number of South American countries, she added.

RATE VICTORY NOT TO BRING FACTORY BOOM

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Don't exaggerate the importance of the Supreme Court decision on freight rates, at least in the near future.

It's a victory all right for the south and west over the north but here's the story, starting from scratch.

Since thousands upon thousands of items are shipped by rail, the cost, or freight-rate, set-up is vastly complex.

In fact, it's a hodge-podge, with the rates varying by the size, weight, and destination of an item, and so on.

Regulating freight-rates is one of the jobs of the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC). It steps in to regulate, or is called in.

The ICC, created in 1887 by Congress, has been trying for years to put some uniformity into freight rates.

But for years the north, through lower rates on certain kinds of goods, has had an advantage over the south and west.

Two Rate Classes

That's the heart of this story and of the Supreme Court decision. Generally, there are two kinds of freight rates: commodity and class rates.

Goods shipped under commodity rates mostly are raw materials; like coal, iron, lumber, cotton and so on.

Goods shipped under class rates mostly are finished, manufactured items, like clothing or shoes.

Commodity rate goods make up the great part of all goods shipped by rail. Railroads get most of their freight income from them.

Class rate goods are only a small part—four per cent—of all goods shipped by rail. Railroads get only six per cent of their income from them.

Do northern shippers have an advantage, through lower rates, on commodity and class rate shipments?

Not on commodity rates, according to ICC officials. They say:

Generally, there's no "substantial difference" in commodity rates on goods shipped between north, south and west.

Lower In North

But the northerner does have an advantage over southern and western competitors on goods shipped under class rates. They're lower for him.

Example: It's cheaper for a northern manufacturer to ship, say, a case of shoes from one northern point to another northern point or from a northern point to a southern than—

For a southern manufacturer to ship his shoes from one southern point to another southern point or from a southern point to a northern point. (The western shipper is under the same disadvantage.)

This discrimination in freight rates, on class rate goods, has made southerners sore for a long time.

They argue that this, among other things, has kept new manufacturers and industries from opening in the south since they get better rates by staying in the north.

The ICC began an investigation of this class rate discrimination in 1939. In 1945, after many hearings, it issued a ruling.

This ruling, to wipe out the class rate differences between the sections, said class rates should be cut 10 per cent in the south and west and boosted 10 per cent in the north.

Red Cross Demonstration Class

Adams county's demonstration Red Cross nutrition class at East Berlin, is shown above. The youngsters, their high school student instructors and teachers, will go to Pennsylvania State college this summer to demonstrate to Red Cross and nutrition heads throughout the eastern United States the way in which Adams county has developed a nutrition course for the youngsters in elementary classes with high school home economics students participating as teachers.

fasts, the first and second graders brought foods to school and actually put into practice their training.

Among the students are the following: Loreen Albright, Joyce Balek, Jannie Chronister, Joanne Chronister, Shirley Haar, Cynthia Miller, Shirley Myers, Doris Nicholson, Jean Tanner, Kathleen Thumma, Frederick Innerst, John Jacobs, Donald Kroft, Clair Laughman, Larry Laughman, Charles Lentz, Arthur Loper, Charles Mundorff, Denton Schwartz, Eugene Sterner, Ernest Loper, Dale Thumma and Larry Wright, all of the first grade and Shirley Grace, Brenda Miller, Floetta Groupe, Barbara Spahr, Shirley Smith, Ronald Hankey, Jack

Holzinger, Jimmy Ranker, Ronald Reynolds, Donald Rosenszweig, Nelson Thoman, Robert Topper, all of the second grade, Miss Buelah Wentz, the teacher and Mrs. Bernice Staley, the home economics instructor, are among those shown standing in the rear of the room.

The home economics students who took part in the course are Lois Snyder, Charlotte Glatfelter, Elaine Hoover, Dorothy Bentzel, Ruth Wagner, Treva Myers, Nancy Morris, all seniors, and Janet Altland, Ethel Crook, Martha Eisenhart, Norma Kauffman, Betty Jane Markle, Louise Spahr, Louise Heiner, Harriet Stimer, Estella Hoff, Dorothy Hoff, Ethel Myers and Mary Forry, all juniors.

ned Communists, Facists and Ku Klux Klan members from office, McFall declared in a statement.

"This is as it should be. If our organization suspected that any of its members were affiliated with any subversive groups it would take the same steps. Nor do we resent exclusion of members of the chamber of commerce from UE membership, although the company is not to our liking."

For the union, President Thomas Nolan of Local 328 explained his group decided "to be impartial and not shoot exclusively at the Red leadership it resents" but to include "all interests detrimental to the pool of labor."

SAYS VETS NEED LARGER GRANTS FOR EDUCATION

(Charlie Sample is one out of a million—a million ex-servicemen completing their college education with the help of Uncle Sam. A veteran who spent 33 months with the navy in the Pacific, Sample is a 22-year-old sophomore at the University of Missouri who wants to be a newspaperman. Today he writes for Hal Boyle his first national byline story.)

By CHARLES SAMPLE

Columbia, Mo., (AP)—I'm getting so used to being a civilian that when someone says "veteran" I look around to see who they're talking about.

I'm not for forgetting the war, mind you, but after all, that was yesterday. I'm working on tomorrow. Yet when some one walks up and asks me how things are under the GI Bill, I really get back into harness.

No one can say enough to thank the powers who worked out the Bill of Rights for veterans, for it was God-sent to a lot of us who would have been in a tough spot without it.

"I Blow My Top"

But things could be a little better. The housing problem, I admit, is tough all over, but you should see it here in Columbia, with an influx of 15,000 students into a town of eighteen thousand. But, we'll get along. Of course, they want real money for rent now. I'm paying more than my family ever did for a six-room house, but I'm not complaining. Some vets live six to eight in a room.

It's all right, too, that our food costs are too high.

But when you go to school four hours a day, study from six to ten more hours to keep up in class, and then pick up a paper and read about somebody or some group raving about the veterans going to college just because of the money—well then I really blow my top.

Don't let anyone fool you. School is tough. When you have to sit in a class of 50 to learn a language and only get about five minutes of classroom recitation a week, you're almost on your own, if you want to learn.

More Than Fair

The school is not to blame. There isn't enough money to staff sufficiently to handle the whole student body. That is something that state Legislatures should start worrying about.

The University of Missouri and other schools throughout the country have been more than fair with us 'G.I.' students. They've given us credits for service work that were really appreciated. The counselor service here is courteous as a grocer during the depression.

We're willing to work with the VA too. We're trying to roll up a college record that will do credit to the education bill ideals.

And we're learning thrift too. Adding laundry and food and maintenance to a thirty-dollar rent bill means cutting lots of corners to budget that 65 bucks. I'm one of those who do think we should have at least a $25 raise in subsistence money, cause right now it's just existence money, but either way we'll get by. College '47 is our business. I know we can make a success of it. I've got to. You see, I'm marrying a redhead.

Non-operating railroad unions are demanding still another raise of $568,000,000.00

MR. & MRS. CONSUMER

MR. SHIPPER & MR. FARMER

MR. & MRS. PASSENGER

You would foot the bill!

Look out! There's another big railroad wage demand headed your way!

The non-operating unions alone—whose members do not actually operate trains—are demanding a flat increase of 20 cents an hour. These demands would cost the railroads of the country five hundred sixty-eight million dollars a year!

Last year these employees had an increase of 18½ cents an hour. This was their third major wage increase since 1939. Their average weekly pay has gone up 75%, as against a cost-of-living rise of 54%.

Since 1939, railroad wage and material costs have gone up more than three times as much as freight rates, and five times as much as passenger fares. That is why in 1946, with the largest peacetime traffic in history, the net income of railroads went down to the equivalent of only 2¼% of the net property investment.

What About 1947?

Even with the recent freight rate increase, preliminary figures indicate that the railroads will make only about the same low return in 1947 as in 1946. This will be because:—the wage increase made in 1946 will be in effect for all of 1947;

—special payroll taxes on railroads have recently been increased;

—and passenger traffic has declined.

Where Would the Money Come From?

We can't pay out what we don't take in. And we are not taking in enough now to meet present costs and to complete the improvements in service that you need and that we want to give you.

CONSERVATIVES MAKE BID FOR BRITISH POWER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Britain's conservative party, under leadership of former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, has made a surprising move which looks very much like a swing to the left—a small swing, to be sure, but still a swing—in competition with the Socialist government's program.

The Conservatives have issued a booklet pledging themselves to work for restoration of "a wide measure of freedom" to some industries which have been nationalized. However, they say they have no intention of restoring the Bank of England or the coal industry to private enterprise, and add this provocative forecast:

"We wish to substitute for the present paralysis, in which we are suffering the worst of all worlds, a system of free enterprise, which is on terms with authority, and which reconciles the need for central direction with the encouragement of individual effort."

Seek Return to Power

Whatever else one may think of this declaration, it is of course a bid for return to power in the next general election which normally will be three years hence.

The idea of "need for central direction" naturally catches the eye, and the Conservative London Daily Express says the Conservatives are making an elementary blunder in trying to fight under a Socialist banner. The Daily Telegraph, also Conservative, thinks the Conservatives aim at doing what the Socialists are trying to do, only doing it better.

While this move is surprising, it isn't at all illogical. The Conservatives are trimming their sails to a wind whose direction was clearly evident in the last general election when many of their party voted the Socialist ticket.

Steady Progress

England has been moving cautiously but steadily toward moderate Socialism for many years. We got striking evidence of this as far back as 1924 when the late Ramsay MacDonald headed the first labor government, which employed the terms "Labor" and "Socialist" as synonymous, just as is done today.

That the Socialist victory which overwhelmed the great Churchill two years ago was no flash in the pan has been demonstrated in the numerous elections since then to replace individual members of parliament. The Socialists haven't lost a single seat—a circumstance which is taken by the political experts in Britain as indicating that the general public still is determined to give the new government a chance to show its paces.

All this being so, it's clear that whatever party wins in the next general election will do so on a broad and progressive platform. The race, as things now stand, again will be between the two major parties—the Socialists and the Conservatives. There is no great strength on the extreme left or on the extreme right. Hence the Conservative party's move closer to the middle of the road.

PHONE STRIKE IN 37TH DAY

Washington, May 13 (AP)—A union-management deadlock in the Western Electric company, major unit of the Bell system still tied up by the telephone strike which began April 7, dragged on into its 37th day today.

Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson declined to say whether government officials will accept a union invitation to propose a settlement formula.

The company rejected a union offer to extend the present contract for a year except for wages and to arbitrate those. Fred Schmidt, Western Electric Labor Relations manager, said there is "no reason" why all issues, including wages, cannot be settled through continued collective bargaining.

Involved in the negotiations here are the Western Electric Employees association and the Association of Communication Equipment Workers. A third Western Electric union, the National Association of Telephone Equipment Workers, is meeting with company officials in New York.

The New York session also ended with no sign of progress last night.

Postmaster General May Have To Give Up Party Position

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) said today a pending House investigation may lead to a divorce between the postmaster general and the Democratic National committee.

"There ought to be one," Martin told a reporter.

The House schedule this week calls for action on a resolution directing the post office and civil service committee to investigate matters in its field. The committee would be required to report its findings to the present Congress and submit any "recommendations for legislation," it considers desirable.

"I wouldn't be surprised," Martin said, "if the committee recommended that the postmaster general be forbidden to hold a high political party office."

"Running a billion-dollar business ought to be a full-time job. And the government ought not to finance political trips around the country under the guise of official post office department business."

The speaker said his statement stands, whether the postmaster general is a Democrat or Republican. Republicans, too, he said, have had some postmaster generals who were high in GOP political councils.

Seek Showdown On Biddle Appointment

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Senate Democrats sought a foreign relations committee showdown today on President Truman's long-pending appointment of Francis Biddle as American representative on the United Nations economic and social council.

Their demand for committee action on the nomination of the former attorney general came at a time when their own as well as Republican ranks appear divided over the President's possible choice of Mark F. Ethridge, Louisville publisher, as directing head of the $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program.

Biddle's appointment has been pigeonholed by the Republican-controlled committee since January 29. In the interval, the council already has met and adjourned, to meet again next fall.

Republican opposition to Biddle was reported to stem from his "no deal" viewpoint which some GOP committee members think should not be carried to the U.N. council.

MORE DELAY ON TEACHERS' PAY INCREASE BILL

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—The administration labor program, including legislation to ban strikes by public employees or utility workers, was readied today by the House Labor committee for floor action this week.

Chairman Adam Bower (R-Northumberland) of the House Labor Relations committee said his group "needs only the final draft of an amendment to one of the bills and we anticipate it will be ready in time for presentation of the entire labor program before the House today."

In addition, the House Workmen's Compensation committee was considering legislation to ban unemployment compensation benefits to strikers who are now allowed payments after a five-week penalty period in bona fide labor disputes.

Taxing Bill Delayed

Committee action on that measure may be held pending completion of a study of benefit rates announced by Rep. Herbert P. Sorg (R-Elk), House Republican leader, at the same time administration agreement was reached on the labor program.

Legislative action was held up, meanwhile, on measures "to increase the mandated school teacher salaries from $1,400 to $2,400 a year" pending further conferences between the House Education committee and Gov. James H. Duff on the question of the relative responsibility of the state and local communities for the boosted costs.

Also delayed was a vote on a House measure to broaden the taxing powers of local communities by allowing enactment of wage or sales taxes as well as levies on real estate after a general protest came from one Republican lawmaker at the majority party's House caucus.

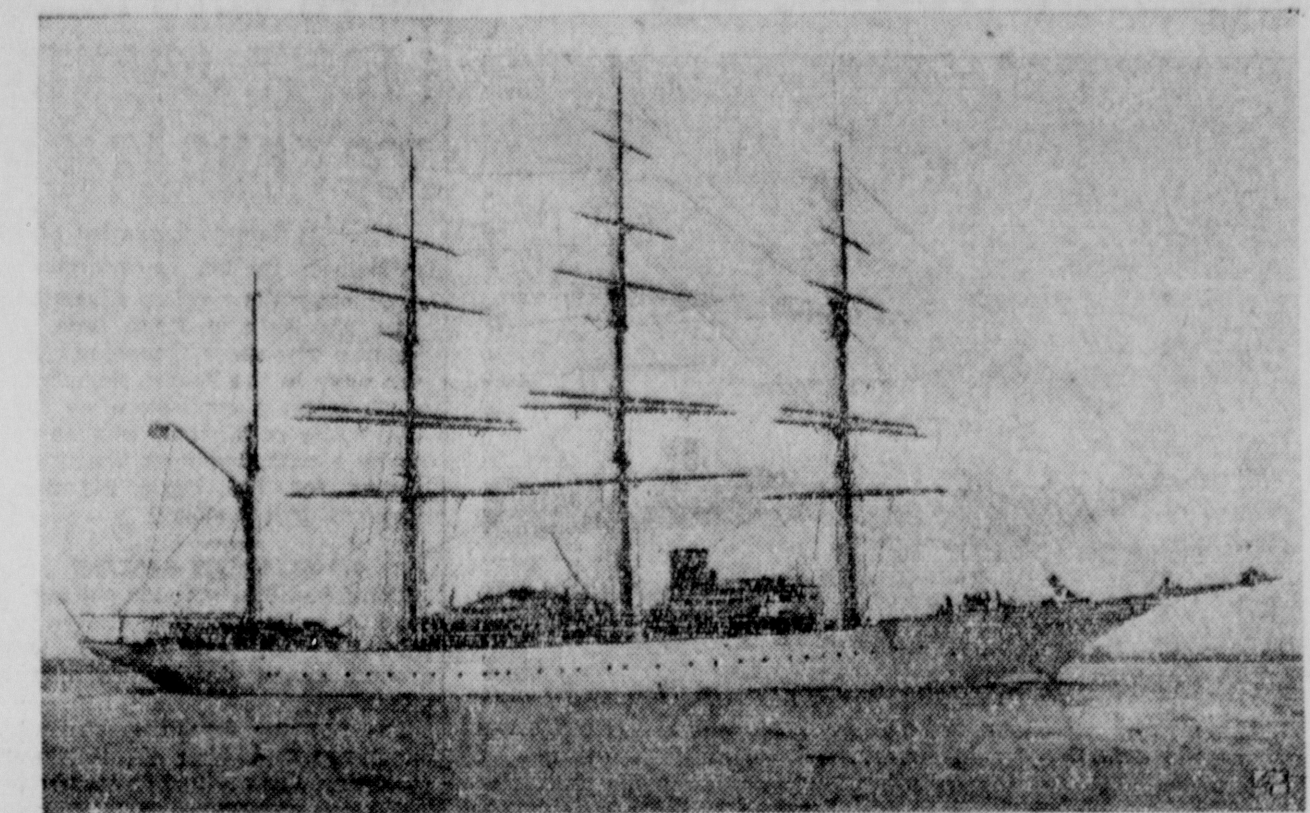

The administration proposal for establishment of a separate department of mental health to administer the commonwealth's $80,000,000 mental hospital expansion program went to the Senate after the House passed it 172-17.

Vets' Bill "Dead"

Opposition to the bill came from Rep. H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria), House minority leader, and Rep. Ellwood J. Turner (R-Delaware), who both asserted it would create "an overlapping of government." Andrews also criticized an amendment eliminating a provision requiring appointment of a qualified psychiatrist as mental health secretary.

Rep. Charles H. Brunner, Jr. (R-Montgomery), sponsor of the measure, termed the proposal "an important project" in the state's mental health program, asserting "the welfare of 40,000 patients will be greatly benefited."

In another move, the House sent back to committee a proposal to set

EMMITSBURG NEWS EVENTS

The student body of St. Joseph's high school, Emmitsburg, attended religious exercises recently at St. Joseph's Catholic church to pray for the conversion of Russia.

Several students of Mt. St. Mary's college are "practice teaching" athletics to the boys and girls of the high school. Baseball and basketball are the favorite sports.

The entire school was recently entertained by an assembly presented by the Valley Science club.

The Sophomore Home Economics class accompanied by Sister Mary Frances, recently took a trip through the Community Foods Locker system. While there they viewed a typical packing room, cooler and freezing room. Preparations of various meats, vegetables and fruits for the locker were demonstrated and explained.

The annual May procession of St. Joseph's Catholic church was held Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The procession started from in front of St. Euphemia's school and proceeded toward the center square, around the blinker to the church. The procession was made up of altar boys, up a state veterans housing authority to help ex-GIs who renounce any state bonus finance purchase or construction of homes.

Chairman Baker Royer (R-Lancaster) of the House Military Affairs committee said "the bill is dead" as far as his committee is concerned because of the opposition of statewide veterans organizations to the measure as "confusing the soldier bonus issue."

Early Millionaire In Film Industry Dies

New York, May 13 (AP)—Richard Rowland, who as early as 1910 had become a millionaire in the film industry, died yesterday at the age of 66.

A native of Pittsburgh, Rowland held executive positions in several film companies until ill health forced his retirement eight months ago.

At 18, he took over his father's carbon lamp business and developed it into a motion picture lighting concern. He also handled distribution of early films in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and sold his business in 1910 for several millions to the General film company.

Harold Sanders, James Sanders, John Sanders, William Smith, Francis Topper, John Van Brakle, Bernard Walter, Davis Warthen, Kenneth Wetzell, John Willis, Anna Elker, Joan Hobbs, Marie Konoski, Agnes Scott, Alice Scott, Patricia Sprankle, Shirley Taylor, Carol Tegeler, Yvonne Topper, Elizabeth White and Virginia Wormley.

A birthday party was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sanders in celebration of the 16th birthday of Mary Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanders, East Main street. Those present were Bernadette Arnold and Doris Bowers, both of Taneytown; Jean Topper, Mary Sanders, Vivian Warthen, Ann Warthen, Barbara Barron, Rosemary Sanders, Elizabeth McCullough, George Greco, Donnie Rodgers, Donald Kessler, George Warthen, Thomas Sanders, Stanley McIntire, Gene Myers, Robert Jordan. Dancing and games were held and refreshments were served.

The annual appeal for contributions to the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania were addressed recently to a number of Gettysburg residents by Mrs. Elsie Singmaster LeWars who was selected to represent the community this year. The appeal follows:

"The reason I am writing you is because I feel sure you will want to lend your support to the work this association is doing in the prevention of juvenile delinquency and crime and in the adoption of sound, humane methods of dealing with offenders."

"The Pennsylvania Committee on Penal Affairs (a division of the Public Charities Association) has been actively engaged on this task for more than thirty years. It has accomplished a great deal, but there is still much to be done. This year they are conducting a study of children in detention and in jail. As an indication of interest, more judges, probation officers and local officials are calling for help and advice than ever before in their history."

"The campaign for the establishment of a Department of Correction to properly administer correctional and penal institutions needs your active support."

"In addition, the association has two other divisions: Family and Child Welfare and Mental Hygiene and Public Health; and all three operations are supported entirely by voluntary contributions."

"Remembering that any amount you send can be deducted from your income tax, won't you make as generous a contribution as you can? Many thanks."

For the benefit of those who have not read and those who may have forgotten the Preamble of the Charter of the United Nations, the world-wide organization created to ensure world peace, we present it as follows:

"We the peoples of the United Nations, determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small, and to establish conditions under which justice and respect for obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained, and to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

"And for these facts to practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors, and to unite our strength to maintain peace and security, and to ensure, by the acceptance of principles and the institution of methods, that armed force shall not be used, save in the common interest, and to employ international machinery for the promotion of the economic and social advancement of all peoples,

"Have resolved to combine our efforts to accomplish these aims."

Accordingly, our respective Governments, through representatives assembled in the city of San Francisco, who have exhibited their full powers found to be in good and due form, have agreed to the present Charter of the United Nations and do hereby establish an international organization to be known as the United Nations."

HOW TO TEACH YOUR DOG TO "LIE DOWN"
Making Your Dog a Better Citizen
by Tom Farley

Since the command for lying down is "Down" you must be careful never to say "down" to the dog when you mean "get off the chair" or "don't jump up." The command for these would be "No" and the two should never be confused. To teach "Down" first get the dog's attention and give the command along with a motion of the hand at the same time pulling the leash under the foot as shown in picture 1. Repeat this until it can be done without pulling the leash under the foot as in picture 2.

When the dog has learned this lesson thoroughly try working from the end of the leash, picture 3. You may find that the dog tries to come to your feet on the command but you should keep him back and teach him that the command means to lie down, picture 4, where he is. When he will do this every time and perfectly you may try taking off the leash, picture 5, but remember that the leash gives you instant control of the dog and he respects it as a symbol of authority. It will probably be much better to leave the leash on for a long time and work from the far end of the room as shown in picture 6.

These steps may take a number of weeks of training but it is extremely important that each be perfected before going on to the next lesson. Don't be over anxious or impatient—work this dog for short periods, be lavish with praise and he will learn.

This is the third of a series of picture articles on dog training featuring Frances Hartsook, nationally known trainer, photographed and prepared in a campaign to make dogs better citizens. The lessons must be studied from the beginning to be effective. If you miss any of the articles we suggest that you purchase the back issues so that you have the complete series.

Today's Talk

ALWAYS GO ON

Few, if any of us, travel a smooth course through life. There are interruptions, troubles, tragedies, and problems that confuse and challenge us. There is a solution for them all, but the important thought to bear in mind at such times is that we must always go on!

In battle the army must keep moving on, if it would gain victory. It's the same in the experiences of everyday life. We must not stand still. We must not surrender. We must always go on!

The great football player, when tackled, or when thrown, keeps crawling if it is humanly possible. I have seen it done time and again. No inventor is ever satisfied with his first steps. And no sooner is a new invention put upon the market but what someone seeks to improve it. This Western world is great because it has always gone on, and not allowed itself to become steeped in the ideologies of the old world.

Just imagine that if John Bunyan and Cervantes, when put in jail, had done nothing but rest their bones and complain of their fate. We would never have heard of them — but each went on, improved each day; and each gave to the world a masterpiece — Bunyan his "Pilgrim's Progress" and Cervantes his "Don Quixote."

Amedeo Obici, once a poor immigrant from Italy, came to the shores of America. He was but eleven years of age and penniless. He lived for a time with an uncle, but he had enterprise planted within him. He took various jobs then bought some peanuts and decided that they would taste better if roasted. This he did and sold them for a nickel a bag. From such a beginning he went on to something bigger and bigger. He died the other day, leaving a fortune of $80,000,000 and made the name of Planter's peanuts a household word in a large part of the world!

People experience many and many a victory by walking right past failure! No matter how serious the situation, you always have the privilege of going on — if you have the will to do so! Stevenson did it, though his body was constantly being hounded in pain, and Lafcadio Hearn did it, though he was totally blind in one eye and could only see twenty per cent in the other. His literary output was amazing, even though he died in middle life. He always went on!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Power of Silence."

Just Folks

BODY AND SOUL

The body calls for food and drink

And various articles to wear.

Of these men is compelled to think;

These often earn with tedious care.

But, fed and clothed, there's more to do

To make the single person whole—

A care that must be given to

The inner thing that's called the soul.

Alike we are of flesh and bone.

The self-same chemistry we share.

The soul within is only known

By what we do and what we dare.

No scientist has probed it out

Or traced its course upon a chart.

That it exists some thinkers doubt.

Some say it lies within the heart.

Well, what were flesh without the soul,

And strength of muscle and of bone?

Than food and drink no higher goal?

Just species as the beasts are known?

What makes the body fit for love

And man to honor and extol,

Lifts him all animals above—

Unless it be the thing called soul?

Sunday School Lesson

JUDAH'S LAST DAYS

By Rev. Howard R. Gold, D. D.
Margaret C. Gold
Jeremiah 36:2-3, 28-31;
II Kings 24:1-4

Memory selection: The fear of the Lord prolongeth days; but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

Proverbs 10:27.

Dark night was settling fast over Judah, and in that twilight two men appear. They interest us as typical of their kind in history but more still as characters who exemplify traits that in our own day should be copied and traits that should be shunned. They are Jeremiah, the prophet or churchman, and Jehoiakim, the king or public official. What may be learned from this lesson is how men of religion can be effective in public life.

The Lamenting One

Jeremiah was given to much complaining about the condition of his nation. He had much cause for it. Since the reign of Manasseh, with but one interlude, Judah had flouted the Lord's teachings with consequent moral and political weakness. Our prophet was a patriot and could not remain silent. So he called Baruch, his secretary, and dictated a fiery sermon (prophecy, the Bible calls it) against Judah "and against all the nations." This he commanded Baruch to read to the people as they came to worship in the Lord's house. While evidently the sermon was not meant especially for the king, the contents of it were told him. He demanded the manuscript, cut it up page by page and tossed it into the fire. Had the king been anything like his father Josiah, he would have repented and led his people to do likewise.

Here, then, we have an ancient example of the relation between church and state. In our country we have a so-called "separation." But that does not justify Christian people to remain silent when the state is wrong in principle and action. "The conscience of the state," the church has been called. Jeremiah is a worthy example of what a man of God may do to show his patriotism. Churchmen of America have definitely helped to shape the United Nations and are following up the efforts toward forming a just peace treaty. There is no doubt that the Lord wishes those who know Him to be in the midst of the affairs of men and fight with the courage for what is right.

A Second Warning

King Jehoiakim burned Jeremiah's sermon but no true prophet or preacher is silenced in that way. Courageous men become more so by such treatment. You can destroy books but not ideas. The Bible itself has been forbidden. It has been burned. The first English translation of it had to be smuggled into England. Christians have been slain but their message was taken up by others. Our prophet called again for his secretary and dictated a second sermon repeating what he had said in the first and added some vigorous words for good measure. "The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land" was the gist of these prophecies. The course Judah was following would lead to sure destruction. It was a moral law. Paul put it this way: "The wages of sin is death," and "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

It takes many generations and much grief to learn this lesson from God's Text-Book. But there it is—unchangeable—and applies to all nations. Our own as well as other nations can do wrong, and must take the consequence. America has need of a Jeremiah and a Paul and others like them. Bible history is full of instances where individuals and nations have suffered because the laws of God were willfully broken or forgotten. Judah was a small nation situated between Assyria on the east and Egypt on the south. There was almost continuous warfare between them and little Judah had a difficult time to maintain itself. This could be done only when rulers acted wisely in international matters, and when the people developed a high morale founded on obedience to the sacred laws.

At the time of our lesson the Kingdom was in alliance with Egypt, in reality Judah was a vassal state. Assyria fell and Babylon came into power. Into this situation Jeremiah stepped as prophet, and denounced Judah's alliance with Egypt. A godly man and unselfish usually has good judgment. With a strong sense of justice he is able to see all aspects of a question and so arrive at a correct solution.

Born and raised in a small town near Jerusalem, the son of a priest, Jeremiah came into public life at an early age. He loved his countrymen and valiantly tried to turn them from the way of destruction. They would not follow his counsel. At last we find him, so tradition says, in a spot outside Jerusalem pouring out his grief at the sins of his nation.

Questions On S.S. Lesson

1. Who was the prophet-patriot that lamented about the fate of Judah?

CATTLE—Slaughter cattle receipts at the opening of this week were sharply reduced, as compared with the same period a week ago. Stockers and feeders predominated the day's receipts. So far as slaughter cattle were concerned, trading on all classes was active, with the yards well filled on early morning. All interests were keen on the market, with local buyers setting the trading pace. All slaughter cattle sold steadily to strong with the close last week, higher.

Steer division, top-good and choice fed 900-1,250 pounds, $23.50—24.50, with two loads around 1,000 pounds, $24.10 top load lot top. Top price, $24.50 for a part load of strictly choice fed steers around 1,000 pounds, mostly from 1,100 pounds down, $23.25, with an odd lot or two, $23.25. Strict condition favored the sellers' side. Heifers continued in light supply. The bulk of the heifers offered medium and good short-feds, $15.00—22.50, with a single choice, $24.50 top this class.

Included in today's receipts was a small lot of choice mixed steer and heifer yearlings around 700 pounds, $25. Cow division, mostly odd-head lots.

Common and medium cows of dairy breed- ing, $14—16, with top-medium beef cows, $18. Canners and cutters, $10.50—13.50, with "shells," $10—12.

Old head lots of good beef bulls as high as $21.50, with the bulk of the supply $18—$21.50. Medium and good weighty sausage bulls, $15—17.50, with an odd head, $18. Light and medium weight, $13—15.50. Stocker and feeder trade slow and steady compared with the close of last week.

Choice feeder steers around 540 pounds, $22.40—22.50. Medium to top-good stockers and feeders predominated, $19—22, they covered a wide range of weights. Common calf-weight stockers, $16. Two loads of thin feeding cows, $15.

SALVES—Vealers, in broad demand, active and steady with the close of last week. Mixed lots of good and choice 150-220 pound vealers largely $22—26, with strictly choice $27. Common and medium, $16—17, with culls $7 and underweights as low as $5.

HOGS—Hog receipts about equal in num- ber with the same period a week ago. Trading in general active, with all interests competing. Prices 25c lower than the close of last week, with the practical top $25. Good and choice barrows and gilts, 120-140 pounds, $22—22.75; 140-160 pounds, $23.75—24; 160-250 pounds, $24.75—25; 250-275 pounds, $25—25.25; 275-300 pounds, $25—25.25; 300-350 pounds, $21—21.25; 350 pounds up, $20—20.25. Good and choice sows, $18—18.25, with heavy sows considerably lower.

Section today was centered mainly on spring lambs, these active and $1 higher than the close last week. Mixed lots of good and choice 65-105-pound spring lambs, $25.00—26. Woolled lambs scarce; a truck lot of medium grade around 110 pounds $18. Slaughter ewes, in meager supply, active and steady. Good and choice, $9 down, mostly odd-head lots.

Births Last Month Double 1946 Rate

Births in Gettysburg and four surrounding townships last month more than doubled the total for April of 1946, records of Ralph Geiselman, register of vital statistics, have disclosed. There were 71 births last month and 35 in April of last year.

There was an increase also in the number of deaths which jumped from 10 to 19 in the same month.

For the first four months of this year births total 245 as compared with 156 in the corresponding period last year.

The detailed report for last month shows 37 male and 32 female births in Gettysburg borough while the 16 deaths were equally divided between the sexes. Cumberland township had two male deaths; Straben township, two male births; Freedom township, one female death while Highland township reported neither births nor deaths.

CONSERVATIVES MAKE BID FOR BRITISH POWER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Britain's conservative party, under leadership of former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, has made a surprising move which looks very much like a swing to the left—a small swing, to be sure, but still a swing—in competition with the Socialist government's program.

The Conservatives have issued a booklet pledging themselves to work for restoration of "a wide measure of freedom" to some industries which have been nationalized. However, they say they have no intention of restoring the Bank of England or the coal industry to private enterprise, and add this provocative forecast:

"We wish to substitute for the present paralysis, in which we are experiencing the worst of all worlds, a system of free enterprise, which is on terms with authority, and which reconciles the need for central direction with the encouragement of individual effort."

Seek Return to Power

Whatever else one may think of this declaration, it is of course a bid for return to power in the next general election which normally will be three years hence.

The idea of "need for central direction" naturally catches the eye, and the Conservative London Daily Express says the Conservatives are making an elementary blunder in trying to fight under a Socialist banner. The Daily Telegraph, also Conservative, thinks the Conservatives aim at doing what the Socialists are trying to do, only doing it better.

While this move is surprising, it isn't at all illogical. The Conservatives are trimming their sails to a wind whose direction was clearly evident in the last general election when many of their party voted the Socialist ticket.

Steady Progress

England has been moving cautiously but steadily toward moderate Socialism for many years. We got striking evidence of this as far back as 1924 when the late Ramsay MacDonald headed the first labor government, which employed the terms "labor" and "Socialist" as synonymous. Just as it is done today.

That the Socialist victory which overwhelmed the great Churchill two years ago was no flash in the pan has been demonstrated in the numerous elections since then to replace individual members of parliament. The Socialists haven't lost a single seat—a circumstance which is taken by the political experts in Britain as indicating that the general public still is determined to give the new government a chance to show its paces.

All this being so, it's clear that whatever party wins in the next general election will do so on a broad and progressive platform. The race, as things now stand, again will be between the two major parties—the Socialists and the Conservatives. There is no great strength on the extreme left or on the extreme right. Hence the Conservative party's move closer to the middle of the road.

New Sterilizer Is Discovered

Philadelphia, May 13 (P)—There will be less germs floating around your bed at night if the blankets are sterilized in a way reported to the Society of American Bacteriologists today.

Every time you turn over the blanket puffs a bit of an invisible load of germs into the air. The sterilization was described by Dr. I. L. Schmeister and Francis S. Greenspan, University of California and the New York hospital, New York city.

They said blankets treated occasionally with an emulsion of water, oil and roccal, a recently discovered germ killer, reduce airborne infection. They reported experiments in the navy in which both blankets and floors were treated with the antiseptic mixture.

These measures seemed to reduce the number of respiratory infections of thousands of men, provided the sniffs, cough and sore throats were of mild types. Whenever, as sometimes happens, mean colds and heavy respiratory infections showed up, the blanket and floor measures were of no use.

Workman Killed By Double Sand Slide

Port Jervis, N. Y., May 13 (P)—An estimated 200 tons of sand which slid from the side of a pit of the Deepark Sand and Gravel company killed Leon J. Quibell, 17, of Milford, Pa.

Quibell's head was uncovered by diggers within 25 minutes after the slide yesterday but a second slide occurred and it took some five hours to recover the body.

Quibell was operating a truck owned by a log tavern camp and being used to cart sand.

THE TRUTH HURTS

Philadelphia, (P)—Jack Coombs, voice teacher, told a husky male singing hopeful after an audition that he would be only wasting his time.

The six-foot applicant landed a haymaker, Coombs said, that knocked him back into a chair.

Willie Francis, condemned Negro slayer, wears his Sunday pants as he leaves the New Iberia, La., Parish jail for nearby St. Martinville to face death in the electric chair. A year ago the same chair spared him through a mechanical failure. This time it took his life, quickly, and apparently painlessly. Deputy behind Francis is unidentified. (AP Wirephoto.)

PHONE STRIKE IN 37TH DAY

Washington, May 13 (P)—A union-management deadlock in the Western Electric company, major unit of the Bell system still tied up by the telephone strike which began April 7, dragged on into its 37th day today.

Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson declined to say whether government officials will accept a union invitation to propose a settlement formula.

The company rejected a union offer to extend the present contract for a year except for wages and to arbitrate those. Fred Schmidt, Western Electric Labor Relations manager, said there is "no reason" why all issues, including wages, cannot be settled through continued collective bargaining.

Involved in the negotiations here are the Western Electric Employees association and the Association of Communication Equipment Workers. A third Western Electric union, the National Association of Telephone Equipment Workers, is meeting with company officials in New York.

The New York session also ended with no sign of progress last night.

Postmaster General May Have To Give Up Party Position

Washington, May 13 (P)—Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said today a pending House investigation may lead to a divorce between the postmaster general and the Democratic National committee.

"There ought to be one," Martin told a reporter.

The House schedule this week calls for action on a resolution directing the post office and civil service committee to investigate matters in its field. The committee would be required to report its findings to the present Congress and submit any "recommendations for legislation, it considers desirable.

"I wouldn't be surprised," Martin said, "if the committee recommended that the postmaster general be forbidden to hold a high political party office.

"Running a billion-dollar business ought to be a full-time job. And the government ought not to finance political trips around the country under the guise of official post office department business."

The speaker said his statement stands, whether the postmaster general is a Democrat or Republican. Republicans, too, he said, have had some postmaster generals who were high in GOP political councils.

Seek Showdown On Biddle Appointment

Washington, May 13 (P)—Senate Democrats sought a foreign relations committee showdown today on President Truman's long-pending appointment of Francis Biddle as American representative on the United Nations economic and social council.

Their demand for committee action on the nomination of the former attorney general came at a time when their own as well as Republican ranks appear divided over the President's possible choice of Mark F. Ethridge, Louisville publisher, as directing head of the $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program.

Biddle's appointment has been pigeonholed by the Republican-controlled committee since January 29. In the interval, the council already has met and adjourned, to meet again next fall.

Republican opposition to Biddle was reported to stem from his "real deal" viewpoint which some GOP committee members think should not be carried to the U.N. council.

MORE DELAY ON TEACHERS' PAY INCREASE BILL

Harrisburg, May 13 (P)—The administration labor program, including legislation to ban strikes by public employees or utility workers, was readied today by the House Labor committee for floor action this week.

Chairman Adam Bower (R-Northumberland) of the House Labor Relations committee said his group "needs only the final draft of an amendment to one of the bills and we anticipate it will be ready in time for presentation of the entire labor program before the House today."

In addition, the House Workmen's Compensation committee was considering legislation to ban unemployment compensation benefits to strikers who are now allowed payments after a five-week penalty period in bonafide labor disputes.

Taxing Bill Delayed

Committee action on that measure may be held pending completion of a study of benefit rates announced by Rep. Herbert P. Sore (R-Elk). House Republican leader, at the same time administration agreement was reached on the labor program. Legislative action was held up, meanwhile, on measures to increase the mandated school teacher salaries from $1,400 to $2,400 a year pending further conferences between the House Education committee and Gov. James H. Duff on the question of the relative responsibility of the state and local communities for the boosted costs.

Also delayed was a vote on a House measure to broaden the taxing powers of local communities by allowing enactment of wage or sales taxes as well as levies on real estate after a general protest came from one Republican lawmaker at the majority party's House caucus.

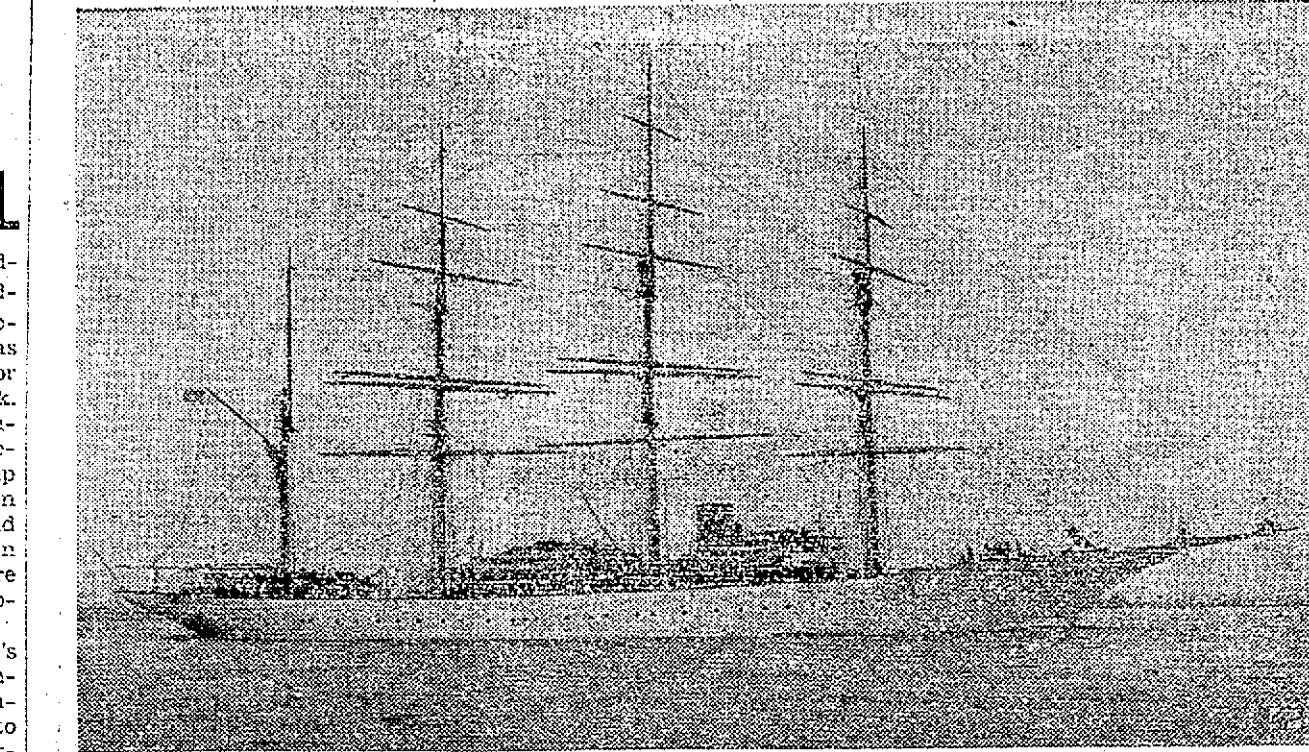

The administration proposal for establishment of a separate department of mental health to administer the commonwealth's $80,000,000 mental hospital expansion program went to the Senate after the House passed it 172-17.

Vets' Bill "Dead"

Opposition to the bill came from Rep. H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria), House minority leader, and Rep. Ellwood J. Turner (R-Delaware), who both asserted it would create "an overlapping of government." Andrews also criticized an amendment eliminating a provision requiring appointment of a qualified psychiatrist as mental health secretary.

Rep. Charles H. Brunner, Jr. (R-Montgomery), sponsor of the measure, termed the proposal "an important project" in the state's mental health program, asserting "the welfare of 40,000 patients will be greatly benefited."

In another move, the House sent back to committee a proposal to set

The student body of St. Joseph's high school, Emmitsburg, attended religious exercises recently at St. Joseph's Catholic church to pray for the conversion of Russia.

Several students of Mt. St. Mary's college are "practice teaching" athletics to the boys and girls of the high school. Baseball and basketball are the favorite sports.

The entire school was recently entertained by an assembly presented by the Valley Science club.

The Sophomore Home Economics class accompanied by Sister Mary Frances, recently took a trip through the Community Foods Locker system. While there they viewed a typical packing room, cooler and freezing room. Preparations of various meats, vegetables and fruits for the locker were demonstrated and explained.

The annual May procession of St. Joseph's Catholic church was held Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The procession started from in front of St. Euphemia's school and proceeded toward the center square, around the blinker to the church. The procession was made up of altar boys, children of St. Euphemia's school, children of St. Joseph's high school, Sodality of Blessed Virgin, Junior Holy name society, choir of the church, Sisters of the school, priests of the parish, the May Queen and her escorts. The May queen was Mary Miller, president of the Children of Mary of St. Euphemia's school, and her escorts were Patricia Joy, Rita Ann Topper, Ann Warthen, Pauline Rosensteel, Helen Namet and Anna Mae Welby. The crown for the Blessed Mother was carried on a white pillow by Mary Ann Gelwicks and placed on the head of the Virgin Mother by Mary Miller as the children of the school sang "O. Mary, We Crown Thee With Blossoms Today." During the procession the hymn, "Tis The Month Of Our Mother," was sung. The Rev. Elbert Gay, instructor at St. Joseph's college delivered a sermon on the love we should have for the Blessed Mother. The services closed with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament given by the pastor, the Rev. Francis Stauble. The church was filled to capacity.

Chairman Baker Royer (R-Lancaster) of the House Military Affairs committee said "the bill is dead" as far as his committee is concerned because of the opposition of statewide veterans organizations to the measure as "confusing the soldier bonus issue."

Twenty-eight children of St. Joseph's Catholic church received their first Holy Communion at a special Mass held Sunday morning, performed by the pastor, Rev. Francis Stauble. The main altar was decorated with white snapdragons, ferns and pink hydrangea. The First Communion class entered the church led by three altar boys and two little girls dressed as angels. Two angels were also at the end of the class. Hymns were sung throughout the Mass by the children of St. Euphemia's school. Solos were sung by Theodora Rybikowsky and Ruth Wills. The First Communion class is as follows: John Adelsberger, Robert Bishop, William Hawk, Michael Keiz, Francis Ling, Cyrus Manahan, Gerald Miller,

Early Millionaire In Filmdom Dies

New York, May 13 (P)—Richard Rowland, who as early as 1910 had become a millionaire in the film industry, died yesterday at the age of 66.

A native of Pittsburgh, Rowland held executive positions in several film companies until ill health forced his retirement eight months ago.

At 18, he took over his father's carbon lamp business and developed it into a motion picture lighting concern. He also handled distribution of early films in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and sold his business in 1910 for several millions to the General film company.

The annual appeal for contributions to the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania were addressed recently to a number of Gettysburg residents by Mrs. Elsie Slingmaster-Levors who was selected to represent the community this year. The appeal follows:

"The reason I am writing you is because I feel sure you will want to lend your support to the work this association is doing in the prevention of juvenile delinquency and crime and in the adoption of sound, humane methods of dealing with offenders.

"The Pennsylvania Committee on Penal Affairs (a division of the Public Charities association) has been actively engaged on this task for more than thirty years. It has accomplished a great deal, but there is still much to be done. This year they are conducting a study of children in detention and in jail. As an indication of interest, more judges, probation officers and local officials are calling for help and advice than ever before in their history.

"The campaign for the establishment of a Department of Correction to properly administer correctional and penal institutions needs your active support.

"In addition, the association has two other divisions: Family and Child Welfare and Mental Hygiene and Public Health; and all three operations are supported entirely by voluntary contributions.

"Remembering that any amount you send can be deducted from your income tax, won't you make as generous a contribution as you can? Many thanks."

Chapter 25

When Martina received the letter from James Morgan of the advertising agency that handled the contracts for Van Loretto's orchestra, she thought, "This is what I've worked for and wanted for a very long time!"

The elation passed as she thought of Dan the evening before, standing by the piano in this very room, his eyes filled with a very real unhappiness, saying, "I'm afraid I just couldn't take it, Martina!"

Poor Dan! Their marriage had been so unfair to him up to now! She recalled, perhaps for the first time with vivid clarity, the way she had turned from him to Graddy in her hour of need. Her breath caught on the realization of how he must have felt—on their very wedding night!

She could not give up Dan and her marriage, she loved him so dearly! But oh, this other lovely, exciting, beautiful thing! To really be able to sing one's heart out! The applause, the satisfaction of doing a job well, were really secondary as compared with the delight of just—singing!

She put down the letter and went to the piano, her hands drifted over the keys, then she began to sing. The golden melody poured into every corner of the old house like liquid sunshine. Mrs. Allerton going about her tasks, stopped to listen, her breath caught in her throat. Martina sang on and on—drifting from one song to another, running the whole gamut of her repertoire, and when at last her hands fell into her lap, there were tears on her cheeks. For her singing had been a manner of renunciation.

She wandered through the rooms of the house, on out into the garden where the late summer sun had coaxed a riot of blossoming. The outlines of the old stone house rose in sturdy strength, a symbol of stability and steadfastness of spirit. Martina felt conviction growing in her mind until it became decision. At last she rose and went back into the house.

It did not take long to get Mr. Morgan on the phone and when she told him she could not consider the audition she knew that he meant it when he said he was deeply sorry. Now that the decision was made she felt a lifting of her spirits and went to sit almost contentedly working at her hooked rug frame. When regrets arose she quickly stifled them.

The telephone rang and almost wishing she did not have to, she went to answer it. Graddy's voice, in which exasperation and triumph struggled for supremacy, came to her.

"Martina, I did not know you could be such a little fool!"

She laughed a little. "You know about Mr. Morgan's letter?"

"And also your refusal. Cliff Neale called me. It's a good thing for you that you've got somebody to act for you when you're out of your mind!"

"Just what do you mean by that?"

"Simply that I guessed the truth at once! That that precious husband of yours, with his unspeakable pride and vanity, had persuaded you not to take the audition!"

"But how could he? I just received the letter this morning and Dan knew nothing about it. Graddy, you didn't?"

"I knew at once that Dan Holloway had let you know how he felt, and by George, I was right!"

Her heart leaped into her throat as a coldness that was part fear, part blinding anger possessed her. "How—how do you know, Graddy?"

"I made it my business to see your husband. Had no trouble in making him see just what he was doing to you, either!"

"Graddy, you didn't dare! You couldn't!"

"But I did. Why shouldn't I? Who has your interest more at heart than I? Then I called Morgan, told him you'd changed your mind and asked him to hold the spot for you. He was quite willing so you're to come up tomorrow!"

She sat utterly still, scarcely believing Graddy's words. She began to cry softly in desperation.

Graddy almost shouted, "Martina! Are you still there? Darling, say something!" An edge of fear shook his voice a little.

"There isn't anything to say, Graddy. You seem to have fixed everything!"

"You—you're not crying, are you Martina?"

"I'm afraid so, Graddy!"

"But—but you're pleased! You must be! You've wanted this chance for a long time, we've worked hard for it, you and I, Martina, surely you've reconsidered after thinking it over! I counted on that. You'll come up for the audition?"

"No, Graddy. I won't come."

"What!" A complete silence tingled along the wires between them. Finally Graddy's voice came again. "You—you mean that, Martina?"

"Absolutely. Graddy, please get this straight—I've thought it all over, naturally. And you've got to believe that I'm entirely capable of running my own life. I love Dan Holloway better than any career, any fame, any chance to sing that will ever come to me—and if accepting any of these things means losing him, it's absolutely out! Now listen, Graddy, I really mean this. And if you interfere any further I'll not only resent it deeply—as I do this—but it will have to mean the end of our friendship. I'm sorry, Graddy. Goodbye."

She hung up and turned away from the phone. She was trembling, her heart crying out against this thing that Graddy had dared to do to Dan. What must he be thinking? If he believed Graddy—and of course he did, since it fitted in so perfectly with his own thinking—then she had already lost him. She might even, conceivably, not ever see him again!

At that thought she rose and fear lending speed to her feet, she ran to tell Mrs. Allerton that she would be gone the rest of the day, and taking her car headed toward town.

Chapter 26

Anne Amory was not only surprised but definitely annoyed when Sofia, her maid, stuck her head fearfully into the work-room to announce that Mr. Graddy Hueston was waiting in the living-room.

"Dart the man! Coming here interrupting my working hours! Well, I suppose I'll have to see him. Tell him to wait, Sofia, but don't make him too comfortable!"

He was standing by the window looking out in the gradually darkening summer day and there was such a dejected droop to his shoulders that Anne felt a sudden unexpected surge of sympathy. After all, any one who looked as completely love-lorn as Graddy was sure to appeal to Anne Amory. She said, pleasantly enough, "Well, Graddy, this is a surprise. To what do I owe the honor of this visit? Not a sudden interest in my welfare, I'll warrant!"

He turned and the pain in his eyes stopped any caustic remark she might have intended. "I've done it, Anne—deliberately pushed Martina completely out of my life!"

She did not answer for a moment, then offered him a cigarette, took one herself and said, "Sit down, Graddy. Maybe we'd better talk about this."

He sprawled in the big chair by the empty fire place, but for a time he seemed in no mood to go on with his talk.

Anne said, "Pardon me, Graddy, but it seems to me you should have come to that conclusion—to put Martina out of your life except as a friend—on the day she married Dan Holloway. But you didn't, did you? You held on to the belief—and the hope—that the marriage wouldn't work. That when and if it did fail, she'd come to you!"

He nodded. "I always felt it wouldn't last. You see I didn't count on the fact that she'd give up everything for him!"

"What has she given up, specifically?"

He explained briefly the offer she had had and her refusal to even audition for the job. He told how he'd seen Dan Holloway and of his call to Martina. He left nothing out, apparently getting a grim satisfaction from repeating the very words that had cast him out of her life.

Anne said, "It's hard to believe, Graddy—that you actually had the nerve to interfere so deeply. But then you've always thought it behooved you to manage Martina's affairs. Svengali to her, Tribby, I once described you to her. But this time I'd say you're gone too far!"

He said fervently, "You're telling me!"

"Why did you come here?"

"Frankly, now that I'm here, I don't know. I may have had some idea of asking you to persuade Martina to change her mind. Actually, I suppose it's because I have the utmost respect for your judgment."

She raised her eyebrows, completely surprised and somehow touched. "Well, thanks! I had no idea you valued my opinion. In fact I'd have said you disliked me as much as I've always disliked you!"

He nodded honestly. "There's been no love lost between us. But, he smiled a little wanly, "in my heart I guess I've always thought you quite a gal! Now, instead of imploring you to intervene with Martina, which I'm convinced would do no good anyway—I'm simply asking you to tell me—what am I going to do with my life, Anne?"

She said reflectively, "That's a rather large order, Graddy. Why should you have to do anything? You have a fine profession in which you stand at the very top. You have many friends—"

"All of which adds up to absolutely nothing if the one you love doesn't love you!"

"Which," she reminded him with her startling grasp of the truth, "is apparently the way Martina figures too!"

"Yes, I suppose you're right."

She rose and paced up and down the room. He went to stand again at the window. She said finally, "It comes to a question of just what you want, Graddy. Martina, herself, or her supreme happiness which you must believe Dan Holloway alone can give her."

He wished she wouldn't put it so very bluntly. "Of course," he said at last, "you know what I must answer to that. I love Martina enough to want her to be happy—even with—with him!"

"Then you'll have to make up your mind to let them alone! To maybe never see them again!"

He was shocked at her words. "But Martina's always depended on me!"

"She mustn't any more! You mustn't give her another chance to

ASKS WHETHER TEACHERS GIVE 'FULL VALUE'

State College, Pa., May 13 — Teachers may be underpaid, but there apparently still is some question whether the public is getting full value for the money it now pays to teachers.

Urwyn Rowntree, associate professor of industrial education at the Pennsylvania State college, agrees that teachers, in general, are underpaid and heed adjustments to offset the cost of living, but, he asks, how many will examine closely just what that payment is for and do teachers check whether they are giving full value for the salary received?

The job of a teacher can be divided into four general categories, Rowntree says. They are instruction, guidance, administration, and professional, or growth in service.

Up To Teacher

The first three of these, the Penn State professor points out, are achieved to a great extent in teacher education institutions. But growth in service can only be attained within the hearts and performance of each individual teacher.

"In order to be worth their salary and of greater service to students, teachers should be sensitive to local, state, and national issues," Rowntree says. "They should know leaders in their fields, keep abreast of their field, participate in professional organizations, have and hold to a code of ethics, and keep up with literature within their own field."

"In times such as these, when teachers are justifiably requesting additional remuneration for their work," Rowntree says, "they have a responsibility of seeing that the services they render are worth the money received."

Orders Destruction Of Slot Machines

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—Declaring "slot machines are illegal," Judge Henry Ellenbogen Sunday handed down an opinion in which he said he would order 12 seized coin devices "forfeited and destroyed."

The machines were taken last month in raids made by the district attorney's office.

Judge Ellenbogen's opinion said in part: "Especially obnoxious are these gambling machines when located near schools where children and teen-agers congregate. The

She must depend solely and completely upon Dan. Don't you see it's the only way, Graddy? If you continue to interfere—it will be the same thing over again, only growing worse all the time!"

"Then what should I do?"

"You have to decide that. If you really want to show your love for her, you'll go away for a long time."

He said, "I've been asked to come to London to speak before a world conference on the possibility of an international alliance by which music could be used to promote good will among the nations. I hadn't even thought of accepting, but now—"

"It's a perfect solution!" she cried. "Graddy, don't you see—it not only means that you're leaving Dan and Martina free to work their own destiny, but you're opening up a whole new life for yourself! A life that may be of incalculable service to others! In the end, that's always the answer, my friend!"

He smiled a little. "You never called me that before."

She held out her hand with a straight-forward gesture. "I do now. Somehow I believe that through the years we'll be that to each other, Graddy."

His fingers clasped hers. "It's a mighty fine assignment, Anne. Thanks for your generosity. Yes, I'll go to London—but you'll write me, won't you? You'll tell me—"

"What ever I can about Martina that may interest you. You'll let me be the judge of that?"

"Of course. So this is goodbye, Anne—I may not see you before I sail."

Hollywood News

By BOB THOMAS

Hollywood (AP)—Two new Hollywood marriages are getting off to a good start with the understanding that although the wife makes more money, the husband is the boss of the family.

June Haver, one of 20th-Fox's biggest names, recently married Jimmy Zito, a struggling young bandleader. Nancy Guild, who has been boosted to top rank at the same studio, wedded Charles Russell, a lesser name at 20th. Both girls are determined to make successes of their marriages in a town where divorces are as common as convertibles.

The Russells hope to maintain their marital serenity by keeping their screen careers apart. They are currently working together in "Off to Buffalo," in which Nancy will get higher billing than her husband.

"We don't want to work again in the same picture," Charlie said.

"Then," Nancy chimed in, "We will see each other at the end of the working day like normal couples."

The pair's current housing exemplifies their attitude. Nancy, used to the family home in Los Angeles and ranch in Arizona, has moved into Charlie's small apartment. They share the housekeeping duties.

With their professional worlds further apart, the Zitons may face a greater problem in preserving their marriage. But June is determined to do it. Said she:

"Our crowd is not the 'Hollywood gang.' We do not go to those parties you read about. We'd rather be at home, or go to plays or concerts. We want to stay clear of the Hollywood society that does so much to ruin families."

The couple is currently living with June's mother, and they have plans to build their own house some day. But rest assured, it will not be the Hollywood variety with hit and cold swimming pools and ermine-lined tennis courts.

All movie fans who prefer the program of one good picture and short subjects to the tedium of a double bill will be heartened by news from United Artists. While other companies are slashing their short production because of higher costs, UA is instituting a shorts program. This will include the antics of Woody Woodpecker and his colleagues, travelogues by John Grierson, Canadian film man, and musical subjects by Werner Janssen, famed conductor.

Government Experts Will Advise President To Veto Taft-Hartley Measure

US SPECIALISTS DECLARE PLAN 'UNWORKABLE'

By HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, June 13 (AP)—Government labor experts who have been analyzing the Taft-Hartley bill will advise President Truman that the measure is "unworkable" and will not stop a coal strike.

This was learned today from officials who have seen the analysis but who asked that their names not be used.

There have been equally reliable reports, however, that some other Presidential advisers are urging Mr. Truman to sign the measure.

This group is said to contend (A) that the bill does give the government some means of dealing with the threat of a new coal strike next month and (B) that Congress is virtually certain to enact it into law in any event.

Their Reasons

The labor experts are reported to have concluded, among other things, that the measure awaiting Mr. Truman's decision follows more nearly the original version introduced by Rep. Hartley (R-N.J.) than what they called the less restrictive measure sponsored by Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

Here are some of the specific reasons they cite as arguments for a veto.

The provision exempting work stoppages resulting from "abnormally dangerous conditions" would make it possible, in their opinion, for John L. Lewis to bring about a nationwide or partial soft coal strike in mines which have become "unsafe" during the 10-day vacation the miners will take from June 27 to July 7.

Cite Weaknesses

Lewis ordered a "safety shutdown" of soft coal mines early in April but later ordered the men back to work. The analysis says he could order another such walkout, and the bill would leave the government powerless to intervene.

"Yellow dog" contracts could be revived under a section guaranteeing employees the right to self-organization or to refrain from organization. (Yellow dog contracts are those employers make with individual workers pledging them not to join a union.)

Blow to Bargaining

Industry-wide bargaining would be dealt a blow by the requirement that workers involved in a contract dispute vote secretly on accepting their

BALK AT DOUBLE HUNTING PERMIT

Harrisburg, June 13 (AP)—House objections to separate resident hunting licenses for small and big game held up final action on that Senate proposal today.

Rep. W. Henry Elder (R-Lycoming) sponsor of the measure revised in the upper branch to provide for the two separate licenses at $2.10 each and a combination license for $3.10, declared "I'm against that. We don't want anything like that in Pennsylvania."

The measure headed toward a joint Senate-House conference yesterday at the same time the lower branch agreed to a 50 cent increase in fishing license fees to $2.10.

Individual employer's last settlement offer, as stated on the ballot.

Farmers and other supervisors would lose their status as protected "employees" and any contracts they were able to negotiate as union members would be solely through "collusion" with employers.

Frequent bargaining elections provided for in the bill could disrupt production. Four elections could be held within three months and six elections in the course of one year, under the bill, the analysis holds.

Seek Terrier For Biting 13 Kiddies

Pittsburgh, June 13 (AP)—Police today sought a black and white fox terrier reported to have bitten 13 children and a woman in the Mt. Washington district.

Two animal rescue league trucks and six police cars joined in the search for the dog.

Among those bitten were a 14-month-old baby and a 2-year-old boy who had been playing in the yards of their homes.

None of the wounds was serious but all victims were advised to report at once to doctors or hospitals for treatment.

with a part of it earmarked specifically for the development of fishing waters.

Elder forecast that a final agreement on a 50 cent increase in hunting licenses for Pennsylvania sportsmen would result from the House refusal of the Senate plan. He added that other Senate changes establishing separate small and big game licenses for non-resident hunters would be retained.

The hunting measure as it passed the Senate also provided for a non-resident trapping license for the first time at a rate of $25 annually.

TEACHER BONUS IS TURNED DOWN WITH VOTE DUE

Harrisburg, June 13 (AP)—School teacher salary legislation, hottest issue of the 1947 session, headed toward a final vote in the Senate today with the pay scale of $1,950 to $3,400 unchanged despite Democratic efforts to boost it.

The Republican majority, at a lengthy night session ending long after midnight, have rejected every change proposed by the minority including one to grant an extra immediate increment of $150 to teachers who served in the armed forces or stayed at the posts in class rooms throughout World War II.

Declaring that proposal was a good one, Sen. Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill), nevertheless, urged his GOP colleagues to reject it on the grounds it would "jeopardize" the majority's program, designed to remain within the $48,000,000 limit on additional funds for education set by Gov. James H. Duff.

The GOP Senators, Wagner said, have worked for weeks "to squeeze out every possible cent" for teachers.

Boost Supervisors

Earlier, the Senate approved amendments proposed by Chairman Frederick L. Homsher (R-Lancaster) of the Senate Education committee to boost the salaries of some supervisory officials by $500 over the scale originally proposed by his committee.

In addition, the upper branch amended the measure at Homsher's suggestion to increase from $175 a year to $200 the annual service increments for Philadelphia and Pittsburgh teachers with standard certificates. Elsewhere they will remain at $150.

The Senate also advanced for a vote the controversial House-passed bill to broaden the taxing powers of school districts and other local taxing bodies by giving them power to enact wage sales amusement or other taxes not now levied by the commonwealth.

Pass Over Beer Measure

It passed over for the time-being the issue of permitting the licensing of food stores to sell package beer for consumption off the premises with Republican leaders explaining no action has been taken so far on the question.

The proposal, incorporated in a House-passed liquor code would permit local option referendum on package sales in local communities where sufficient voters petition for such action at a municipal primary election.

The House, meanwhile, slated a vote on the administration proposal to establish a new state tax equalization commission to determine the market value of real estate for the computation of state grants for education starting in 1948.

Iron Out Differences

Longest debate on the school day question came on proposals of Sen. Joseph Ball (D-Allegheny) to increase the minimum state subsidy from $700 first to $1,000, then to $900 and finally to $800—with a claim that the minimum will be only aid per teaching units Pittsburgh and Philadelphia will receive. All were rejected in turn on a straight party vote.

At the same time key measures of the administration labor program of bar strikes by public employees including teachers and eliminate jobless benefits to strikers went to a Senate-House conference committee along with a proposal to grant equal pay for equal work to women. Conference received instructions to iron out differences over Senate amendments to the measures.

The available land of the earth today is estimated at four percent of its surface.

House OK's Increase In 'Ag' Work Funds

Harrisburg, June 13 (AP)—The House passed and sent to the governor today a measure to boost from $5,000 to $7,500 the maximum allocation by counties for agricultural extension work in conjunction with the Pennsylvania State college.

In other votes, the lower branch approved finally Senate bills to give the commonwealth's consent for the federal purchase of sites for new veterans' facilities at Wilkes-Barre, Harrisburg and Altoona.

ASK TAYLOR'S RECALL

Birmingham, Pa., June 13 (AP)—The Eastern District of the American Lutheran Church has declared official connections between the U. S. and the Vatican are a violation of the constitutional principle of separation of church and state. The group, in a resolution adopted yesterday, called on President Truman to close "the embassy at the Vatican" and recall his personal representative, Myron C. Taylor.

It is estimated that between 450,000 and 500,000 persons in the United States are under medical treatment for cancer.

E. S. KELLY, 78, DIES THURSDAY; ILL FOUR YEARS

Eugene S. Kelly, 78, died at his home, 58 York street, Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock following an illness of four years. He had been bedfast about two months.

He was born near Littlestown, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly, and was a life-long resident of the county. In his younger years he was a farmer. He came to Gettysburg in 1910 and was employed by the Adams County Hardware store for a number of years. Later he was a representative of the Central Chemical company of Gettysburg for a number of years. He was a member of St. James Lutheran church.

Surviving are his widow, the former Annie H. Cromer; two children, the Rev. James F. Kelly, pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran church, Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. James Geigley, Gary, Ind.; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren, and one brother, Dr. A. A. Kelly, Gettysburg. Allen Barnes, Gettysburg, who was reared by the Kellys, also survives.

Funeral services Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the Bender funeral home conducted by the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, interment in Evergreen cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening after 7 o'clock.

TRUMAN HOME FROM CANADA

Buffalo, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—President Truman, "happy to be home again," returned to the United States today from what he described as "a grand visit" in Canada.

The President was fresh from an automobile tour of Niagara Falls, where he remarked: "I'm glad I don't have to go over them in a barrel."

He was greeted by the New York state Democratic chairman, Paul E. Fitzpatrick, upon arrival in Buffalo for a 30 minute stop.

His decision apparently made on what he plans to do about legislation to cut federal taxes by $4,000,000,000, the President declined to tell reporters whether he would veto it Monday, the deadline for action.

Jokingly, he told them he would act "about 30 minutes before the deadline" when they pressed him for comment last night as he pulled out of Ottawa after a three-day good-will visit.

The President was in happy spirits as he made a 20-minute sightseeing tour of Niagara Falls, Ont., before crossing the border into the United States.

He had "a grand time" in Canada, he said, but, as always, he was "happy to be home again." His train is due in Washington at 8:15 Eastern Standard Time tonight.

Teeter Sets Bail On Federal Charge

Arraigned before United States Commissioner Daniel E. Teeter Thursday afternoon on a charge of transporting a stolen automobile across a state line, Lyman H. Jones, Jr., 18, negro, of Newark, N. J., was held for federal court and taken to the York county jail when he was unable to furnish $5,000 bail.

Jones was arraigned on a complaint filed by a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, York, after being arrested here with a 1947 Dodge sedan he was alleged to have stolen in Newark at mid-night Wednesday night. Jones took the car from a Newark parking lot, using a file to break a window, and then shorting the wires to start it, authorities said.

A tip-off from a gasoline station operator to state police of the Gettysburg sub-station resulted in the man's arrest. With him at the time of his arrest here was Elmer Eugene Nibert, 50, of Gallipolis, Ohio. Nibert said that Jones picked him up on the Lincoln highway seven miles west of York and gave him a ride to Gettysburg. Nibert was not held.

Banker To Attend Graduate School

John Hollinger Myers, East Berlin, auditor of the First National Bank of York, is preparing to leave Sunday for Rutgers university, New Brunswick, N. J., to enter the Graduate School of Banking conducted by the American Bankers' Association.

Mr. Myers will enter the first-year class on June 16. He plans to return to the school in 1948 and 1949, graduating in 1949. He is a graduate of the East Berlin high school.

4 COMMUNIONS AT ST. JAMES

Holy Communion will be celebrated in St. James Lutheran church at four services scheduled for this evening and Sunday. The first communion service will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock; the second on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock; the third on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock; and the last one on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor, will be in charge of all the services, assisted in the distribution of the elements by the Rev. Raymond F. Wleder. At the service tonight the Rev. Mr. Wleder will deliver the communion meditation. On Sunday morning at the 8 o'clock communion new members will be received into the fellowship of the church by letter of transfer and confirmation.

Music for the four communion services has been prepared by the four church choirs under the direction of Prof. Richard E. Shade. This evening the Senior High School choir will render the anthem "Sing unto the Lord" by Daniel Protheroe; on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock the Junior High School choir will sing "Teach Me to Pray" by Jessie Mae Jewitt; on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock the Senior choir will present the anthem "I Will Call Upon Thee" by Dudley Buck with soprano solo by Miss Jane Strickhouse; at the 4 o'clock communion on Sunday afternoon the Junior choir will offer the anthem "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" by Lawrence Keating.

A service of baptism for children has been arranged for Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Sr. Extension Club Meets On Thursday

A recreational meeting was held by the Adams County Senior Extension club Thursday evening at Biglerville, at which the members practiced for a softball game with the York County Senior Extension group to be held July 1, at New Oxford.

Following the softball practice, a meeting was held in the high school gymnasium at which plans for a trip later in July were discussed. President Miles Starner appointed a committee comprising Evelyn Hikes, chairman; Wilmer Stoner and Harry Hoffman to decide on the place to be visited and make arrangements for the trip.

A committee comprising Mary Jacobs, chairman; Harry Musselman and Gladys Roth was appointed to visit sick members. Reported sick at the present time were members John Schwartz at the Warner hospital and Donald Smith at his home, at Gerdners R. D.

Biglerville was set as site for the next meeting at which a practice softball game will be played with the Franklin county Senior Extension club. A session on etiquette will be held following the game.

Girl Scouts Home From Camping Trip

Tuesday morning 23 members of the Cardinal Girl Scout troop, leaders and one guest boarded the Schwartz truck for the Rohrbaugh cottage, Iron Springs, to spend two days of out-door life. The girls took a hike each day, played volleyball, went wading in the stream near the cottage and enjoyed a midnight pajama party. All meals were cooked over a camp fire. The group returned Wednesday afternoon.

Those making the trip were Shirley Downs, Mary Ann George, Susanne LeVan, Ellen Curley, Joanne Jones, Saromore Scott, Marion Shears, Eleanor Smith, Shirley Washington, Ann Fortenbaugh, Rosalie Kidwell, Louise DeHaas, Joan Hartzell, Ruth Hartzell, Nancy Lighter, Susan Lighter, Barbara Sadler, Joyce Sanders, Helen Schwartz, Claire Carroll, Mrs. F. A. Carroll, Mrs. D. L. Banker and Mrs. Sterling Musselman.

FACES CODE CHARGE

A ten-day notice will be sent by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to Esther C. Dively, 243 Springs avenue, on an improper pass charge.

6 MOTORISTS ARRESTED ON CODE CHARGES

D. E. Bortner, Hanover, paid a fine of $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace Howard G. Blocher, Littlestown, Thursday for failing to yield one half of the highway. The charge was filed by state police of the Gettysburg sub-station.

Earl Messinger, Gettysburg R. 5, was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhns, Conewago township, for failing to make application for regular automobile license tags within the time limit prescribed by law after obtaining temporary tags.

State police said a new law requires that the application for regular tags must be made not later than the same day that the temporary tag is received.

Others Arrested

Richard M. Crouse, Hanover, paid a fine and costs to Justice of the Peace Leo Storm, Bonneauville, on a speeding charge laid by the local state police.

A ten-day notice will be sent by a county justice to Robert W. Hoffman, Spring Glen, Pa., for overtaking another automobile and cutting in too quickly in front of it.

Harry Isaac Bowers, Emmitsburg R. 2, paid a fine of $25 and costs to Squire William Dentler, Cash-town, for mis-use of license tags.

State police here have charged Charles H. Spangler, Aspers R. 1, with overloading a truck, and Irving Hostetter, Hanover R. 4, with parking on the highway.

Hold Exams For Graders On June 28

Adams county pupils who were ill, and could not take the eighth grade examination which was held here on May 24, will have an opportunity to take the tests Saturday morning, June 28, at the office of the county superintendent of schools in the court house, Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent, announced today.

The June 28 examination will begin at 8:30 o'clock in the morning. Dr. Bream said, and pupils will be required to bring a note from parent or teacher certifying that they were unable to take the exam on May 24 because of illness. The assistant superintendent said he did not believe that more than a dozen pupils would be eligible.

"This is not a re-examination for pupils who failed in the regular eighth grade examination," Dr. Bream declared. "It is only for those who were prevented from taking the examination because of illness."

Mother, Son Fined For Disorderliness

Charged by Maynard R. Stuckey, manager of the Cashtown Inn, with creating a disturbance at the inn on June 7, Richard Cullison, Orrtanna, entered a plea of guilty to a disorderly conduct charge before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Thursday night, and was fined $10 and costs.

Florence Wilkinson, Orrtanna, an employee at the inn, and mother of Cullison, also arrested on a disorderly conduct charge in connection with the alleged disturbance, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. Constable George Hughes made the arrests.

Present Religious Films On Sunday

The Orrtanna Methodist church and the Fairfield Mennonite church will present another evening of Bible Study pictures on Life in Palestine Two Thousand Years Ago, Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Pictures two and three will be shown. They are "The Day's Work" and "The School." The former is the film which failed to arrive for last Sunday. Both reels are here already.

The Rev. George Harrison will present the introductory talks and the Rev. George S. Stoneback will conduct the service.

The public is invited. Special music is tentatively planned. This service, as all in this series, will be held in the Orrtanna Methodist church.

Bride-To-Be Is Tendered Shower

A surprise bridal shower was given Thursday by the Misses Mary Louise and Helen Cole in honor of Miss Louise Lawrence, Irishtown, whose marriage to Donald J. Cole will take place early next fall.

The table was decorated with centzias, delphinium and candles. An umbrella with satin streamers decorated the gift table.

Approximately 30 guests were present. The bride-elect received many gifts. The occasion was also Miss Lawrence's birthday.

141 ENROLLED IN BIBLE SCHOOL

The Gettysburg Vacation Bible school completed its first week with this morning's sessions at St. James Lutheran church. Classes will resume Monday morning and will be held each day next week until the final service next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Parents and friends of the children will be invited to attend the final "sharing" service.

Enrollment totals 141 pupils with a staff of 14 teachers and helpers in charge. The enrollment by departments was reported today as follows: Beginners, 32; Primary, 66; Juniors, 32, and Intermediates, 11.

Mrs. John Grissinger is in charge of the Beginners and her helpers are Janet Woodward, Anna Shryock and Clare Carroll. Mrs. Raymond Wleder heads the Primary department and is assisted by Jacqueline Routson, Mary Group and Virginia Pridinger. Mrs. E. Donald Scott has charge of the Junior department with Mrs. Paul Boyer and Roxie and Jeanne Stambaugh as her helpers. Garnet Zimmerman heads the Intermediate group with the assistance of Mary Myers.

An offering is received daily at the school and will be used for some missionary cause not yet designated.

The Rev. Floyd A. Carroll, local Methodist pastor and secretary of the Gettysburg Ministerium, is dean of the school which is being conducted under the sponsorship of the Ministerium.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

A regular meeting of the Auxiliary of the Adams County Fish and Game association will be held at the fire engine house this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ivan Bregner, president, will preside. Hostesses for the social hour will be Mrs. Hobson Crouse and Mrs. Annie Cunningham.

'Startling Developments' Make Half U. S. Atomic Installations 'Obsolete'

Washington, June 13 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission says half of its plants and equipment are obsolete because of "startling improvements" in processes but that commercial use of atomic power still is probably 10 to 15 years away.

The information was made public by the House Appropriations Committee today in a report recommending that the commission be given only $175,000,000 of the $250,000,000 it asked for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The committee said it had no desire "to retard development in connection with this most important project" but that it had been unable to find out how the agency plans to spend its money or how many people will be on its payroll.

The committee suggested the commission can come back to Congress for more funds after it gets its facts and figures straightened out.

Questioning of Commission Chairman David Lilienthal, Wilson and others during the hearings brought out this information outside the field of "hush-hush" atomic developments:

1. If atomic energy for commercial use is developed in the next 10 to 15 years, it is unlikely to supplant all other forms of power, but may keep their costs down.
2. The field where private atomic activity can begin first appears to be in the "production and the utilization of radioactive isotopes." Isotopes are slight variations of the same chemical element.
3. These isotopes have "practical possibilities" in industrial, medical and chemical research, some in the field of plant biology.
4. The commission is planning new or expanded plants or laboratories at various points in the country. The appropriations committee cautioned that the greater the scattering of facilities, the more danger there is to preserving "essential secrecy."
5. Incentives for industry must be developed rapidly if America is to have an "atomic industry." Right now profit possibilities are hard to predict and "the commercial gamble is rather a long one."

COUNTY NAVAL OFFICER WILL RETURN JUNE 20

Lt. Comdr. Herbert E. Bryan, Arendtsville, will be separated from the Navy June 20, the Fourth Naval District public information office announced today.

Retained on active duty far longer than normal demobilization for completion of a special assignment, Bryan plans to return to Arendtsville where he was principal of the vocational high school.

He was a technical observer in a rocket unit in the Pacific area for six months and won a Navy unit citation for his work. He was awarded two letters of commendation for outstanding performance of duty with aviation combat intelligence in the Pacific area and received a letter of appreciation from the commandant of the Fourth Naval District for his work since the end of the war.

Served on 3 Ships

As aviation combat intelligence officer he served aboard the USS William S. Clark, Nevada, Ticonderoga and Wasp. He was executive officer of the Separation center at Philadelphia; and executive officer at the Fourth Naval District Readjustment Office.

He served as executive officer and Air Combat intelligence officer at CASU 32, Mavi, Territory of Hawaii. He served at Columbus, Ohio, where he was trained; Philadelphia and Chapel Hill, N. C. where he acted as instructor, executive officer and as liaison officer to a French unit at various times.

He served in the Pacific during 1944 and 1945.

A graduate of Washington and Jefferson college, Bryan received his master of arts degree from the University of Pittsburgh. He entered the navy in December 1942.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis H. Kint, Aspers R. 1, announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital this morning.

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph W. Birk of Altoona, are the parents of their first son, born at the Altoona hospital Thursday morning. This is their second child and has been named David Ralph. The daughter named David Ralph. The daughter named David Ralph. The daughter named David Ralph.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hartman of Cumberland township, Mrs. Birk formerly taught in the county schools and will be remembered as Cordelia A. Hartman. Rev. Birk is pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Altoona, and a graduate of the college and seminary here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert T. Beamer, Carlisle R. 1, announce the birth of a son, Gilbert Thomas, at the Carlisle hospital June 4.

Union Services To Begin On Sunday

Union Sunday evening vespers services will be inaugurated by the Protestant churches of the town Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock with a community service at Christ Lutheran church. The sermon will be delivered by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Dwight P. Putnam. He will be assisted in the service by the Rev. Floyd A. Carroll, Gettysburg Methodist pastor.

The union services will be held in Christ church each Sunday evening through the remainder of June and in July.

Will Build Jail For $1,200,000

The Adams county commissioners this morning received their first bid for the construction of a new jail here since deciding on Wednesday to build a new prison, and if the bid received today is any criterion — which it is not — they should have accepted the low bid submitted last March.

A letter received today from a Chambersburg man, somewhat poorly written and not entirely legible, offered to build a new jail, "suitable to the county's needs" for only $1,200,000. This is a mere million or so more than the low bid submitted on March 28 — $120,931 — which the commissioners thought was too high.

The "bid" received today did not include any specifications or details, but judging from the price quoted, court house atches said nothing less than Italian marble and gold-plated bars could be expected.

BIBLE SCHOOL ENDS SESSIONS AT BIGLERVILLE

The Biglerville Daily Vacation Bible school closed its 1947 sessions with a picnic today.

The following were in attendance: Nursery department teachers, Mrs. L. W. Kleinfelter, Mrs. J. C. Lawver, assistant, Dolores Kapp. Pupils: Natalie Burkhardt, Kathleen Lady, Nancy Eckert, Gudrun Rice, Karen Corman, Ronnie Wagner, Pauline Wright, Ann Kuykendall, Dickie Lawver, Wayne Orndorff, Peggy Gilbert, Rochelle Hoonfaugle, Janet Schwartz, Wayne Schwartz, Jean Dugan, Sue Donhart and Howard Gladfelter. Eleven received diplomas and three the second-year seal.

Two Ball Players Sustain Injuries

George Kress, Littlestown, was X-rayed and treated at the Warner hospital for a fracture of his right ankle sustained while sliding when playing baseball Thursday evening.

George Houck, Biglerville, a member of the Moose softball, was X-rayed this morning for an injury to his right ankle received in a game Thursday evening.

Mrs. Maude W. Kennedy, York Springs; Mrs. Clyde Topper, Gettysburg R. 3, and Mrs. Ellis H. Kint, Aspers R. 1, have been admitted as patients. Those discharged were Mrs. William H. Shaffer, Gardners R. 2, and Mrs. George Coshun, Barlow street.

Buy $63,310 In Bonds During May

Adams county residents purchased $63,310.50 worth of U. S. Savings bonds during May the U. S. Treasury department announced today.

"E" bonds were the favorite choice of the county investors, the report discloses, with $42,657.50 worth of that type bought. "F" bonds totalled $2,553 and $18,100 worth of "G" bonds were bought.

For the state the grand total of purchases was $38,641,472.50.

PLAN STREET REPAIRS

The McSherrystown borough council, at its June meeting on Monday evening decided to spend approximately $2,000 for street repairs. Tarvia to be used in the program will cost $1,150 and $300 will be spent for stone. The work will be done by borough employees. South street is to be repaired and resurfaced.

ENTERTAIN CHILDREN

Members of the Mary Gettys Rebekah lodge entertained their children Thursday evening at a meeting in the Odd Fellows hall. Included on the program were piano selections by the Misses Ruth Ellen, Jean and Joan Hartzell; readings, Miss Catherine Rohrbaugh, Miss Elaine Rebert, Sidney and Bobby Welkert, and a trombone solo, Fred Oyley. Mrs. Howard Hartzell, program chairman, presided.

Mosquito Eradication Plan Should Extend Over 3-Mile Radius, Says Entomologist

OLD TIMERS TO COACH YOUTHS

Two "old timers" in the baseball game, Joe Kusic and Benny Borton will be among those assisting C. H. "Pop" Kelchner in handling the Rotary sponsored baseball school to be held on the Gettysburg college baseball field June 19, 20 and 21.

O. H. Benson, chairman of the Rotary Youth committee which is sponsoring the St. Louis Cardinals school here, said today that both Kusic and Borton were big leaguers who played with the Cardinals a number of years ago.

Public Invited

The general public is invited to be present at the morning and afternoon sessions to be held at the college grounds during the three days.

All young men between the ages of 17 and 22 who would like to learn more about baseball are urged to turn out for the school. Those planning to attend should report at 9 o'clock on the morning of Thursday, June 19, at the college grounds if they wish to take full advantage of the school. The young men who want to take part are asked to wear baseball uniforms if they have them, and bring their own gloves and baseball shoes.

Every young man in this section is invited to take the instruction, Benson said, "and all of it is free. There will be no admission charges either for those undergoing the instruction or for those of us who wish to watch the youngsters during the instruction."

Young Priest Will Conduct First Mass

The Rev. Joseph Donald Keffer, of the Order of St. Augustine, will celebrate his first solemn high mass in the church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of McSherrystown, on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Father Keffer was ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. John M. McNamara on Tuesday of this week at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D. C.

The young priest is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keffer, Center square, McSherrystown. He was graduated from Central Catholic high school, now Delone Catholic high school, McSherrystown, in 1938. The Rev. Father Keffer attended Villa Nova college before entering the Augustinian Order.

Condition Serious Following Stroke

Merle Anthony, who farms the Leas property near Mummert's Meeting House, East Berlin R. D., was discovered unconscious on the floor of his barn on Tuesday, just a week after his wife was badly cut about the head when mules which she was driving bolted.

A physician summoned to attend the stricken man diagnosed his ailment as a stroke and pronounced his condition quite serious. He has been confined to his home.

Mrs. Anthony is recovering from her injuries sustained in the runaway.

Children To Give Program On Sunday

The Children's division of Flohr's Lutheran Sunday school will present a Children's Day program Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, consisting of songs, recitations, exercises and dialogue.

Members of the Nursery, Beginners, Primary and Junior departments will recite a table prayer, pledge to the Christian flag and the Ten Commandments.

The offering will be given to the Tressler Orphans Home, Loysville. The public is invited.

Church Groups To Meet On Sunday

A meeting of all church councils and official boards of Gettysburg will be held Sunday evening at 8:45 o'clock in the Sunday school room of Christ Lutheran church for the purpose of discussing the part churches will play in the proposed Community Recreation program.

An invitation has been extended to members of the Religious Laymen's association and other interested church members to attend.

FRACTURES ARM

Mrs. Helen L. Price, 100 Baltimore street, was treated at the Warner hospital this week for a fracture of her left arm.

That in substance was the advice given the Gettysburg mosquito control committee and the three other town residents who Thursday night attended a mosquito control meeting at the court house.

J. O. Pepper, extension entomologist from State College told the group that—"mosquito control will never be 100 per cent, because you will never be able to get everyone to cooperate, but you can make the mosquito a rarity."

"You can do a large part of the work, drain the swampy areas, put oil on those areas that cannot be drained, and yet one old auto tire in somebody's back yard that lays all summer with water in it can produce thousands of mosquitoes."

Clean Out Water Spots

"So your job will be two-fold. To take care of the main breeding spots and to convince everyone to look after the tin cans, the water barrels, the cisterns, and all the other places where water stands in his own back yard."

The mosquito must have water in which to breed, Pepper told the group, but "any small amount of water that stands for eight to 12 days is enough to produce a new batch of mosquitoes."

"Mosquitoes do not breed in weeds, bushes, grass or anything of that type," Pepper pointed out, "but adult mosquitoes harbor there because it is cool and they do not like the noon-day sun. That is why at evening you will see swarms of mosquitoes flying out of bushes ready for another evening's feeding."

The state college entomologist pointed out that "only the female bites."

Breed In Water

"The male is strictly a vegetarian, but the female needs blood to produce her eggs. And she annoys animals just as badly as she does humans."

"The average female flies about two weeks and lays thousands of eggs. While different mosquitoes lay their eggs in different fashion the most common in this section—culex pipiens or Northern household mosquito—lays from 150 to 200 eggs in the form of a raft which floats on the water. In about two days the eggs hatch into larva or wigglers which in turn become pupa or tumblers from which the mosquito emerges at the end of a few days," Pepper explained. The period from egg to adult mosquito varies from eight to 12 days depending upon the temperature. The hotter the days, the quicker the mosquito is produced, he said.

While domestic mosquitoes are not long distance flyers they can travel for several miles, and carried by the wind might go up to 10 miles from their place of birth.

Control Nearby Areas

"For that reason," Pepper said, "to control the mosquitoes in Gettysburg you must control mosquitoes in the community area, all around the town. You could express it as from Marsh Creek to Rock Creek. It will do little good to destroy all mosquitoes in the borough if you do not stop their breeding within several miles of town, because then the outside mosquitoes would come sailing into town and life would still be miserable."

While there are about 25 different types of mosquitoes in the Gettysburg area, two of the varieties cause most of the havoc and are most prevalent. "When you are bit for the first time in the summer you are probably bit by an inland swamp mosquito. This mosquito lays its eggs in depressions in the earth in the fall. The adult dies and in the spring when water fills the depression the eggs hatch, and you get mosquitoes."

Winter In Homes

"But the inland swamp mosquito is soon put out of the picture by the northern household mosquito which far outproduces it. The household mosquito has overwintered, that is, the female does, in attics, rooms, cellars, sewers, any place where the mosquito is protected. That is why you might be bitten by a mosquito in the middle of the winter. The mosquito is overwintering in your attic, or in an unused room, and if the temperature gets hot enough out she comes in search of blood."

"When spring comes she heads for the streams, first biting someone in search of blood for her eggs, and another generation is under way."

Pepper told the committee that "you will have to be constantly reminding the people of the way in which mosquitoes propagate, if you want to control them. Even the sentiment of Memorial Day leads to (Please Turn to Page 2)

THE CLEAN-UP

By Joe Barry

AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 23

Covington frowned.

"Do you mean to say that none of this was your doing? After the things you told me when you first came to my office."

"Let me tell you again what I'm doing," said Rush. "I'm doing everything I can to arouse suspicion among the men who have been running your town. They have had such a smooth running operation that it was impossible to convince the average man that anything was wrong. I'm convincing them. I've tried to set them at each other's throats. I'll admit that that is probably why Sully got killed. But you can't clean up a city like this without breaking a few dishes. Sully was just a soiled old plate and he had it coming. Beyond that I'm stage managing a few effects that may not be quite what they seem. I had hoped that a little false sound and fury would be all that was necessary but somewhere along the line somebody else drew a hand. They play rougher than I do."

"Who could it be — not Carney surely?"

"I hardly think so. Max is smart enough to know that blood on the street is just the kind of thing that'll run him. He also knew there was no reason for shooting anybody."

"Then who, for heaven's sake, and why?"

"When you give me that answer I'll have a lot of other answers for you."

"Well, answers or no answers it's got to stop. I could never face myself or my friends if I knew that I chimed to the mayor's office through a pile of dead bodies. I must ask you to stop your efforts immediately."

and leave Forge City."

"I'm afraid that's out of your hands, Mr. Covington," said Rush. "I'm going to elect you in spite of yourself and then I hope you'll be."

Rush broke off in mid word. A twig of the hedge had moved a fraction of an inch and no breeze stirred its neighborhood branches. Then just above that twig a darker shape appeared and for a second sunlight glinted against the green of the hedge. Rush was out of his chair in a gliding lunge for Covington. He caught the older man full in the chest and rolled over him tumbling chair and all to the ground. In the same second a sharp report rang out, an echo rapped back and a branch of the hedge behind the spot Covington had been seated fluttered to the ground. Rush roughly shoved Covington behind a tree, then in a crouching run, drawing a gun from his shoulder as he moved, he angled across the lawn to a corner of the hedge where a flagged path ran through a break. He could have saved the steps. In the distance a motor throbbed into life and roared away. Slowly he regained his feet and walked back to Covington who was now standing erect brushing himself off.

"What was that?" he asked angrily.

Rush told him.

"You were slated to be number four," he said.

Covington stared at him, digesting the unpleasant truth. As he stood there he seemed to grow in stature. His shoulders came back and his chin went up.

"I have been mistaken, Henry. You seem to know more about this thing than I do. Stay on. Elect me by any means you can. Then come around and tell me how to clean up my city. I'll listen to you then."

He turned and walked back into the house. Rush watched his retreating back with a small grin. Silently he thanked the unseen gunmen. The mayor-to-be had almost been a problem — the gunman had solved it for him.

Rush telephoned to Gay.

"I've been languishing here waiting for you to call, big boy," she said.

"Big boy?" said Rush. "Is this Westlake 4191?"

"Of course it is, you sully one. Who did you think it was?" Her voice was loaded with a false gaiety.

"Is this Gay Wimberly?" asked Rush.

"Of course. Who did you think it'd be — Lana Turner?"

"What has happened to you?"

"Why don't you come up here? Just us two. Isn't that cozy?" said Gay.

Rush's brow furrowed and he looked at the receiver as if it were playing him tricks. Then he got it.

"Are you alone?" he asked.

"Of course not, silly."

"Are you trying to decoy me up there for somebody?"

"Oh, I'd love to."

"Of course."

"Okay, Cince. Tell him you've made a deal. You've decoyed me. I'll be there in a half an hour."

Rush then hung up and made another call.

Rush pushed the button outside of Gay's apartment a punctual half hour later. She came to the door and looked up at him from under quizzically raised brows. Aloud, Gay said to him:

"The strangest thing, dear. Just after you called Mr. Carney dropped by. When he heard you were coming he insisted on waiting. He wanted to talk to you."

"Always glad to see an old friend," said Rush. He stepped around Gay and into the room. Carney was seated in the middle of the day-entertainment a drink in one hand and a cigar in the other. Seated strategically, in corners of the room were his two boys, Junior and his pal. "Hello, Maxie," said Rush. "Nice to see you again."

"Sit down, Henry," said Max Carney. His cigar pointed at a chair opposite the davenport.

"Sure, Maxie," said Rush. "How about a drink, Gay?"

"Well, what's on your mind, Carney?" he asked.

Carney smiled and his lips thinned to knife edges.

"I'm going to hang onto you till this is over, then you can do anything you want to," he said.

'Jitney' Operations

By Cabbies Halted

Pittsburgh, June 13 (AP)—"Jitney" operations by striking AFL drivers of two district bus lines were halted Thurs. after the Public Utility Commission threatened prosecutions.

The unlicensed services ended abruptly as AFL motor coach employees, division 85, leaders resumed negotiation talks in the 43-day-old strikes at the Brentwood Motor coach and Ohio River Motor coach lines.

The union reportedly continues a demand for a 15-cent hourly increase. Both lines have offered a 13-cent raise, establishing a $1.23 hourly rate as another division of the union had accepted from Harmony Short Line and the Blue Ridge Lines' western division.

MOVE TO FREE BRIDGES LOST

Harrisburg, June 13 (AP)—Failure of a House Judiciary committee to act on a Senate-passed bill apparently gave a death blow today to any action at the present session on a move to provide funds for the eventual purchase and freeing of the state's 10 remaining privately owned toll bridges.

Chairman John McKinney (R-Venango) said he would probably call a meeting of his committee during the day to consider a proposed constitutional amendment to permit use of motor funds to buy the bridges.

"That will be too late," commented Sen. George N. Wade (R-Cumberland), co-sponsor of the measure with Republican state Chairman M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin).

He referred to the Republican leadership plans to wind up the 1947 session Saturday, leaving only two legislative days while the state constitution requires readings on three separate days before a measure can come to a vote.

The constitutional proposal was offered in line with the state supreme court's decision that a 1945 amendment to the constitution barred use of $7,000,000 appropriated the same year to buy the spans, two of which cross the Susquehanna river at the state capital.

The legislature earlier gave final approval to a bill authorizing a $20,000,000 highway project in the Harrisburg area, including a $5,000,000 free bridge across the Susquehanna river.

Turnpike Proposal

Before House Today

Harrisburg, June 13 (AP)—Legislation to permit Pennsylvania to join with Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana in extending the 160-mile Turnpike westward came before the House today—half way through the Assembly in the final days of the 1947 session.

A bill, introduced only on Tuesday, was passed unanimously by the Senate last night authorizing Pennsylvania, with the other three states, to set up an interstate turnpike commission for the purpose of planning an extension to the western border of Indiana.

Sen. Elmer J. Holland (D-Allegheny) one of the sponsors of the bill, said it would be used as a model in the other three states.

STRIKE SETTLED

Pittsburgh, June 13 (AP)—The Brentwood Motor Coach strike, which began 44 days ago, ended early today when the 85 drivers agreed to accept a 14-cent hourly pay raise instead of the 25 cents they had demanded. Spokesmen for the company and the AFL-Amalgamated Motor Coach Employees said partial service would be restored today and full service by tomorrow.

Legion Will Omit Meeting Next Week

Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, transacted routine business at its weekly meeting on Thursday evening. Robert Koontz, chairman of the softball team, announced that the Legion will play its first game Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the playground, meeting the Redeemer's Reformed church team. All Legionnaires interested in playing this game are asked to report at the playground before game time.

The post decided not to hold a meeting next week due to the Fish and Game association carnival. The next meeting will be held June 26.

A sponsor's donation was made to the Warner Hospital Kitchen fund.

Continuing Credit Controls Is Urged

Washington, June 13 (AP)—President Truman recommended Thursday that Congress pass a bill permitting continuance of controls on consumer credit.

Unless Congress does this, Mr. Truman said he plans to end the present regulations, based on wartime legislation. These regulations, under executive order, fix the size of down payments and fix the length of time in which the balance due must be paid by installments.

These controls affect purchases of such things as household goods, refrigerators and automobiles.

Mr. Truman's views were stated in a letter to Marriner S. Eccles, chairman of the Federal Reserve board, which wields the controls on installment-buying credit. Eccles read the letter to the House Banking committee.

Titusville, Pa., June 13 (AP)—Sky-Line industries of Meadville had announced purchase of a 135-acre farm on the outskirts of Titusville for the erection of a plastic products plant. The property was bought for an undisclosed sum from Dr. and Mrs. Tracy Putman of Los Angeles.

South Heights, Pa., June 13 (AP)—An armed, masked passenger held up Ford Smith of Alliquippa, driver of a Shafter line bus operating between Alliquippa and Pittsburgh, and took a cash box containing $200 yesterday. Then, said Smith, the man sighted from the bus, climbed into a waiting car and sped away.

Fremont, Ohio, June 13 (AP)—A pickup truck out of control plunged into a ditch, killing Jerome A. Kralffy, 49, manager of the Washington, Pa. circulation office of the Pittsburgh Press near here yesterday. His daughter, Mrs. Virginia Blackington, 24, of Boston, Mass., who accompanied him, was unhurt.

To reduce production man-hours, cups are being made in Australia without handles.

SMALL NATIONS EXPECTED TO HIT BIG 5 FAILURE

By JOHN A. PARRIS, JR.

Lake Success, June 12 (P)—A small nation court jury today was to decide the case of Frank Super, 32, charged with felonious assault in connection with a shotgun blast that injured his wife so badly her right leg had to be amputated at the knee.

The wife, Florence, 31, mother of three children, all under 10, said her husband came home last March, argued with her, and began tearing her clothes. She tried to escape from the house, she said, but her husband grabbed his gun and stopped her.

The wife, who hobbled to the witness stand on crutches, told the jury: "I ran into the kitchen, and the gun went off, hitting me in the leg."

Super testified the shooting was accidental. He had been cleaning his gun to go pheasant hunting, he said, and it went off by mistake. He declared he had never struck his wife nor quarreled with her.

Reported Failure

The major powers were deputized as a special submission to work out the differences because their concurrence is a prerequisite to any settlement of the arms question.

But in asking this course the commission set a UN precedent, for the small powers were not consulted. And now that the Big Five has admitted failure the small nations are expected to assert, as they have previously, that the major powers are never able to work out their differences among themselves.

Before the armaments commission are two plans for approaching the disarmament question—one submitted by the United States, the other by the Soviet Union.

Wide Differences

Principal points of the Soviet plan as set forth by Russian Deputy Andrei Gromyko, were injection of the issue of atomic energy and the question of eliminating troops on foreign soil.

Gromyko, in presenting his plan, said that "networks of military, naval and air bases" were stationed in many countries by foreign powers and the commission should see that such personnel and facilities were withdrawn.

Man On Trial For Wounding His Wife

Pittsburgh, June 13 (P)—An Allegheny county court jury today was to decide the case of Frank Super, 32, charged with felonious assault in connection with a shotgun blast that injured his wife so badly her right leg had to be amputated at the knee.

The wife, Florence, 31, mother of three children, all under 10, said her husband came home last March, argued with her, and began tearing her clothes. She tried to escape from the house, she said, but her husband grabbed his gun and stopped her.

The wife, who hobbled to the witness stand on crutches, told the jury: "I ran into the kitchen, and the gun went off, hitting me in the leg."

Super testified the shooting was accidental. He had been cleaning his gun to go pheasant hunting, he said, and it went off by mistake. He declared he had never struck his wife nor quarreled with her.

SET PRECEDENT IN LIQUOR CASE

Uniontown, Pa., June 13 (P)—In an order believed unprecedented in Pennsylvania, the Fayette county court yesterday reversed the action of one of its members, Judge H. Vance Cottom, who had over-ruled the State Liquor control board and had ordered a liquor license issued to the Sons of Italy club.

The opinion, written by President Judge W. Russell Carr, with Judge S. Morrow concurring, said: "While the statute gives the club the right to appeal to the court and provides the court shall hear the appeal, the legislature did not intend the court to become an independent licensing authority."

The order directed that after all appeals from the board would be heard by the members of the court jointly, and added that the right of appeal was vested in the entire court "rather than in a judge of the court."

The board had refused to issue a license to the club after a hearing by church had protested. Overruling the board, Judge Cottom directed issuance of the license. The church appealed to the court en banc.

Lightning Bolt Gives Man 'Close Shave'

Warren, Pa., June 13 (P)—It was a "close shave" indeed that Lyman Broughton had while wielding his razor during a heavy electric storm here Wednesday night.

Accompanied by a terrific flash, a bolt of lightning struck his home, an oak tree, and shattered windows in two neighboring houses. The bolt apparently spent itself in the bathroom mirror—smashing it into countless bits which flew into Broughton's face and eyes.

Broughton went to St. Vincent's hospital, Erie, today, to have Dr. C. H. Delaney remove the pieces of glass from his eyes.

State Disclosed That Winston Churchill's Waving of a United States of Europe Had Influenced His Development

Passaic, N. J., (P)—Police Chief Edward Boyko won't let his men take off-duty jobs as bar room bouncers any more. Too many have been beaten up, he said, causing a manpower shortage on the force.

DENTAL DIFFICULTY

Oswego, Kas., (P)—"Gosh, Doc, my false teeth are hurting me like thunder," a patient of Dr. F. J. Faulkner said as he clawed into the dentist's chair. Examination showed the patient was cutting a wisdom tooth beneath his plate.

Marshall Says He Meant Russia Too

Washington, June 13 (P)—Secretary of State Marshall said Thursday that when he proposed European nations get together on an economic program he was thinking of Russia and Great Britain as well as other nations.

Marshall made the proposal in a speech at Harvard university a week ago. He was bombarded with questions about it at a news conference today, his first since the speech.

In his replies, the Secretary of State said, joined two other Republicans in opposing to move to shunt his bill to committee.

SINKIANG PUSH NEW CAUSE FOR ALARM IN WEST

By GLENN BABB
(AP Foreign News Analyst)

If the alarms being sounded in Nanking prove true, the worldwide struggle against the spread of Communism has extended to the great interior plateau of Asia, the roof of the world. That is an area where nearly all factors are in favor of the Red forces; there is little the anti-Communist elements can do to oppose any advance.

The Chinese official news agency's version is that troops of the Mongolian People's Republic (outer Mongolia), supported by four planes bearing Soviet insignia, crossed the border into Sinkiang, or Chinese Turkestan, and marched some 300 miles before meeting opposition. That would be easy enough in those distant, desolate wastes.

The reason for the invasion, if such it is, remains obscure. Doubtless if there is military action in progress we shall have shortly some account from the other side, some familiar story of border violation or other justification for punitive action. It is doubtful that the outside world will ever know much about what really is happening.

Part of World Pattern
However, it is impossible to separate this flareup on one of the world's most isolated frontiers from the worldwide pattern of Russian pressure and expansion. Outer Mongolia ostensibly is an independent republic, having won its freedom from China late in 1945 as the result of a plebiscite which followed the Soviet model of near-unanimity. The plebiscite itself was one of the concessions the Kremlin wrung from China in the treaty signed just as Japan was collapsing and which carried so many seeds of Russian-Chinese discord.

But Mongolian independence is strictly qualified. The first major act of the infant republic was to sign, on February 27, 1945, a treaty of friendship and mutual aid with the Soviet Union. Soon thereafter Moscow was sponsoring its application for membership in the United Nations, a bid which was rejected by the western powers.

Actually the Mongolian People's republic is one of the oldest examples of the puppet state, and one of the most effective. It moves at Moscow's bidding and if Russia does have designs on Sinkiang — and she has given evidence of such in the recent past — Mongolia would be the logical instrument for pushing them. The Mongolian army, a far-removed and feeble descendant of the hordes of Genghis Khan before the Russians came in, now is trained, supplied, guided by the Red Army.

Hub of Russia, China, India
A movement into Sinkiang would be a flowing back of Russian power rather than a new expansion. Russian influence for decades has been strong in that westernmost territory of China. The building of the Soviet's great Turkish trunk-line brought it well within the Soviet economic orbit and this hold has been reinforced by the new feeder branches of the Turkish built and building as part of the Soviet Union's current five-year plan.

From 1934 to 1942 Sinkiang, which has a population of perhaps 4,000,000 and an area of about 600,000 square miles, was under virtual

Hollywood News

Hollywood, (AP)—Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Los Angeles today took notice of growing eastern competition to the city's massive motion picture industry. Informed that more and more films are being made in New York and elsewhere by Hollywood companies, the mayor declared:

"We'll have to wake up and get busy on this."

Mayor Bowron told me that prior to the war some companies made films in other cities, but the move-

Soviet domination. A Russian controlled agency, the Sovintorg, monopolized all Sinkiang's export trade. Russian troops, wearing Chinese uniforms, were reported stationed at Hami in 1942, when Russian fortunes in World War II were low. The Chinese succeeded in negotiating a Russian withdrawal and resumption of full Chinese control. Sinkiang lies at the juncture of three tremendous land masses, Russia, China, and India. Were it more developed and less savage physically, Russian penetration there would doubtless cause immediate alarm throughout the western world as well as China. But some of the world's greatest mountain ranges and most forbidding wastelands isolate it from the great Asiatic centers of population. Even so, with India soon to be cut loose from British protection and with China in tragic upheaval, there will be added cause for concern in the western capitals should the Red banner be carried across Sinkiang to the mountain passes ment didn't develop. Lately, however, several pictures have been filmed completely in the east. Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York city has been particularly active in inducing film makers to use his city's real sets, instead of constructing them in Hollywood.

"Los Angeles is proud of the motion picture industry," Mayor Bowron declared, "and I'm sure the industry is proud of this city. The industry has helped greatly in the development of the city and the state, and I know we would hate to see any part of the industry go elsewhere."

He said he would investigate the matter further.

John Steinbeck promised Paulette Goddard and Burgess Meredith he would write a play for them. And he did. But then the writer didn't like it and tore it up.

Jon Hall is set for two pictures a year for Columbia and he has an interesting deal. He'll work for about one-fourth his regular salary and take a percentage of the profits. In that way he'll get his return over a period of years. Jon may make another film yearly, although he says:

Many Never Suspect Cause Of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatism, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

"I'd be doing it for nothing because of taxes."

James Dunn's role in "Killer McCoy" is being built up to include some dance numbers with himself and Mickey Rooney. Remember the routines Jimmy did with Shirley Temple in the early thirties?

Victor McLaglen, who limits himself to two pictures a year, is in town for "Foxes of Harrow." He assures that he'd much rather be back on his Clavis, Calif., ranch, near Fresno. "Hollywood," he sighs, "isn't the same as it used to be—too many people."

Rod Cameron, now a member of the KOBUS (Kissed Off By Universal International), wants to hold off and free-lance in the type of roles Fred MacMurray does. But his agent wants him to sign up to a studio contract so a steady salary (and the agent's 10 per cent) will keep coming in.

Katharine Hepburn leaves this week for her home in Hartford, Conn., and isn't expected back until fall when she'll do "B. F.'s Daughter."

Dean Jagger is back in Hollywood with his bride. He's doing "Driftwood" and intends to stay here because good plays are hard to find. . . . Jimmy Durante hopes

FINAL EDITION OF LINCOLN SCHOOL PAPER IS ISSUED

The final edition of The Lincolnian Lincoln school publication, was issued Thursday afternoon by a staff headed by Carolyn Fiscel.

The paper announces the names of 34 Lincoln school pupils on the third quarter honor roll—19 from the eighth grade and 15 seventh graders. Thirty-one of them have been on the honor roll for each quarter during the current school term.

The eighth graders who have achieved honor roll rating for the first three quarters follow: Albert Bachman, Louise DeHaas, Vannie Dively, Dorothy Fidler, Carolyn Fiscel, Richard Guise, Janet Jacobs, Barbara Ketterman, Doris Miller, Jean Mountain, Dwight Putman, B. Shmolecnecker, Martha L. Sickles, Nancy Teeter, Jack Thrush, Darlene Topper, Doris Trimmer and Nancy Williams. An additional pupil on the roll for the third term is Arthur Aiken.

The seventh grade list of three-term honor students follows: John Basehore, Mar-an Blount, Gwen Bream, Alice Coshum, Ruth E. Hartzell, Martha Heim, Rosalee Kidwell, Nellie Larson, Jackie Miller, Nancy Sanders, Suzanne Schmidt, Dolores Wineman and Phyllis Wolford. Additional names for the third quarter are JoAnne Rebert and Charles Sanders.

Sixth Grade Honor Pupils

The paper also lists the following sixth grade pupils who were listed on the fourth and fifth term honor rolls.

Fourth term: Edwin Bachman

ORGANIZATIONS DONATE BOOKS

Donations of a number of books by the Christ Reformed church near Littlestown, the Mothers' club of St. Francis Xavier church and the Knights of Columbus of McSherrytown were announced today by Miss Kathryn Ollei, librarian of the Adams County Free library.

The McSherrytown Knights of Columbus have presented a number of pamphlets which can be used for study clubs and include such titles as: 'Communism, A World Menace', 'God in Society', 'The Condition of Labor', 'The World Society', 'American Democracy vs. Racism and Communism', 'America's Challenge—the Broken Home', 'Parent and Child', 'God in Economic Life', 'Citizen Church and State', 'God Man's First Need' and 'The Church and the Social Order.'

Books presented by the Mothers' club include 'Son of the Land,' Bolton, 'This Night Called Day,' Edwards; 'The Dark Side of the Moon' Elton, 'Jolly Jacob' Fitzgerald, 'The Man Who Never Died,' Brennan, 'Fight of the Bells,' Hubbard, 'Miracle of the Bells,' Janney and 'This is My Story,' Budenz.

The Christ Reformed church presented a copy of the pastor's book, 'History of Christ Reformed Church (Evangelical and Reformed), 1746-1947,' written by the Rev. John Clark Brumbaugh.

A CHALLENGE TO THE CLASS OF '47

Your country needs you now. The future of a free America may rest on your decision.

There is no Draft today to put you in the Army. Yours is the first class since 1940 that faces a free choice. But with that freedom, as with every freedom, goes responsibility.

The nation has put the maintenance of a strong, alert, defensive force squarely up to you. This is the only country in the world that dares to raise and maintain a million-man Army by voluntary enlistment, in the American tradition. The duty of keeping our Army ready for emergencies is shared by every citizen—for never before, in peacetime, has the need for it been greater.

Our freedom, our ideals, the safety of our homes and families, depend on a world peace backed by firmness and justice. It's your Army now—yours to keep strong.

Joining the Army as a volunteer may mean some sacrifice to you. On the other hand, you have much to gain from the experience. Sound physical condition, training in leadership, world travel and adventure, the comradeship of a fine group of young men, a job with a real future at better pay than you can get in most civilian work—all these make the Army an excellent career for young men who can measure up to its high standards. And in addition you will be entitled to educational benefits under the GI Bill of Rights, if you enlist before Congress officially terminates the war.

MACKMEN WHIP SENATORS 5-1 NEWSOM LOSER

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
At the rate boisterous Bob Newsom, Washington's self-styled 20-game winner is going along this season, he may be lucky to collect the necessary six triumphs he needs in order to join the select list of pitchers who have won 200 or more games in the major leagues.

The garrulous right-hander has yet to gain his first mound win this season.

Newsom was hardly at fault last night as he failed in his third attempt to register his initial win. He gave up only five hits and one run in eight innings. Philadelphia came up with four runs in the top half of the 11th to whip the Senators 5-1.

Bobo has had some tough luck this year. In his first start his mates were blanked by the Yankees 7-0 and in his second time out the Chicago White Sox beat him 5-2.

New Second-Placers
Each league got a new runner-up tenant as Brooklyn moved into second spot in the National by defeating the Boston Braves 6-3 at Ebbets Field and the Boston Red Sox nipped the New York Yankees 4-3 at Fenway Park to move behind Detroit in the American.

The Dodgers made good use of 11 hits to clinch the Braves, who dropped to third place by nine percentage points.

The game was highlighted by a Dodger run-in with plate umpire George Magerkurth in the second frame over his ball and strike decisions and resulted in the clearing of the Brooklyn bench of everyone except Manager Butch Shotton, Coach Jake Fittler, Infielder Cookie Lavagetto and Pitcher Hugh Casey.

No other games were scheduled as most of the teams were preparing for their second interseasonal series of the campaign. The eastern teams in the National League engage the western clubs on the latter's home grounds today while the western teams begin their invasion of the east in the American League.

Senators Continue To Lead Interstate

(By The Associated Press)
Harrisburg's Senators continue to set the pace in the Interstate league but they had to come from behind in the ninth inning last night to ek out a 4 to 3 victory over the Wilmington Blue Rocks.

Sumbury broke a seven game losing streak with a 9 to 6 victory over the Trenton Giants, scoring five runs in the first inning.

Allentown made it three out of four over the Hagerstown Owls, taking a 19 to 16 slugfest after three hours of play.

Lancaster scored 12 runs on 12 hits to win over York, 12 to 7.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, May 13 (AP)—You can look for quite a tussle when the boys step out for the National Collegiate mile championship at Salt Lake City in June.

Penn State's Gerry Karver turned in a 4 11 6 mile last Saturday and just did beat Jack Danetti of Michigan State.

That's the fastest college mile in years, but Nebraska's Bobby Ginn can come close to 4 11, Coach Clyde Littlefield of Texas figures little Jerry Thompson can hit that mark, and Bob Rehburg of Illinois isn't far behind.

Floyd (Red) Burdette, Alabama basketball coach, who is here on a visit, reports that Southeastern Conference basketball showed improvement last season, it will be still better next season, and year after next it really will hit the peak.

SUPPORT FOR THE SPORTS

The Shreveport sports of the Texas League made a neat profit on Pitcher Doyle Lade. In 1942 the Chicago White Sox agreed to buy him for $15,000, paying $2,500 down and the rest if they wanted him when he returned from Army duty.

After Lade was discharged, the Sox decided against paying the balance, so the sports turned around and sold him to the Cubs for $25,000, to be paid if he remained with Chicago after April 1.

EX-BALLPLAYER DIES

Kane, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Leon C. Marsters, 69, one-time professional baseball catcher, died Sunday after a heart attack. He had been a hotel clerk and club steward here for many years.

SEEK BALL GAMES

The Lebanon Steeles, a semi-pro baseball outfit, desires to book games in this area on a home and away basis. Managers interested may contact R. Rudegeair, 442 North Sixth street, Lebanon.

MULLIN HITS .441 TO LEAD MAJOR BATSMEN

New York, May 13 (AP)—Outfielders Pat Mullin of Detroit and Fred (Dixie) Walker of Brooklyn continued to pace the major league batsmen as the campaign reached the end of the first month of competition.

Walker, the 36-year-old veteran who seems to improve with age fell off a bit from his above .400 mark last week to .397, but Mullin, who is just returning to pre-war form following four years in the army, has boosted his altitudinous figure to a gaudy .441.

In 17 games of which he has hit safely in 16, Mullin has collected 26 hits out of 59 times at bat. The 29-year-old Irishman from Trotter, Pa., who has driven in 10 runs, has rapped out a majority of his hits for extra bases. Included in his total are 11 doubles and five home runs.

Has 59-Point Lead

Mullin enjoys a 59-point bulge in the American league over runner-up Buddy Lewis of Washington who is hitting .382, 26 points higher than the 356 mark owned by sophomore Bob Dillinger of the St. Louis Browns. The surprising George Banks of Philadelphia is fourth with .352 followed by Luke Appling of Chicago and Les Fleming of Cleveland. Each is hitting .347.

Close behind Walker in the National league batting race is Billy Rigney, the fine utility infielder of the New York Giants. The bespectacled graduate of the Pacific coast league is hitting .389, six points more than Bob Elliott of Boston with .383. The Braves' Tommy Holmes is fourth with .357 and Pittsburgh's Frank Gustine is fifth with .342.

Bob Montgomery Defeats La Rover

Philadelphia, May 13 (AP)—Bob Montgomery, the New York-Pennsylvania recognized lightweight champ, added the name of George La Rover to his list of victims for a second time out it took the Bobcat 10 rounds to do it.

Remembering the time La Rover, a Philadelphian, gave him last summer in New England, Montgomery spent most of his time sizing up his opponent in the opening stanza of the non-title fight at the arena last night.

The Bobcat stormed out in the second round and from then on Montgomery used a double barreled attack that left La Rover with little power in the final stanzas.

La Rover, a gallant and rugged youngster, won the opening round with a series of sharp rights but thereafter he was no match for the weaving, bobbing, hooking champion. There were no knockdowns but Montgomery caught La Rover in the fourth and fifth rounds with blows under the heart that definitely hurt.

Hartford Close To Williamsport

(By The Associated Press)
The Hartford Chiefs set out today to wrest the Eastern league leadership from the Williamsport Tigers after edging within a half-game of the top.

The Chiefs downed Williamsport 5-3, last night despite two home runs and a closing drive by the Tigers. In other contests, Elmira took a 10-inning decision from Albany, 3-2; Wilkes-Barre defeated Binghamton, 13-7, in another extra inning game, and Scranton nipped Utica 3-2.

Walcott Accepts Sinatra's Offer

Camden N. J., May 13 (AP)—Crooner Frank Sinatra's offer of $35,000 for a 10-round bout between Jersey Joe Walcott and Joey Maxim of Cleveland at Hollywood June 23 has been accepted by Joe Webster, Walcott's manager.

Maxim managed by Jack Kearns is to receive a $15,000 guarantee. Walcott and Maxim have fought twice. Walcott lost a close decision last summer in Camden and won in a rematch last winter at Philadelphia.

Somerset, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Eight-year-old George F. Swindell, of nearby Garrett, was killed near his home Saturday by the accidental discharge of a rifle in the hands of a 19-year-old neighborhood youth who had been shooting sparrows.

Dr. A. M. Uphouse, Somerset county coroner, reported Dr. Uphouse said the Swinnell boy walked into the line of fire and that he had ruled the tragedy an accidental shooting.

LOUIS OBSERVES 33RD BIRTHDAY

Detroit, May 13 (AP)—Joe Louis sat back confidently and observed his 33rd birthday today while others combed the field for a 24th challenger for his heavyweight boxing crown.

Golfing and otherwise doing might like he pleases Joe will be toasted by home-town followers at a double-barreled blowout here tonight.

The first reason for the celebration is, of course the birthday. Secondly it is early 10 years since Joe acquired the sports most coveted title.

An insurance company of which the brown bomber is an official is throwing the party complete with cake candles and all the trimmings.

Louis is looking forward to his next championship fight with as much enthusiasm as he has ever shown.

May Fight Baks.
Informed that Joe Baks, the Pennsylvanian coal miner, was reconsidering a title bout next September the champ said "that's okay with me."

I don't pick my opponents," he added, "I never have and I am not going to start now. That's up to the promoters."

Baks still in London where he recently defeated British Champion Bruce Woodcock, reportedly has changed his mind about taking a shot at Louis.

Shortly after beating Woodcock, Baks and his handlers decided he wasn't ready for the champ.

As for Louis' Manager, John Roxborough, any arrangements are all right just so long as they get Joe a fight in September.

Many ring observers believe Baks is little if any more to offer than 23 other contenders who have fallen by the wayside since Louis lifted the crown from Jimmy Braddock's head back in June, 1937.

ISSUES WARNING ON TAX SLASHING

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Senator George (D-Ga.), declared Saturday a $4,000,000,000-a-year income tax cut approved by the Senate finance committee would leave no surplus to pay on the $253,000,000,000 public debt.

The measure, slashing levies 30 to 105 per cent, was voted over George's protest that action should be delayed until Congress has a better idea what next year's government spending will be.

It would be effective July 1 instead of retroactive to last January 1 the date fixed in the House bill, and would limit the cut on incomes in the range of $79,728 to $302,296 to 15 per cent instead of the House version's 20 per cent.

George was defeated in a motion to delay the effective date until next January 1 and finally joined the committee's seven Republican members yesterday in voting to send the bill to the floor, where he reserved the right to oppose it. The other five Democrats on the committee voted against the bill.

The most important change made by the Senate committee was delaying the effective date six months. New withholding rates would take effect July 1 if the Senate version becomes law. The withheld tax for most wage and salary earners would go down 30 or 20 per cent then, depending on the income bracket.

Outstanding in the Community Softball league games played Thursday evening was the victory of the Moose over the Evans' store outfit on the high school.

For five and one-half innings it looked as though the Evans' team would pull the biggest surprise of the season with a victory. At that time the Evans' had held a commanding lead 11-2. But in the last of the sixth Rudisill grew wild, eight passes were issued and, mixed with three hits and an error, produced 12 runs to give the lodgement a 14-11 triumph.

In the opening game on the high school field Knox's store trimmed the Elks 4-1. The Elks outthrew their opponents 10-7 but some poor base running cost them several tallies.

The Texas Lunch ran their winning streak to four by upsetting the Acme 7-3 in the opener at college and thereby took sole possession of fourth place in the league standing. Saylor held the Acme team to but three hits to win handily and aided his own cause with a homerun in the sixth with the bases empty.

The Highway kept its unbeaten record unblemished by blanking the scrappy American Legion boys in the nightcap 8-0. It marked the 10th straight for the league leaders.

Fair limited the Legionnaires to four hits and was backed by an 18-hit attack.

Tonight the Gettysburg and Cash-town teams of the South Penn Baseball league will again make an effort to play off their postponed contest on the high school field at 6 o'clock.

The game has already been rained out three times.

Auto Races Sunday At Williams Grove

Williams Grove, Pa.—Latest driver to sign up for Sunday's AAA big car auto race on the Williams Grove Speedway is Mark Light, of Lebanon, a veteran of many years standing in the east, it was announced by Roy Richwine, owner of the speedway.

Bill Holland, 1942 AAA Eastern champion, who finished the "500" second this year in his first trip to Indianapolis and winner of last Sunday's 100-mile National Championship Race at Milwaukee, will also be present.

3 TOP DIVISION CLUBS BEATEN

(By The Associated Press)
The Interstate league race tightened up today as three first division clubs went down to defeat.

The league-leading Allentown Cardinals absorbed one of their worst beatings of the season at the hands of fifth place Hagerstown, bowing 14 to 2.

Second place Harrisburg, three games off the pace, bowed to the red-hot Trenton Giants, 8 to 7, as the Giants moved into third place replacing the Lancaster Red Roses who dropped a 3 to 1 decision to York.

The cellar-dwelling Wilmington Blue Rocks narrowed the gap between first and last places to 11 games by edging the Sunbury Yankees, 2 to 1.

It was Cletus (Boots) Poffenberger, the one-time major league "bad boy" who stopped Allentown, spacing out six hits and chipping in with two doubles. His mates banged out a 19-hit assault off three Allentown pitchers. Starting hurler Rolland Chalfoux left the game in the first inning after a batted ball struck him on the left elbow.

Trenton snared its 12th victory in its last 15 games thanks to Gene Swedler's ninth inning pinch single with the bases loaded. Swedler's blow, struck with two men out, came with a count of two strikes and no balls.

Jack Cardey, right hander for the White Roses, yielded but three singles as the York club made it two in a row in their battle of the Roses with Lancaster.

St. Louis Cards Not For Sale: Bredon

St. Louis, June 13 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals are not for sale. Sam Bredon, president of the world champions of baseball, issued a brief statement to that effect last night in answer to persistent reports that he would sell his vast holdings in baseball and retire.

For two weeks Bredon had been besieged with requests to clarify his intentions, inasmuch as newspapers from coast to coast have carried stories that the club, in which he holds a 77 per cent interest, was for sale.

Latest of these reports was that a group headed by Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan and Edwin W. Pauley, west coast oil magnate, were trying to purchase the Cardinals for $5,000,000.

Yesterdays Stars

(By The Associated Press)
Batting, Don Johnson, Cubs—Led Chicago's attack against Pirates with three hits, including a triple with the bases loaded in the eighth inning of 7-3 win.

Pitching, Kent Peterson, Reds—Shut out World Champion St. Louis Cardinals with five hits, 1-0, for first full-game major league victory.

Philadelphia, June 13 (AP)—A committee of five Philadelphiaans leaves for the Stockholm meeting of the International Olympic committee today to attempt to have the 1952 games brought to the Quaker city. The group will fly from New York.

BUC PITCHERS KEEP TEAM IN LEAGUE CELLAR

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Billy Herman couldn't be blamed if he made the entire Pittsburgh Pirates pitching staff walk the plank into the Monongahela mud. In the last 15 games since Memorial Day, not one Bucco starter has gone the route. As a result the team is trying to knock a hole in the National league cellar floor.

Although the Pirates have failed to live up to their fine spring promise because of their pitching failures, the Forbes Field customers remain as loyal as ever. A crowd of 32,132 turned out last night to see the Pirates give a good illustration of the form they showed back east, bowing 7-3 to Chicago.

Chicago advanced into a second place tie with the idle Brooklyn Dodgers as a result of the win and the Pirates were rescued from a lonely berth in the basement by Cincinnati's 1-0 win over St. Louis. As a result the luckless Cardinals remained in a seventh-place tie with Pittsburgh.

Rookie Kent Peterson, a highly-publicized Rookie who had pitched only one inning of major league baseball before this spring, turned back the Birds with five hits, to the delight of 27,075 customers. The victory boosted the Reds into fifth place, a half game ahead of Philadelphia.

The two night games were the only contests in the majors with most of the clubs traveling.

'Baseball For Boys' Underway At York

York, Pa., June 13 (AP)—The community of York has its own solution for solving juvenile delinquency—it's "baseball for boys."

Under way today with summer closing of the city schools, the program numbers 1,000 youngsters from the ages of eight to 18.

It is the second year for the "baseball for boys" campaign, and unlike last summer, the sponsors of the activity are inviting national attention with the idea of spreading it throughout the country.

There is nothing new in the idea of getting a bunch of youngsters together on a baseball diamond and out of the streets in an effort to curb tendencies towards juvenile delinquency. But the York plan differs from the others in that it is community-wide, that it pools the funds and efforts of a score of civic, fraternal, veteran and athletic organizations, and that its coaches and instructors are hired professionals.

Trio In Lead At St. Louis Match

St. Louis, Mo., June 13 (AP)—Three players shared the leadership with four-under-par 67's in yesterday's opening 18-hole thrust of the 72-hole National Open Golf championship at the St. Louis Country club.

Today's 18-hole test will trim an original field of more than 160 professionals and amateurs to 80 odd battlers for tomorrow's concluding 36-hole scramble.

Two Texas products, Harry Todd of Dallas and Henry Ransom, Houston's gift to Chicago's Northmoor club, and long-driving Chick Harbert of Northville, Mich., were the pace-setting trio.

A stroke behind the pacesetter three-some was Bobby Locke, whose South African national flag was run up on the club-house pole yesterday as he tacked together 33-35.

LOOP APPROVES FINAL ROSTERS

Rosters which will stand for the remainder of the season were approved at a meeting of the Community Softball league Thursday evening at the Moose home. President Ralph Johnson presided with all teams represented.

It was decided that teams participating in the first games on the fields must yield the field to teams listed for the second game promptly at 7:30 o'clock unless a tie exists in which case play would continue until the tie is broken.

A decision was also reached which permits teams playing a game with but eight men. Previously it had been a full team had to be present.

A protest lodged by the Texas Lunch in a game with the Acme was voted down.

Rosters approved follow:
Elks: William Kuhn, Mike Tate, Jack Berger, Henry Donharl, Henry Herring, John McKenrick, Charles Rupp, Donald Myers, George Bushman, Rogers Herr, Paul McClair, Arthur Phil, Ken Tawney, Raymond Menges, Russell Kane, Ivan Kitzmiller.

Moose: George Houch, Donald McSherry, Harry Stoenstetter, Bob King, Ralph Johnson, Wilbur Moser, Harold Baltzley, Orlyn Hixon, William Gilbert, William Hinkle, Tony Clapper, Francis Knox, Bobby Ray Knox, Fred Wright, Donald Baker and Ned Buohl.

Highway: James Donaldson, Geo. Fair, Kenneth Fair, Philip Everhart, Fred Stambaugh, Robert March, Glenn Hankey, Abe Hankey, James Spahr, George Gorman, Robert Kitzmiller, Charles Lightner, T. Haller, Eugene Utech.

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

Washington, June 13 (AP)—James A. Farley disclosed today that his split with the late Franklin D. Roosevelt stemmed from his refusal to go along with the ill-fated 1938 attempt to "purge" Congress members who opposed the supreme court reorganization plan.

The former postmaster general and Democratic national chairman said the four-time president "never forgave me for putting party welfare above the personal allegiance he considered his due."

Farley was the first of a series of articles in Collier's on "Why I broke with Roosevelt," Farley said he supported the Court plan "to the hilt" but for the sake of the party declined to participate in attempts to defeat its opponents in the primaries a year later.

"Drifted Apart"

Among the intended targets of the "purge," attributed by many to the late Harry L. Hopkins, were Senators George of Georgia and Tydings of Maryland. Both were renominated and reelected.

Farley wrote that there was "no sharp, clean fracture of friendship," but rather a "slow, imperceptible drifting apart of political principles."

The climax came when Farley let his name go before the Democratic convention in 1940. Roosevelt was renominated for his third term with 946 votes to 72 for Farley, 61 for John Nance Garner, 9 for Senator Tydings and 5 for Cordell Hull.

Decline Comment

Friends of the late President declined comment by name. One said only Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt could answer Farley, who sparked the political organization behind Roosevelt's first two elections.

A Roosevelt associate still in public life said what many Democrats have seated for quotation in the past—that the abortive purge attempt was one of the "most ill-advised" moves Roosevelt ever made.

This associate disagreed, however, with Farley's remark in the article that "Mrs. Roosevelt once said, 'Franklin finds it hard to relax with people who aren't his social equals.' I took this remark to explain my being out of the infield."

"On the contrary," he declared, "Roosevelt could relax with a dock-waiter, a bartender, or anyone else."

Weddings

Spangler—Crook

Miss Kathleen Jane Crook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Crook, East Berlin R. 2, and Harvey Curtis Spangler, son of Harvey A., and the late Ruth Spangler, East Berlin, were married at 4 p. m., last Saturday by the Rev. Ralph Meckley, pastor of the Lower Meridian Lutheran church, who performed the double ring ceremony.

Serving a maid of honor was Miss Ethel Crook, a sister of the bride. The best man was Paul Shaffer, York R. D.

The bride wore a street length white dress of waffle weave and lace, with sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. Her corsage was of red roses with an orchid. She also wore the string of pearls which was a gift of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was attired in a pink eyelet dress with square neckline and cap sleeves. Her corsage was of white roses.

The parents of the bride entertained immediate families at a reception at their home after the ceremony. The centerpiece of the table was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Spangler was graduated in 1944 from the East Berlin high school and has had a position in York. Her husband also attended the East Berlin high school and is a veteran of three and one-half years in military service, 20 months of which was spent in Europe. He is now employed with the Certain-Teed Roofing company, York.

The couple have been on their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, upon the conclusion of which they expect to spend some time with the bride's parents.

Volland—Stahura

Miss Margaret Theresa Stahura, daughter of Mrs. John J. Stahura, Whiting, Ind., became the bride of Robert Earnest Volland, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Carroll Volland, of East Berlin, at a ceremony performed at the rectory of Paradise Catholic church by the pastor, the Rev. Chester T. Loszewski, on Wednesday.

The bridegroom, a graduate of the East Berlin high school, is a veteran of considerable army service, part of which was overseas.

The couple have left on a two-week wedding trip, at the conclusion of which they plan to reside in the apartment at the Clifford M. Barnes home, East Berlin, which is being re-decorated for them.

Ennis—Fite

Miss Katharine Virginia Fite, Frederick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Fite, Emmitsburg, and William Brice Ennis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ennis, Sr., Martin, Tenn., were married last Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in the ballroom of the Francis Scott Key hotel, Frederick. The Rev. Herbert R. Jordan performed the ceremony before an improvised altar in a setting of potted palms, baskets of white peonies, snapdragons and nook orange, lighted with candles.

Members of the bridal party were: Mrs. Murray E. Valentine, Rocky Ridge, Md., a sister of the bride, Lt. R. W. Swanson, Frederick, and Richard Graham, Frederick.

A reception followed the ceremony after which the couple left for a wedding trip to the New England states.

Breighner—Klunk

Miss Rosalie Elizabeth Klunk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Klunk, McSherrystown, and Felix E. Breighner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breighner, New Oxford, were married Thursday morning at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrystown. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Anthony J. McGinley in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Nancy Klunk, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, with Stella M. Klunk, sister of the bride, and Patricia Breighner, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids. William Breighner, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John W. Klunk, Jr., brother of the bride, and Harvey Smith, New Oxford. The Junior choir sang during the nuptial mass.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Pine Tree inn, York, for the wedding party, families and friends. The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to the Pocono mountains. The couple will live in their newly-furnished apartment at 145 1/2 Linden avenue, Hanover, after June 23.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph's academy, McSherrystown, is employed in the office of the Jackson Shoe company, Hanover. The bridegroom, who attended Delone Catholic high school, is associated with the Miller and Breighner Lumber company, New Oxford.

Markley—Himler

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Doris Ida Himler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Paul Himler, Baltimore, to Dr. Raymond L. Markley, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond L. Markley, Greencastle.

The wedding will take place at 3 p. m., Saturday, in the Faith Lutheran church, of Baltimore. The ceremony will be performed by the father of the bridegroom, assisted by the bride's pastor, the Rev. George F. Hein, pastor of the Faith Lutheran church.

Dr. Markley is a graduate of Gettysburg college.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kane and son, Russell, were business visitors in Philadelphia on Thursday.

BIG SUM GIVEN FOR RESEARCH

Washington, June 13 (AP)—The House appropriations committee today proposed a $43,449,000 fund for research in aerial weapons after hearing that potential foes might "jump at us" if they ever get air superiority.

The committee recommended the appropriation for use by the national advisory committee for aeronautics during the fiscal year starting July 1. It would be a $12,736,000 increase over the amount granted last year.

The committee report said research in such weapons as guided missiles and planes of unprecedented speed is essential to national security.

Jerome C. Hunsaker, chairman of the advisory group charged with coordinating the government's research work, said during the hearings the United States would be "in a splendid position" if war broke out now, but added:

"Our aircraft are not obsolete today because no one else has any better, but the seeds of obsolescence from an engineering point of view are already apparent. x x x I am speaking now for legislation to keep us out in front."

Much of the testimony at the hearings was so secret that it was stricken from the public record.

Speculation Over New Secret Weapon

Auckland, N. Z., June 13 (AP)—New Zealanders speculated today on the nature of a new weapon—approaching the atom bomb in importance, but cheaper—which the New Zealand Herald described as a joint development of scientists from this country, Great Britain and the United States.

Prof. David James Leech, said to be a leader in coordination and development of research on the project, was made a companion of the British empire in the royal birthday honors announced this week in London.

The Herald said its source of information about the new weapon was most reliable, but could not be disclosed.

FIRE AT GLEIM HOME

Fire at 11:45 p. m. Wednesday night, in which an electric iron damaged an ironing board and linoleum floor, was at the Hilda Gleim home, 303 Baltimore street, and not the home of Paul Hoffman, as was stated in The Gettysburg Times Thursday. Mrs. Hoffman, 301 Baltimore street, turned in the alarm.

NEW INTERIOR FIGURE

Washington, June 13 (AP)—The Senate Appropriations committee approved today a $215,530,353 appropriation for the Interior Department, adding $54,116,840 to the amount voted by the House. Principal increases are $36,837,932 for the Reclamation Bureau and $9,314, for the Bonneville Power Administration.

MERCURY TAKES DROP

Cloudy conditions brought cooler weather to Gettysburg today, with the official thermometer registering only 68 at noon. The low for the night was 64 degrees. Thursday's maximum was 89.

Harrisburg, June 13 (AP)—Governor James H. Duff yesterday reappointed Maj. Henry C. Hill, Camp Hill, and Theodore H. Reiber, West View, to four-year terms as members of the Pennsylvania parole board. He also re-appointed James F. Torrance, Export, for ten years as member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike commission.

MOVE TO DELAY TAX CUT ACTION UNTIL MID-JUNE

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Senate Democrats began lining up today behind a movement to delay action on the proposed $4,000,000,000 income tax cut until mid-June.

By that time, they contend, Congress should have a much better idea of what economies it can effect in President Truman's $37,500,000,000 budget for the fiscal year which starts July 1.

With most of the 44 Democratic Senators not sold on the idea of cutting taxes until the probable surplus can be computed, only a few Republican votes would have to be pulled over to achieve the postponement.

Senator George (D-Ga.) missed by a single tally in the finance committee last Friday when his motion to hold up action until June 15 lost by a 7 to 6 straight party vote.

Can't Compromise

Senator Taft of Ohio, the Republican policy chief, said he anticipates another delaying action on the floor but has not checked GOP sentiment on the matter.

Meanwhile Taft and Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) of the Senate Finance committee prepared to meet informally with House leaders tomorrow on the long-overdue legislative budget resolution.

Under the Congressional reorganization law which went into effect this session, the Senate and House are supposed to agree by February 15 on the size of the next year's budget. The House voted to slice $6,000,000,000 off President Truman's $37,500,000,000 estimate, while the Senate went for a cut of only $4,500,000,000 with the proviso that at least $2,600,000,000 of any surplus must be paid on the public debt.

The two Houses so far have not been able to compromise their differences.

Issues Reminder On Gun Registrations

Deputy Treasurer Murray B. Frazer today reminded those who own pistols and similar firearms of foreign manufacture that they must be registered at the court house either Wednesday or Thursday in order to comply with the National Firearms act.

U. S. Treasury department officials will be present from 1 to 9 p. m., each day to register the pistols. Most of the firearms are expected to be those brought back to the country by members of the armed forces from overseas.

Those firearms that need to be registered include all fully automatic weapons, that is, all guns that fire more than one shot with each pull of the trigger, and all guns with a barrel less than 18 inches in length except .22s, in which case all with barrels of less than 16 inches must be registered.

Nab Seven Drivers On Traffic Counts

A number of arrests by state police were reported today. They included: David E. Smith, Littlestown R. 1, before Justice of the Peace Warren Dunn, Biglerville, failing to obey a traffic signal; William L. Kerpinger, Hampstead, Long Island, who paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice Claude Straley, New Oxford, on a charge of speeding; Jay Shearer, Wellsville R. 1, before a county justice, reckless driving; Edwin J. Rapp, Philadelphia, before Justice William Dentler, Cashtown, improper pass; Frank Ruff, Johnstown, before Justice Dentler, improper pass; Ray A. Green, Hanover, before Justice John Dubs, improper pass, and Jack M. Timmons, Upper Strasburg, before Robert P. Snyder, overweight truck.

14 Going From Here To Hardinge Dinner

Fourteen members of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce had signed up today to attend a "National Affairs" dinner in York Wednesday evening, at which Harlow Hardinge, president of Hardinge and company, York manufacturers, and president of the York Manufacturers association, is to be the principal speaker.

The dinner will be held in the club room of the Yorktown hotel, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Other speakers will include Donald Marcellis, manager of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, northeastern division, and Truman D. Weller, national affairs advisor of the chamber's department on governmental affairs.

Lancaster, Pa., May 13 (AP)—A searching party today found the body of one of two Lebanon fishermen missing on a Susquehanna River outing. The dead man was identified as Robert Sorrentino, 35, who disappeared Sunday. There was no immediate trace of Dr. Adams M. Hauer, 35, or the motorboat in which the two had gone fishing.

State Police Say:

The careful and considerate driver will reduce his speed when children are observed walking or playing in the street or along the highway.

Wedding

Lawson-Rutters

A romance which began when the bride, who lost her first husband early in World War II and enlisted in the WACS, met her second husband while the latter was serving in the Navy, culminated here Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Anna Mae Rutters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gardner, York, and James Bruce Lawson, of Elk Mountain, Wyoming, were wed at 4:30 o'clock by the Rev. Eliza Myers, aunt of the bride, in the Four Square gospel church.

The best man was Kenneth Gardner, brother of the bride, and the maid of honor was Alice Swartzbaugh, also an aunt of the bride, both of York. The bride wore a black suit with white corsage, and the maid of honor a green suit with white accessories. The church was decorated with garden flowers, and the ceremony performed under an arch supporting a large, white bell.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for a honeymoon trip through the New England states, after which they will go to Wyoming to make their home.

WIDELY KNOWN BANKER IS SHOT

Radnor, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Thomas Newhall, 70-year-old former member of the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., and widely known Philadelphia financier, was found fatally shot last night in an old storage and record building he had converted into a recreation room for his sons.

His personal physician, Dr. Thomas Shallow, expressed belief Newhall had been dead since Sunday.

D. A. Newhall of Narberth, Pa., a brother, said Thomas apparently had been making his customary week-end inspection of his property at nearby Ithan and had been cleaning and repairing his collection of firearms.

He added: "Cleaning materials were on the table near where his body was found and it is assumed by the family that a revolver which apparently he was in the act of cleaning went off accidentally. x x x"

Deputy Coroner John Stretch, Jr., said the shooting apparently was accidental. He and Lt. James Bones of the Radnor township police continued an investigation.

Thomas Newhall was a member of the Morgan firm and of Drexel and company, Philadelphia investment firm, from 1922 to 1937. He was a director of the Pennsylvania railroad and former vice president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company. He had served as director of numerous corporations including Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, Reading Coal and Iron Corp., and Sharpe & Dohme, Inc.

New Scarlet Fever Case; Report Mumps

A new case of scarlet fever and several new cases of mumps have been reported to William I. Shields, state sanitarian of Adams county.

The scarlet fever case is in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Raffensperger, Orrtanna R. 2, Franklin township, where a daughter, Barbara, aged six years, is ill. The home was quarantined Saturday afternoon.

Three cases of mumps have been reported to Mr. Shields within the last few days and Borough Health Officer Erie R. Deardorff said one new case of mumps in Gettysburg was reported Monday. Although homes are not placed under quarantine for mumps, parents are required to report the disease to the borough or county health officers.

Selecting Jury In Murder-Arson Case

Carlisle, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Opposing counsel strove today to complete selection of the jury to try Sylvester B. Wilson, 26, charged with murder and arson in the death of his three small children.

Wilson pleaded innocent of three counts of murder and one of arson growing out of a fire on Christmas Day, 1945, which razed his log cabin home near here, burning to death the three children.

Cpl. Edwin Arms of the Pennsylvania State police fire marshal's office, brought the charges against Wilson, claiming that Wilson signed a statement in which he admitted pouring kerosene on the lots.

GETS SUPPORT ORDER

Bruce R. Jacobs, Abbottstown R. 1, was ordered by the York court Monday to pay $7 a week for the support of a daughter.

Vandenberg Backs Foreign Relief Fund

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) said today a proposed $350,000,000 foreign relief fund should be provided in full because "the Greek-Turkish aid program cannot succeed if we let the people of Europe go hungry."

Vandenberg, who is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, opens debate on the relief bill after the Senate votes early in the afternoon on the labor disputes legislation which is today's first order of business.

Declaring the Senate should restore $150,000,000 which the House voted to slash from the relief bill, Vandenberg told a reporter:

"It is a question of whether we are going to have hunger or statesmanship in dealing with Europe."

President Truman requested the money to furnish food, clothing, fuel, fertilizer and medical supplies to Austria, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Poland and China.

Lull Before Storm In 'Battle Of Oleo'

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—It was the lull before the storm on the hot issue of oleomargarine today.

Five weeks of debate on the question ended yesterday with the return to the Senate agriculture committee of a bill to repeal state regulations on the sale of margarine and another measure to impose a flat 55 license fee on handlers of the butter substitute.

But the legislation is due for a public hearing tomorrow, a Republican leader declaring the airing is necessary "to clear up public misunderstanding" on the matter.

Recommitment of the repealer bill by a 33-14 vote in the Senate met with a declaration by the Democratic minority that it was a piece of "legislative strategy."

"Under the guise of sending the bill back to committee, we are voting either for or against the bill," said Sen. John H. Dent, (D-Westmoreland), Senate minority leader.

Time To Nationalize Coal, Says Wallace

Minneapolis, May 13 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace says "the time has come to nationalize the coal industry under some type of coal authority," and added that "coal means so much to the life blood of the world that neither labor nor agriculture can tolerate the inconveniences which come so frequently in this key industry."

Speaking last night before a paid audience estimated at 5,600, Wallace said that "in the five countries I visited in Western Europe in April I found coal next after wheat to be the key problem."

The former vice president and cabinet member, now editor of the New Republic, said, in continuing his attack on President Truman's proposed $400,000,000 Greece-Turkey loan, "an extra 60,000,000 tons of coal produced in the United States during the next year would do more to solve the problems of Western Europe than ten Greek loans."

Steel Shortage Is Slowing Auto Plants

Detroit, May 13 (AP)—Production was halted or curtailed in at least a dozen of Michigan's big automotive plants today as a steel shortage cut off work for some 40,000 employees.

Seven Briggs Manufacturing company plants—six supplying Chrysler corporation divisions and one providing bodies for the Packard Motor Car company—were among the closed factories.

The Briggs shutdown halted final assembly lines of four Chrysler plants, Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto and Chrysler. In addition, final assembly operations had been suspended in General Motors corporation's Oldsmobile plant in Lansing.

Another GM plant, Buick at Flint, was closed yesterday but called employees back to work today.

German Farmers Diverting Food

Berlin, May 13 (AP)—F. Taylor Ostrander, American military government price control chief, estimated today that German farmers were diverting a fifth of the nation's food production from controlled distribution to the black market and to livestock.

He said in a statement that Germany was passing through a state of "stagnant inflation."

Ostrander said 450,000 hogs disappeared from the U. S. zone in three months, ending in early March, whereas 802,000 were slaughtered in regular channels.

"It is believed, however, that this proportion of illicit marketing of hogs to total marketing is much larger than is characteristic of other foods," he said. "Usually the farmers do not accept money but insist on barter in these transactions for farm equipment, supplies and services."

Lake Success, N. Y., May 13 (AP)—Despite a threatened Arab walkout, the Political committee of the United Nations Assembly today defeated a Soviet move to have a U. N. Palestine inquiry commission draft proposals for immediate independence of the Holy Land.

Detroit Gambler Shot In Street

Detroit, May 13 (AP)—Fred A. Baraky, 33-year-old minor police character and once-convicted gambler, was shot down in the street today in a slaying reminiscent of Detroit's roaring rum running era of the 1920s.

Police expressed fears that his murder may be linked to a week-end crackdown in which officers claimed to have smashed an $8,000,000 gambling syndicate with roots deep in the city's underworld.

Nine bullets were pumped into Baraky's body by a man who accosted him and an unidentified woman companion outside a bowling alley and bar. The slayer then entered what a witness described as "a big automobile" and sped away with two other men.

The woman, about 38, disappeared after sobbing out details of the slaying in the nearby bar.

PORTAL PAY MESSAGE

Washington, May 13 (AP)—President Truman will send a message to Congress tomorrow on the portal-to-portal pay bill. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross, telling reporters this today, declined to forecast whether Mr. Truman will veto or sign the measure. Ross told a news conference the President will accompany his action with an explanation.

Ball Stars Cheer Legless Boy, 11

Malden, Mass., May 13 (AP)—Two big, tanned ball players—Ted Williams and Joe Dobson—walked through the quiet corridors of Malden hospital today and gave 11-year-old Glenn Brann an autographed baseball and a home run bat he probably will never use.

Acme vs. Highway.

College
Evans' Store vs. Elks, 6 p.m.
Moose vs. Knox's Store.

Outstanding in the Community Softball league games played Thursday evening was the victory of the Moose over the Evans' store outfit on the high school.

For five and one-half innings it looked as though the Evans' team would pull the biggest surprise of the season with a victory. At that time the Evans' lads held a commanding lead 11-2. But in the last of the sixth inning the wild, eight passes were issued and, mixed with three hits and an error, produced 12 runs to give the lodgemen a 14-11 triumph.

In the opening game on the high school field Knox's store trimmed the Elks 4-1. The Elks outthrew their opponents 10-7 but some poor base running cost them several tallies.

The Texas Lunch ran their winning streak to four by upsetting the Acme 7-3 in the opener at college and thereby took sole possession of fourth place in the league standing.

Saylor held the Acme team to but three hits to win handily and aided his own cause with a homerun in the sixth with the bases empty.

The Highway kept its unbeaten record unblemished by blanketing the scrappy American Legion boys in the nightcap 8-0. It marked the 10th straight for the league leaders.

Fair played the Legionnaires to four hits and was backed by an 18-hit attack.

Auto Races Sunday. At Williams Grove

Williams Grove, Pa.—Latest driver to sign up for Sunday's AAA big car auto race on the Williams Grove Speedway is Mark Light, of Lebanon, a veteran of many years standing in the east, it was announced by Roy Richwine, owner of the speedway.

Bill Holland, 1942 AAA Eastern champion, who finished the "500" second this year in his first trip to Indianapolis and winner of last Sunday's 100-mile National Championship Race at Milwaukee, will also be present.

3 TOP DIVISION CLUBS BEATEN

(By The Associated Press)
The Interstate league race tightened up today as three first division clubs went down to defeat.

The league-leading Allentown Cardinals absorbed one of their worst beatings of the season at the hands of fifth place Hagerstown, bowing 14 to 2.

Second place Harrisburg, three games off the pace, bowed to the red-hot Trenton Giants, 8 to 7, as the Giants moved into third place replacing the Lancaster Red Roses who dropped a 3 to 1 decision to York.

The cellar-dwelling Wilmington Blue Rocks narrowed the gap between first and last places to 11 games by edging the Sunbury Yankees, 2 to 1.

It was Cletus (Boots) Poffenberger, the one-time major league "bad boy" who stopped Allentown, spacing out six hits and chipping in with two doubles. His mates banged out a 19-hit assault off three Allentown pitchers. Starting hurler Rolland Chalfoux left the game in the first inning after a batted ball struck him on the left elbow.

Trenton snared its 12th victory in its last 15 games thanks to Gene Swedler's ninth inning pinch single with the bases loaded. Swedler's blow, struck with two men out, came with a count of two strikes and no balls.

Jack Cardey, right hander for the White Roses, yielded but three singles as the York club made it two in a row in their battle of the Roses with Lancaster.
